Chapter 81 – TT Incident

My skills aren't that bad right? I shook my head, then called Zhao Junsheng.

"Hey Uncle Zhao, help me get a car," I said.

"You want to buy a car? Is it urgent? How about I give you my Hongqi first?" Zhao Junsheng thought I urgently needed a car.

"It's not urgent, help me order one first, Jetta's good, it's cheap," I said.

"Jetta? You're really saving money, how about Uncle Zhao pay and buy you a Mercedes instead?" Zhao Junsheng chuckled.

"Never mind that. If I wanted to show off, I would have chose Bentley or Lincoln, I just don't want to be too eye-catching," I said.

"Okay, I'll get someone to do it later. I'll get a more awesome car plate for so, so you don't have to pay fines everyday," Zhao Junsheng mocked.

I faint! Is my driving skills really that bad? I hung up the phone in displeasure. Back in the days, I was a professional racer.

When I returned the bra to Zhao Yanyan, the chick's face was really red, then she said in a mosquito like voice, "Your mom knows everything?"

I nodded.

The chick actually smiled craftily, that expression was like her ploy worked. I suddenly had a strong feeling that, this chick definitely did it intentionally!

"Did you do it intentionally?" I pretended to be agree.

"Did your mom get angry?" Zhao Yanyan said evasively.

"Yeah, she thinks that you're a really wanton girl," I deliberately lied.

"Re-really?" Zhao Yanyan's eyes dimmed depressedly.

"I'm kidding! My mom said I can't do anything that would wrong you," seeing Zhao Yanyan like that, I could not bear to continue lying to her.

“Ah! Really? You’re not lying?” Zhao Yanyan immediately became happy again.

“Really, but say, was it on purpose?” I said.

“En,” Zhao Yanyan nodded.

It really was as I expected, this chick did it on purpose, the goal was to get my mom to recognize her quickly, so she can easily become my legal wife in the future, if it was stolen by someone else, that’d be terrible.

Seeing that I stopped speaking, Zhao Yanyan thought I was really angry, so she pulled my hand and said, “I am just scared that you won’t want me in the future!”

I immediately explained, “I’m not blaming you! Do you know what my dad gave me yesterday?”

“What is it? Is it for me?” Zhao Yanyan said happily after she saw that I wasn’t angry, and there was something good.

“For both of us,” I laughed naughtily.

“Let me see it quickly!” Zhao Yanyan said impatiently.

I took out that small box from my backpack and handed it to Zhao Yanyan.

Zhao Yanyan took a glance at it then immediately pushed it back to me, “Damn Liu Lei, big pervert, why did you bring it to school!”

“Isn’t this just because I was afraid you would want it during the day, so I specially prepared it. This way we can go to the water room...” I said while smiling lewdly.

“I hate you!” I don’t want it! And I don’t want it anymore in the future, use it yourself,” Zhao Yanyan said with a red face.

“Okay then, I’ll find someone else to use it with!” I said with false regret.

“What!? You dare! If you go and find someone else, I’ll... I’ll...” Saying that, the words seemed to be stuck in Zhao Yanyan's mouth, finally she sighed, and said faintly, "I'll support you..."

I really didn't know what to say about this Zhao Yanyan anymore, if I say she doesn't get jealous, she have more thoughts than anyone. If I say she does get jealous, the things she does are often out of my expectations.

As I was immersed in my thoughts, a hand reached over and snatched away the Double Butterfly condom in my hand.

"Who!" I raised my head in annoyance, I just wanted to explode when I noticed the one standing beside me was my class tutor, Ye Xiaoxiao.

"Follow me to the office!" Ye Xiaoxiao said with a cold expression.

Ye Xiaoxiao's gaze swept over Zhao Yanyan, who was beside me, this chick immediately blushed and laid her head on the table, too scared to look at us. Isn't this admitting her guilt? Ai! Now it'll be hard to explain.

I stood up helplessly, and followed Ye Xiaoxiao out of the classroom. How many times have she found me? This is the third time? Her teeth clenching expression was really funny, she was clearly blushing, yet still pretended like she didn't care.

Due to this, a weird scene was created in the corridor. The virgin teacher holding a box of condom walking in the front while blushing, with a student follow her from behind, both people had their heads down and didn't speak. It was fortunate that there weren't many people in the corridor, or else who knows what they would think. I didn't really care, but it would hurt Ye Xiaoxiao's face.

"Go in!" Ye Xiaoxiao used the key to open the office door, and then stood on the side, telling me to go in first.

I walked into the familiar office, and rushed over to sit onto Ye Xiaoxiao's chair, then I casually crossed my legs. If I could like a cigarette right now, then it would be too epic!

Ye Xiaoxiao closed the door, then noticed I was sitting on her chair, however she didn't burst out due to the precedent last time. Instead she pulled over a chair and sat beside me.

“What is this thing for?” Ye Xiaoxiao throw the condom onto the desk.

“What else can this thing be used for?” I didn’t answer directly, and replied with a question instead.

“You——!” Ye Xiaoxiao didn’t think I would answer so directly, and immediately blushed.

“Ye-laoshi couldn’t have not used this before right?” A mocking smile appeared on the corner of my mouth.

“I... I..., who said I haven’t used it before!” Ye Xiaoxiao angrily bit her lips and stomped her foot.

“Oh? So Ye-laoshi have used it, then why did you ask me what this is for?” I said with a smile.

“Liu Lei! You’re too much!” Ye Xiaoxiao said.

“Too much? How am I too much?” I asked weirdly. To be honest, I didn’t find I did anything over the top.

“How old are you, using this thing!” Ye Xiaoxiao took two deep breaths and calmed down.

“Ye-laoshi doesn’t seem too old!” I continued to use a teasing tone and said.

“I haven’t used it,” I didn’t know why, but Ye Xiaoxiao suddenly said honestly.

“Ah?” It was kind of hard to accept Ye Xiaoxiao’s 180 degrees turn of attitude.

I nodded subconsciously.

“Prepare to use, or used it before?” Ye Xiaoxiao pressed on.

“Is it important?” I asked back. What business is it of hers whether I used it or not?

“Hai——Hai——! I’m just caring about you as your teacher and friend!”

Ye Xiaoxiao said embarrassedly.

I faint, when did this strict Ye-laoshi change? Suddenly becoming so gentle.

“I’ve used it before,” Ye Xiaoxiao’s attitude made me feel bad about hiding it any longer.

“Oh!” Ye Xiaoxiao nodded, and didn’t say anymore.

After a long while, seeing that Ye Xiaoxiao didn’t speak, I asked, “Can I go back?”

Ye Xiaoxiao nodded, indicating that I could leave. I was just about to turn when Ye Xiaoxiao said, “Wait, take this back, there-there’s no use of me keeping it. Don’t take it to school next time.”

Chapter 82 – Beauty’s Looking For Me?

Ye Xiaoxiao placed the box of condom into my hands with a red face. I shook my head, turned around then left. Was I dreaming, or was Ye Xiaoxiao not fully awake? What happened?

Ye Xiaoxiao returned to her seat with a red face, a smile appeared at the corner of her mouth, so this brat yields to a soft approach but rejects a hard one.

However when she thought of that box of condoms and that phrase “used it before”, it caused Ye Xiaoxiao to feel a grievance out of nowhere. Ye Xiaoxiao immediately dispelled this thought, he’s just my student, why am I thinking so much about it! I just feel sad because I don’t want to see my student make mistakes, Ye Xiaoxiao explained to herself.

Ye Xiaoxiao’s episode didn’t cause me too much trouble, neither of us mentioned this incident after that. Yet every time Ye Xiaoxiao sees me afterwards, she would occasionally blush, I don’t know if it was because of our debate about whether or not the condom has been used, I didn’t treat it as a big deal though.

However other problems arose. The chick Xu Ruoyun actually would bother Zhao Yanyan and I whenever she has nothing to do, it was nauseating to hear her call “Yanyan-jie” over and over again. I didn’t oppose her good relationship with Zhao Yanyan, what I hate is that this chick would come over whenever Zhao Yanyan and I are alone together.

I often hinted at her about how being a light bulb[1] was a shameless thing to do. Yet this chick actually pretends to be dumb with me, and ignore everything I said. The world really is so big that anything is possible.

Due to Xu Jinde’s face, I didn’t really say too much to Xu Ruoyun. This caused Zhao Yanyan and my world to always have a little shadow.

This wasn’t the worst, what made me most confused was that Xu

Ruoyun always talk to me for no reason, and the topics are all related to computers, most of it was actually focused on that Shuguang Pinyin input method. The chick always asks me about how I got the idea and how I developed it whether intentionally or not. I always answer her perfunctorily every single time, but it seemed to just further ignite the flames of her curiosity and made her more relentless about finding out.

“Liu Lei, someone’s at the doorway looking for you!” I heard a classmate call me just when I got back to the classroom at noon.

“Who is it, not letting people rest at noon,” I complained. I wanted to have a good sleep.

“It’s a beauty, I say Liu Lei, you’re lucky!” That classmate in our class said while saliva dripped from his mouth.

“Who?” Zhao Yanyan was originally doing practice questions, but once she heard that a beauty was looking for me, she immediately raised her head.

“How would I know!” I said guiltily.

“Heh!” Zhao Yanyan snorted and ignored me.

I smiled dryly and walked out for the classroom, which is when I noticed the person looking for me is actually Chen Weier. She was standing at the stairway not far from our class, wearing neat clothing, with the pink down jacket being particularly eye-catching.

“Weier!” I called.

Hearing I call out to her, Chen Weier bushed and whispered, “This is in school, don’t call me like that. Other people would misunderstand!”

From what she said, did she mean that I can call her Weier when not in school?

“Hehe, there isn’t anyone here right!” I chuckled.

“It’s no good even if there’s no one! Calling me like that makes it seem like there’s something between us,” Chen Weier glared at me and said.

“What did you find me for?” I quickly changed the topic, it would be bad if the topic of relationship was discussed properly.

“Returning money to you! Thank you so much last time!” Chen Weier took out a pile of neatly folded money and placed it in my hands.

“There’s no need to hurry, I don’t need it,” I immediately rejected. It’s not like I don’t know what Chen Weier’s family situation is like, this hundred something kuai is a lot for her, but it’s nothing for me.

“How can I do that! I borrowed it for so long. I wanted to pay it back right afterwards, but it really couldn’t be helped, my older brother beat that Yang Kaiyuan, so we had to pay twenty something thousand just for medical fees! My mom and I just managed to earn some spare money,” Chen Weier said embarrassedly.

“What!? You paid him medical fees?” I said in surprised.

“Yeah! That Captain Yang came to find us afterwards, and said to settle it privately, or else he would arrest my older brother again. I didn’t want to trouble you again, so we paid him the money!” Chen Weier explained.

“Captain Yang?! Okay, I understand, I’ll handle this, I’ll get you the money back!” I started swearing in my heart, Yang Shuguang is still acting so fucking pretentious even after he was posted on the streets, is he sick of living? Let’s see how I force you to spit the money out.

“Don’t! Captain Yang is still a police, don’t piss him off more because of me, our whole family already admitted our misfortune!” Chen Weier quickly shook her head.

“He’s a police? C’mon, is there police like him! He’s just a member of the defense team, a fox assuming the majesty of a tiger! Now he isn’t even a defense team member! It’s alright, I promise nothing will go wrong. Just relax,” I felt a wave of sweetness in my heart seeing Chen Weier care about me.

“Oh, then be careful, I think that person is quite bad!” Chen Weier said.

“I know. Is there anything else?” I said.

“En! My mom said she’s really thankful about last time, asks you to... come to my home tonight, my mom wants to treat you to dinner,” Chen Weier said with a red face.

“Tonight?” I remembered that I promise Zhao Yanyan to buy some stationaries with her tonight. So I said, “I can’t tonight...”

“Oh,” Chen Weier nodded, a hint of disappointment flashed across her face, before her expression returned to normal. “Never mind then, if you have proper business then never mind, don’t let it delay your proper business!”

Proper business? I sweat. Going to buy stuff with my girlfriend is now proper business. However visiting Chen Weier’s home is a pretty good thing as well, and then something happens after both of us get drunk at night... Wouldn’t that be so amazing, and this chick seemed to have developed quite well, her chests was bulging, although it wasn’t as big as Xia Jing, it was able to put up a good fight. And this figure, it’s no worse than Zhao Yanyan’s. It makes my saliva drip.

Thus I quickly said, “I don’t have time tonight, but I have time tomorrow night, is that alright?”

“That’s great! It’s a promise! I’ll wait for you by the school entrance tomorrow night after school! Be there or be square!” Chen Weier said happily, and then skipped away.

Seeing me return to the classroom, Zhao Yanyan quickly dipped her head down, pretending to be focused on doing questions, however I saw that her notebook was the same as when I left, there wasn’t a single extra character. This chick must be thinking about me the entire time, and couldn’t do questions.

As expected, the moment I sat down, Zhao Yanyan pretended to be casual and asked, “Who was looking for you?”

Although her tone was calm, the anxious expression of her face already betrayed her.

Chapter 83 – Fatty Wu

---

“Chen Weier,” I said with a smile.

“What did she find you for?” Hearing the name, Zhao Yanyan immediately became alert.

“Nothing much, just to return money to me,” I explained.

“Return money to you? Why did she borrow money from you?” Zhao Yanyan asked wide-eyed.

It couldn't be helped, I could only tell Zhao Yanyan everything that happened during New Year.

Hearing that, Zhao Yanyan thought about it a little and said, “Liu Lei, I'm really happy that you can tell me what happened, I don't care if you like Chen Weier or not, but I hope you will not lie to me.”

“I will never lie to you my entire life, believe me, Yanyan,” I sighed.

Zhao Yanyan nodded happily, and continued to do questions.

“Zhao Yanyan!” A worked up voice sounded out beside my ears.

At that moment, I was with Zhao Yanyan picking stationeries in Songjiang Department Store.

“This person is my middle school classmate, he once pursued me,” Zhao Yanyan said quietly beside my ears.

I looked over, it was actually a fatty, with a face full of smiles and his fat bulging out around his body.

The fatty appeared rushed in front of Zhao Yanyan and I with a surprising speed of a hundred and eighty kilometer per hour, just like that something wind in the songs.

I was really surprised that this guy with a fatty's physique could reach the speed of a Mercedes.

“Zhao Yanyan, what a coincident! You also come here to buy things.”

the fatty said excitedly while rubbing his hands.

“Hehe, yeah, long time no see,” Zhao Yanyan said with a smile.

“This is?” The fatty noticed me, who was beside Zhao Yanyan, and exclaimed.

“This is, my... boyfriend,” Zhao Yanyan said with a red face, however I could tell that there was a joyous expression on her face.

“Ah! You have a boyfriend!” The fatty’s expression immediately turned painful. “Yanyan, why did you get this boyfriend!”

“Several months ago. When I just entered high school,” Zhao Yanyan said with a smile.

“Yanyan, did you say you wouldn’t get a boyfriend while you’re at school?” The fatty was unwilling to give up.

“Some things come when they come, and is outside of our control, right?” Zhao Yanyan explained apologetically.

“Oh——!” The fatty hugged and shook his head, then sighed, “It looks like I don’t have no chance!”

The fatty remained sad for a while, then immediately returned to normal, then reached out a hand towards me with a sorrowful expression, “Hello, lucky person, I’m called Wu Tian.”

“Hello, Liu Lei!” I reached out and shook hands with me. Although this person is my rival in love, but for some reason I don’t really dislike him.

“Never mind, I wish you happiness. Since you are Yanyan’s choice, then bro you must have some place better than others! However you can’t wrong Zhao Yanyan in the future, I’m telling you, I won’t give you! Be careful of me swooping in!” Wu Tian clapped my shoulder and said.

“Don’t worry, I won’t give you the chance!” I smiled.

“It’s getting late, let’s find a place to eat. Old classmate, you can’t not give face right,” Wu Tian said casually.

Zhao Yanyan turned her head towards me, I know that she was asking for my opinion. Therefore I nodded, this Fatty Wu's personality isn't bad, it was worth making a friend of him.

"Okay then, but not too late," Zhao Yanyan said. Ever since Zhao Junsheng and my mom consented to Zhao Yanyan and my relationship, our actions become much more convenient, and we no longer had to go back home on time every day.

"I couldn't tell, the Zhao-daxiaojie that is cold as ice towards boys would also become a gentle lady. Brother Liu, this one truly admires you to the extreme!" Wu Tian said sourly after seeing Zhao Yanyan's inquisitive expression towards me.

"Our family's Yanyan has always been gentle, am I right?" I caressed Zhao Yanyan's hair and said.

Zhao Yanyan nodded obediently, just like a little cat.

"Fuck, don't agitate me anymore! I submit! Big bro, I'm going to call you big bro from now on, I'll follow you now! Too fucking amazing, you really give face to us men!" Wu Tian said in admiration.

"Okay now, hurry up if we're going to eat, I'll take Zhao Yanyan away if you blabber on anymore!" I threatened.

"Okay, okay, go, let's go and eat!" Wu Tian said with a smile.

After exiting the department store, Wu Tian stopped a taxi, and got onto the front passenger seat. Zhao Yanyan and I also got on.

"To Heaven on Earth," Wu Tian turned to the driver and said after we settled down.

"I couldn't tell, Old Wu you're a rich man!" I said. This Heaven on Earth was one of the top hotels with stars in Songjiang city, the price of it was enough to shock people to the core, normal wages wouldn't even be able to order a single dish.

"Big Bro, don't call m Old Wu, calling me Fatty Wu or Damn Fatty is fine. Most of the people I'm familiar with would call me Damn Fatty," Wu Tian said.

“Fuck, there’s actually someone that likes to be called Damn Fatty, this is the first time I’ve heard of it!” I said speechlessly.

“Hehe,” Fatty Wu smiled.

When we got to Heaven on Earth, Fatty Wu directly got the manager for a room, and familiarly ordered a few dishes for us, before going with us to the room “Qingyn Loft”. Seeing how familiar this fellow was acting, it was obvious that he was a frequent customer here, I wonder what this Fatty Wu’s family does to actually be so rich.

“Wu Tian, what do you do now? Didn’t you go into the army?” Zhao Yanyan asked weirdly after seeing Wu Tian seemingly turned into a rich man all of a sudden.

“Hai! Don’t mention it, I didn’t even get into high school, what else could I be if not a soldier!” Fatty WU sighed.

“Soldier? Is there a soldier with this much money?” I pointed to the luxurious room and said.

“Rich? Big bro! You think I’m actually rich? This hotel is military property, I just keep it on tab here!” Fatty Wu smiled.

“On tab, that’s even more high class, your rank mustn’t be low,” what I said was the truth, even if it is military property, a random soldier wouldn’t be able to keep it on tab right?

“Hai! Big bro, don’t pester me, I’m just a driver! My old man is an important official though, I drive for him, so I did reap some benefits,” Fatty Wu said in self mockery.

“Your old man is an important official? That isn’t just a bit impressive!” I exclaimed! Military VIPs are just a little awesome.

“Leave it, if I couldn’t get some nice stuff to eat and drink, I would give a shit about him, that pedantic old guy,” Fatty Wu curled his lips.

The moment these words left Fatty Wu’s mouth, Zhao Yanyan and I were immediately shocked.

“What is it, you two?” Fatty Wu saw that both of us blanked there, and said weirdly. “This isn’t anything special, an issue of generation gap, generation gap!”

After the dishes came, Fatty Wu immediately poured a bowl of white wine for me and said to me, “Big Bro, since I’m calling you Big Bro, you can’t not give me face, you have to drink this entire bowl!”

“Wu Tian. What are you trying to do!? Drink my hubby to death!” Before I could say anything, Zhao Yanyan was already unwilling.

Chapter 84 – The bill I paid

“Ai! Already calling him hubby! I say, can’t you two not agitate me!” Fatty Wu said in displeasure. “Liu-dage didn’t say anything, what are you worried about! You have to drink between men!”

“You...! You think I’m in the way here right?” Zhao Yanyan snorted and said.

“Hehe, how can I!” Fatty Wu immediately denied.

“It’s okay, Yanyan, I can drink this much,” this was tiny compared to my alcohol tolerance in my previous life. Which CEO in Huaxia doesn’t drink? All of them drink quite a frequently.

Seeing my confident expression, Zhao Yanyan no longer objected, and just whispered beside my ear, “Hubby be careful, Wu Tian can really drink!”

I gave her a slight smile so she wouldn’t worry

We drank till Wu Tian and I called each other brothers, although this fellow was older than me, he insisted on admitting me as his big bro.

“Big Bro, you have to teach little bro about chatting up girls in the future!” Fatty Wu was already dead drunk, and didn’t pay heed to Zhao Yanyan on the side, and said shamelessly tome in front of this girl he once longed after.

“Hehe, no problem, this thing just relies on a person’s understanding ——“ I started continuously speak about some pickup hints that I saw on the internet in my previous life.

Zhao Yanyan kept on frowning as she heard it, then used her crab-like hands to pinch me really hard on my waist, and said quietly, “Say, why do you know so much? Did you use these methods to get me?”

“Don’t you know if I used it or not?” I chuckled. Actually I didn’t really intentionally pursue Zhao Yanyan, us getting together felt very natural, and gave me a feeling as if everything fell into place.

“Still, don’t say anymore, don’t set a bad example for others!” Zhao Yanyan warned.

I knew that I couldn’t talk about this topic anymore, and immediately changed the topic, however Fatty Wu was really enjoying listening to it, my random gibberish sounded like first class pickup tips, just as he was listening to it carefully, he suddenly noticed that I stopped talking, and anxiously asked, “Why aren’t you speaking anymore, continue!”

I quickly raised my glass perfunctorily, “Let’s drink first, drink first!”

“Sure!” Hearing that we were drinking, Fatty Wu also picked up his glass, clearly forgetting about my change of topic. Fatty Wu filled his glass and said, “Here, Big Bro! Us Dongbei people are right, drink it in a gulp for a close relationship, take a sip for a shallow relationship, drink till your stomach bleeds for an unbreakable relationship! Let’s drink till we’re drunk today, whoever doesn’t fucking drink till thy bleed isn’t going to go home.”

Fuck, this Fatty Wu is clearly drunk, bleeding stomach? You turned dumb right! I already dropped dead from drinking once in my previous life, you want me to die again? You must think I’m crazy.

I tried my best to preserve my ability when we were drinking just now, this caused the currently completely drunk Fatty Wu to not even act as an actual opponent for me who was sober, every time he gulps down a glass, I would take a sip. Finally Fatty Wu fell asleep onto the table after once again finishing a glass.

“Is he fine, do we have to send him to the hospital?” Zhao Yanyan asked worriedly after seeing Fatty Wu was like a dead pig.

“It’s alright, people like him who often drink knows how much they can drink, he won’t go over the top,” I rinsed my mouth with tea and said.

“Oh! But how do you know? Say it! Do you go out and drink often?” Zhao Yanyan said in displeasure.

“Of course not! I... heard it from your dad!” Seeing Zhao Yanyan’s displeasure, I immediately denied it and incidentally dumped this black wok on Zhao Junsheng's head.

“Heh! All my dad does is set a bad example for you, I'll deal with him another day,” Zhao Yanyan said angrily.

Hehe, it looks like Zhao Junsheng was definitely screwed this time! I couldn't help but think of a quote: What are employees for? Employees are to carry the black wok for their bosses.

I walked out of the room, and got a waiter to get us the bill. After a while, the waiter brought over a bill for Wu Tian to sign, however despite us screaming Fatty Wu for a long while, this bastard didn't react at all.

“Can't he sign it for you next time?” I asked the waiter.
“No, although we know him, but the hotel have its regulations, it would really trouble us,” the waiter said.

This military hotel had a lot of regulations. It looks like this bill isn't going to be signed, I asked helplessly, “How much is everything in total?”

The waiter handed me the bill and said, “A total of four thousand six hundred and twenty three, thank you.”

Fuck, this meal was too expensive, it's already four thousand something without us eating anything special. This level in 1995 was nearly as much as Shangri-La. I took out a bankcard from my pocket and handed it to the waiter, “Is there no discount?”

The waiter received the bankcard and said, “You can have 10% off if you don't sign.”

“I won't sign, just hurry and swipe the card!” I waved my hand and said. I lost four thousand something kuai for no good reason, I have to eat it all back from Fatty Wu another day.

After paying the billed, I held Zhao Yanyan's hand and left Heaven on Earth. Right before we left, Zhao Yanyan pointed to Fatty Wu who was still sleeping on the table, “We're really leaving him here?”

“Yeah, the hotel is the military's, just wait for his old man to pick him up,” I said casually. Saying that, I suddenly remembered that since we’re leaving Fatty Wu here, why did I pay the bill, I could just get his old man to pay it later, I let myself get taken advantage of for no reason.

The reason I drank with Fatty Wu till we’re dead drunk (it seems like I’m still sober, and could consider issues!), was because in the current condition of Huaxia, the military wasn’t an ignorable force, it had more power and control than the government in some ways. Fatty Wu didn’t disgust me, rather he was quite forthright, he just got a little sad after knowing Zhao Yanyan and my relationship. This was a real man, so much better than those punks that only knew how to play dirty tricks like Liu Kesheng and Yang Kaiyuan.

The way the dinner went was all under my lead, it was very successful. I believe that after today, Fatty Wu would treat me as a good friend, as well as the Big Bro that he calls me.

This was what I want as well, currently the local government was already on my side, if I can get some contacts in the military, then that will be very advantageous for my future development.

“Yanyan,” I stopped my steps under the moonlight, and gazed at the little beauty that was as mesmerizing as a drawing, and lightly embraced her, I used my hand to lift her face, and kissed her passionately.

Although Zhao Yanyan only drank a few mouthfuls, but since the girl has never drunk before, under the effects of alcohol, her face was bright red, her whole body heated up. Under my teasing she became even more delirious.

“Ahh... En... No, hubby, we’re still on the streets...” Zhao Yanyan mumbled.

I smiled, and pulled Zhao Yanyan into the military hotel reception beside Heaven on Earth.

The only good thing about a hotel opened by the military was that no police would come check at night, doing that to the military was just asking for trouble. However with Zhao Yanyan and my background in Songjiang, we had nothing to be afraid of.

Chapter 85 – Finishing Yang Kaiyuan

“Hey? Fatty Wu, are you alright?” I entered the number Wu Tian gave me and called the next morning.

“I’m fine, Big Bro, I’m so sorry, I drank too much yesterday, and made you pay the bill,” Fatty Wu said embarrassedly.

“It’s okay, I didn’t wake you up after seeing you asleep,” actually I called him for along while but he didn’t wake up, I only spent my own money with no other choice.

“Hehe, when the two of us come out alone, I’ll pay. Don’t bring Zhao Yanyan next time, it’s inconvenient to chat,” Fatty Wu said.

I answered him casually. I didn’t get if he actually likes ZhaoYanyan or not, he asked me to go out without Zhao Yanyan. This Fatty Wu was quite cute at times.

“Who are you calling?” Zhao Yanyan flipped around, and sat up from my side, then said while rubbing her sleepy eyes.

“I called Fatty Wu to see if he was dead or not,” I threw the phone on the shelf by the bed.

“Oh,” Zhao Yanyan muttered, then layed on my body to continue sleeping. Then she suddenly sat up and screamed, “I didn’t go home last night?”

“En,” I replied.

“Crap crap, I’m dead, grandpa and them must be really anxious,” Zhao Yanyan hugged her head and said.

“I called your dad ages ago, and said that you were at my home last night,” I patted Zhao Yanyan’s naked back and said.

“Oh, then I’ll sleep a bit more,” after that, the little chick turned around, and laid on my body and continued to sleep.

After she feel asleep, I also gradually slept as well. When I woke up again, I saw that the sun was already high up in the sky.

Zhao Yanyan woke up ages ago, was lying on my body and looking at me with large round eyes.

“Why didn’t you wake me?” I picked up the watch on the shelf and saw that it was already eleven something at noon.

“I didn’t want to get up, I just like to lie on you like this,” Zhao Yanyan purred.

“You aren’t worried about being late for school?” I asked.

“I would be late when I woke up already, so it didn’t really matter,” Zhao Yanyan has been with me a long time, and had started to be affected by me.

Zhao Yanyan and I got up and took a shower, we then returned to room and got onto the streets. Songjiang city at the end of January was already filled with a Chinese New Year atmosphere, the streets were filled with stalls that sold fire crackers and new year products.

“There’s one that sells sugarcoated haws there, I want to eat it!” Zhao Yanyan pointed to a person pushing a bicycle that was selling sugarcoated haws.

“Okay, I’ll go and buy it for you,” I took out a five mao coin from my pocket and walked over.

“One sugarcoated haw,” I handed the money over.

When the man selling sugarcoated haws looked up, both of us momentarily blanked.

“Chen Yong!” I exclaimed, “Why did you come here to sell sugarcoated haws?”

“Isn’t it just to earn more money! I’m really sorry, I paid all the money left over from last time to Yang Kaiyuan, so it couldn’t be helped, that’s why I came out to sell sugarcoated haws,” Chen Yong said awkwardly, and casually handed me two sticks of sugarcoated haws

“I just want one, sell the other one,” I just took one stick.

“This isn’t worth much, I made it myself,” Chen Yong said with a smile. “Oh yeah, Weier said you’re coming over to my home tonight?”

“Yeah, we decided yesterday,” I answered

I chatted a bit more with Chen Yong, then said my farewells. Zhao Yanyan was still waiting for my sugarcoated haw.

When we got back to school, I found Guo Qing, and told him about the thing with Yang Kaiyuan. Guo Qing already had a grudge against Yang Shuguang, and immediately got pissed off, he made a call right away, and found forty-fifty lackeys, who all took weapons such as knives, axes, metal rods etc. and rushed to Songjiang First People’s Hospital.

The guards at the hospital entrance have never seen this sort of array before, they didn’t even dare to fart, and immediately hid into the duty room on the side. When they got to the reception, Guo Qing intimidated the people, and easily found out the ward Yang Kaiyuan was in.

Yang Kaiyuan was really comfortable these few days, the high class ward in the hospital was really different, not only was it a single ward, there was also a bathroom with a shower and everything. Yang Kaiyuan was resting in the ward, with his medical fees being claimed from others, why shouldn’t he spend as much as he can?

At that moment, Yang Kaiyuan was flirting with a xiaojie he met in a club on the bed when the door to the ward was kicked open.

Yang Kaiyan was freaked out by this sudden sound.

“Pull that girl onto the side,” Guo Qing said with a darkened expression.

“Guo... Guozi-ge!” Yang Kaiyuan stuttered. He clearly knew who Guo Qing was, although him and Guo Qing didn’t interact much since he had his old man’s relationship, in the society, when people get desperate they would still make a move on you regardless of who you are.

“You still know to call me ge, I really thought you got beaten dumb,” Guo Qing mocked.

“How could I, Songjiang is so small, who doesn’t know you Guozi-ge!” Yang Kaiyuan didn’t know what Guo Qing mean, and didn’t speak too much.

“Clearly you aren’t stupid? If you’re not stupid then why the fuck did you do something that was asking to get killed? You’re sick of living aren’t you? You dare to extort my boss’s future girlfriend’s gege?” Guo Qing kicked the bed and said.

“I... How do I know who your something boss’s relative is?” Yang Kaiyuan was a bit confused after hearing it.

“Fuck, you extort quite a lot? You can’t even tell who is who?” Guo Qing asked.

“No, no, how did I extort people, what’s more is that extorting is illegal,” Yang Kaiyuan quickly explained.

“I won’t bullshit with you anymore, you know Chen Yong right, get your dad to take fifty thousand to his home, then we’re even,” Guo Qing said coldly.

“Sure, sure! Isn’t it just fifty thousand!” Yang Kaiyuan immediately nodded and agreed.

“Okay, brothers go, help him loosen his bones,” Guo Qing said to his lackeys behind him.

“Ai! Wait, Guozi-ge didn’t I agree to pay, why are you still telling them to come,” Yang Kaiyuan stared at the desperados in the society with terror.

“I wanted to kill you today, but since you agreed to pay, I won’t kill you, who am I supposed to find for money if you’re dead? However you have to at least let the bros enjoy a bit, and not come for nothing! Oh yeah, tell Yang Shuguang, if I don’t see the money tomorrow, it’ll be his end soon,” Guo Qing said.

Chapter 86 – Shopping With Weier

“Do as you guys see fit, just make sure that he doesn’t die,” after saying that, Guo Qing turned around and left the ward without looking back.

Yang Shuguang could only swallow his grievance in silence, and was unable to avenge himself. He never would have imagined that Liu Lei would get Guo Qing to help the Chen family get even. He had thought Liu Lei and Chen Yong only knew each other, and getting Chen Yong to pay him some money wasn’t too much, even if they went through the proper route of doing things, Chen Yong had to pay the medical fees anyways.

However, he didn’t think that his own son was beaten within a few days of getting the money, and it wasn’t light either, according to the doctors, he probably had to stay in bed for another six months, and it was unknown whether he could be like a normal person afterwards.

Yang Shuguang immediately got pissed off, and made a few calls to find a few people that got along with him in the society to help. However the moment they heard Yang Shuguang’s description and knew that they were being asked to take care of Guo Qing, all of them refused. Guozi’s name was already famous in the underworld of Songjiang city, nobody on the streets was willing to randomly gain his grudge for Yang Shuguang, not to mention that whether or not they could even touch him was a whole different issue.

Yang Shuguang couldn’t do anything, since he was demoted! Several days ago people called him Yang-ge, and begged a lot to treat him to treats. Fuck, once a person loses his power, then those friends that called him brothers immediately turned.

At the start, Yang Shuguang thought about calling the police, since no matter what you say, Guo Qing was blatantly extorting him! However once Yang Shuguang thought about his situation and what he did before, he was sure that calling the police was pointless.

Without any other way, Yang Shuguang could only walk towards the bank.

When the bell for the end of school rang, I explained briefly to Zhao Yanyan without hiding anything. The chick only told me to get home earlier, and give her a call no matter how late.

“Liu Lei!” Seeing I walk out of the school, Chen Weier waved happily at me not so far away.

“Don’t you third years have night study periods?” I looked weirdly at Chen Weier who was wearing a backpack.

“I asked for leave!” Chen Weier said with a red face.

“Go to your home now?” I looked at the watch, it was only half past four. Chen Weier’s family’s Mala Tang stall might not have closed yet.

“Uh.... Let’s walk around on the streets,” Chen Weier said quietly.

I felt a sudden joy in my heart, Weier actually took the initiative to go shopping with me.

“Sure, where are we going?” I said joyfully.

“Just walk around randomly, let’s go over to the near the Department Dalou?” Chen Weier asked using a soliciting tone.

“Okay!” Department Dalou was in the business area of Songjiang city, there were a lot of branded clothing stores there, it was somewhere very popular among girls. I just didn’t think that Chen Weier would also like these. However that is hardly surprising, all girls love beauty.

Department Dalou wasn’t far from Fourth High, it was only around ten minutes away on foot. Chen Weier and I walked side by side on the streets, with barely any distance between us. I intentionally walked really close to Chen Weier, and after finding the perfect chance, I pretended touched her hand unknowingly when we crossed the road.

Chen Weier blushed and jumped to the side, but when she saw my expressionless face as if nothing happened, she couldn’t help but laugh at herself and shook her head, like she thought too much into it.

I already captured Chen Weier’s expression in my eyes, no matter what,

Chen Weier and my relationship was much closer than that time when we went to the store. Although I had thoughts about Zhao Yanyan, I couldn't eat a fatty in one go.

"Let's go and look in that store!" Chen Weier pointed at the large Fairfair sign and skipped in front.

"Okay!" I replied. Looking at that figure full of youthful atmosphere, perhaps this was the real Chen Weier, when she forgot about all her misfortunes, she was the same as other girls this age, she likes to shop, likes pretty clothes, and likes to dress herself up.

"Liu Lei, do you think this set of clothes look good?" Chen Weier pointed excitedly at a set of clothes and said.

"En... I think it must look great on Weier!" I said.

"Really?" Chen Weier exclaimed happily. As long as they were girls, they would want to gain the approval of boys.

"Of course, why don't you try it on?" I encouraged. From the look of this tight set of clothes, it looks really sexy, if it was on Weier... Just thinking about it got my saliva flowing.

"Never mind, I can't afford it!" Chen Weier pointed at the price tag on the clothes, and stuck her tongue out. 698 Yuan was written on it, a set of clothes was the price of a normal worker's monthly salary!

"You can still try it even if you don't buy it!" I continued to encourage her.

"That's not that good right!" Chen Weier kept on shaking her head, but her gaze was still on that set of clothes.

"It's fine! Look, there are a lot of people that are just trying and not buying!" I started pointing out facts.

"Oh, okay!" Chen Weier wanted to try it as well, but due to a girl's reservations, she couldn't make the determination, now that she was encouraged by me, she became more daring.

After a while, Chen Weier pushed open the door to the changing room and walked out.

I couldn't believe my eyes, I was unable to associate this graceful and voluptuous figure with Chen Weier, who was rather plain! The person of me gave me a completely shockingly beautiful feeling! Pure, elegant, beautiful beyond belief. Even I, who always faced beauties everyday was shocked by the scene in front of my eyes.

When I finally calm back to myself, I gradually became more calm, and said honestly to Chen Weier, "Weier, you're so pretty! The clothes are like they were made specifically for you.

Chen Weier blushed after saying that, becoming even more beautiful.

"Darling, do you think I look good wearing this?" A girl's voice interrupted us. Apparently a girl around the age of Chen Weier was trying out a jacket in front of the changing room.

"Yes!" The boy beside the girl said.

"But this is too expensive!" The girl shook her head.

"It's worth it no matter how expensive it is! I'll buy it and give it to you!" The boy said.

"You're amazing!" The girl's smile was feel of happiness.

Looking at the fleeting backs of the couple, Chen Weier muttered to herself in a very soft voice, "She's so happy! Love actually became an extravagant hope to me." All of the moment, Chen Weier's sadness of selling her body to save her father overcame her, she turned around and went back into the changing room, then took off the clothes that couldn't belong to her.

Although Chen Weier's voice was really quiet, I still heard everything clearly. I waved my hands to attract the stewardess, and handed her a bankcard.

When we left the shop, Chen Weier looked weirdly at the extra bag in my hands, due to her bad mood, she didn't ask about it.

Chapter 87 – The Mysterious Liu Family

Yang Shuguang carried the money he just withdrawn and arrived at a mansion in the developing area.

“What do you want!” A black clothed guard said.

“I want to see Master Liu!” Yang Shuguang said.

“Who are you? To see him?” The black clothed guard eyed Yang Shuguang and asked.

“I-I am his son-in-law...” After saying this, even Yang Shuguang himself felt a bit embarrassed.

“Son-in-law?” The black clothed person swept his gaze over Yang Shuguang, but still took out the walkie-talkie and said a few words into it.

Seeing the guard helped him send a message, Yang Shuguang felt a bit of relief. He was just scared that the guard would stop him, but as long as the guard helped him send a message, then it would be fine.

Not long later, a fifty something old man with a pockmarked face came out from within.

“Butler Liu, this person said he wants to see Master!” The black clothed man said mechanically.

Butler Liu, with the pockmark face, looked at Yang Shuguang for a while, the laughed coldly, “You are Yang Shuguang? Heh! We haven’t met for many years right! I fear that Master still doesn’t want to see you!”

“I-I already called master!” Yang Shuguang said awkwardly.

“Oh? Is that so! Then follow me!” Butler Liu glanced at Yang Shuguang and said emotionlessly.

Obviously Butler Liu knew that Yang Shuguang was coming today, he was just deliberately making it difficult for him. Butler Liu had been with master with thirty something years, they were like brothers even if they were brothers.

His feelings towards the second xiaojie of the Liu family was like towards his own niece, furthermore the second xiaojie was the one who got along most with him. He didn't think that the second xiaojie would marry this ungrateful Yang Shuguang, and died after a few years due to Yang Shuguang's various affairs outside.

Although the second xiaojie died of a heart disease, Butler Liu didn't think so, and blamed everything on Yang Shuguang.

Yang Shuguang carefully followed Butler Liu, and didn't even dare to breath. There were bodyguards wearing earphones all around the courtyard, from the way they were standing, they were definitely no worse than the professionally trained military personnel.

Butler Liu took Yang Shuguang around and around to a small two-floored building at the center of the yard.

"Butler Liu!" The bodyguards standing guard at the door immediately greeted him, but his position was like the second master of the Liu family, and was truly the confident of the master.

"Xiaosanzi, go and inform inside, say that Yang Shuguang has arrived," Butler Liu used an indifferent tone and said.

"Xiaosanzi is also an experienced person in the Liu mansion, and has worked under Butler Liu for more than ten years, he has already heard about the grudges between Butler Liu and Yang Shuguang, and thus didn't say too much, and immediately said a few things into the mike. After that he said, "Master said to let him go in."

"Follow me," Butler Liu didn't look at Yang Shuguang, and just walked straight in.

Yang Shuguang quickly followed behind Butler Liu while dipping his head.

When they arrived in front of a door, Butler Liu knocked lightly on it twice, and a vigorous voice of an old man sounded out from within, "Come in!"

Butler Liu pushed open the door, and told Yang Shuguang to go in first, at that moment Yang Shuguang was already freaked out, he was terrified of getting ambushed inside, and thus didn't dare to go in.

Butler Liu snorted with disdain, and stepped inside. Only then did Yang Shuguang enter while trembling.

The interior of the room was really big, there were three armchairs in the middle, an old man was sitting at the center with two middle-aged ladies sitting at his side.

Yang Shuguang immediately bowed, "Wanbei Yang Shuguang pays his respects to Yuefu-daren, and two Yuemu-daren."

"Heh! Who is your yuefu?!" Master said coldly.

"About this... In wanbei's heart, you will always be my yuefu!" Yang Shuguang couldn't help but bite the bullet and say it.

"Wanbei? From what I see you forgot about the direction after being so awesome as the defense team captain right! And you don't want anything to do with us the Liu family right!" The master mocked.

"How would wanbei dare! What's more is that wanbei isn't any defense team captain anymore!" Yang Shuguang sighed.

"Okay now, don't use any false courtesy with me anymore, just say whatever you have to say!" The master waved his hands, and didn't want to continue act pretentiously anymore.

"This is a little bit of wanbei's thoughts," Yang Shuguang opened the suitcase beside him, and handed it to Butler Liu.

Butler Liu just took a glance, and threw it back to him and said, "The Liu family would lack money?!" Although there were several hundred thousand in that box, Butler Liu has already experienced a lot by the master's side. Back in the days when he acted as the adjutant to master to fight in the north and south, the money and jewelry they got could be piled into mountains, there was no way they would be interested in this measly several hundred thousand.

“Wanbei only have so much! Wanbei understands that yuefu wouldn’t be interested in...” Yang Shuguang explained with a red face.

“Don’t use that act that you use in the society, tell you the truth, I feel like your money is just taking up space in my home. Even that floorboard that you’re stepping on is worth more than this!” The master said, “Just say what you have to say!”

“Yuefu-daren, your grandson was beaten till he was disabled! You have to do something about this for me!” Yang Shuguang said depressedly.

“Grandson? I don’t have that kind of grandson!” The master have heard about Yang Kaiyuan’s various actions that included all sorts of bad things such as eating, drinking, ordering prostitutions, gambling, tricking, lying, kidnapping, fighting, murdering, committing arson etc. he was exactly the same as his dad Yang Shuguang!

“Master, no matter what that Yang Kaiyuan was born from the second xiaojie!” A lady beside the master immediately showed a worried expression after hearing Yang Kaiyuan being beaten till he was disabled.

“Liu Xiaocui is my daughter, that is true, but I don’t admit that Yang Kaiyuan as my grandson!” The master slapped the armrest on his chair and said.

“But no matter what, that Yang Kaiyuan counts as half a member of the Liu family, if this was known by others, then even our Liu family’s face would be affected!” The lady continued. No matter what, the second xiaojie, Liu Xiaocui, came from her, the mistress, what needs to be protected should be protected.

“You think I don’t understand your women’s pettiness? Heh! That bastard Yang Kaiyuan’s evil actions are hard to bear, just based on the things he has done these years, it’s not too much even if he was beaten to death!” The master snorted. Then he said, “However you are right, that brat counts as half a member of the Liu family no matter what. Yang Shuguang, tell me your thoughts! You already planned it all before you came right?”

Yang Shuguang smiled awkwardly. This master was getting smarter with age, all of his ploys were seen through. Thus he didn't hide anything anymore, and spoke about all of his grudges with Chen Yong's family, but he did exclude one of the key characters, Liu Lei. This is because Yang Shuguang was understood that the background that Liu Lei's backing represented was really powerful, although the master had a bit of power in some areas, but Zhao Junsheng, and especially Zhao Limin weren't to be trifled with.

Chapter 88 – First Time To Weier's Home

Chen Weier's home was at the bungalow area near the market place, it was a typical quadrangle. The square courtyard had a sewer in the middle, and people lived on all four sides of it. There was no heater, nor an indoor bathroom, making it infinitely crude and simple.

In 1995, Songjiang city has not undergone mass city planning yet, and thus these quadrangle-styled buildings were very common in the bungalow area. Once winter arrives, and the sewer in the courtyard freezes, the layers of ice on top of each other would look like a small ice mountain from away.

"There's no helping it, our family's poor, and can't afford apartments," Chen Weier smiled apologetically.

"It's okay, my grand also lives in this type of quadrangle. I actually feel it is more comfortable than apartments!" I said without minding it at all.

"Hehe!" Chen Weier giggled gratefully.

"Dad! Liu Lei's here!" Chen Weier opened the door and shouted inside.

"Oh, Weier, get him to come in, it's cold outside!" A man's voice, which is Chen Weier's father's, came out from within.

I was just about to change shoes when Chen Weier shook her hands at me, only then did I remember that these bungalows all had cement floors, so I didn't have to wear slippers.

Chen Weier's family's home wasn't large, there were two rooms, which totaled to only forty something squared meters, there was a kang in the large room, Chen Weier's father was lying on it resting. The small room was split with plywood, Chen Weier and Chen Yong probably had half each.

"Sit quickly! Weier, get our guest some fruit!" Saying that, Chen Weier's father was about to sit up.

“Uncle Chen, rest, don’t mind me!” I quickly stopped Father Chen from sitting up, and said, “Weier, don’t busy yourself either I don’t need to eat fruit.”

I knew about Chen Weier’s family’s living conditions, it wasn’t easy to afford some fruits, it might be to improve Father Chen’s health, how I can take over his fruits.

Chen Weier saw that I didn’t want her to go, and thus didn’t insist, and sat with me beside Father Chen’s bed, and talked a bit about her father’s situation, from the looks of it, there wasn’t any signs of organ rejection, the recovery was going well, and he was probably going to get fully healed after Chinese New Year. Looking at Chen Weier’s happy expression, I felt like this two hundred something thousand was so worth it!

About the time of brewing one pot of tea later, Chen Yong and Chen Weier’s mother returned home together.

“Liu Lei, you came over!” Mother Chen said enthusiastically to me when she saw me.

“Yeah, Weier and I just arrived,” I stood up and received the groceries in Mother Chen’s hands.

“You know our family’s situation, we aren’t scared of you laughing at us, the money was all used for Weier’s dad to go to the doctor, so we can’t take you to a restaurant, we can’t only make a few dishes at home...” Mother Chen said apologizingly.

“It’s okay, I love eating food cooked at home!” Hearing Mother Chen’s words, I sweated in my home, I spent four thousand something kuai for one meal with Fatty Wu at Heaven on Earth yesterday, it was enough for a normal family like Chen Weier’s to eat for a year.

Chen Yong went and froze the sugarcoated haws that weren’t sold, and then started to help Mother Chen wash the vegetables and rice.

“Auntie, let me help you guys,” I stood up and said.

“No, it’s fine! Let Weier chat with you in the room, Da Yong and I will busy ourselves!” Mother Chen immediately refused.

“It’s okay, let Weier stay with Uncle! I’ll help you make dinner!” Saying that, I followed behind Mother Chen into the kitchen. Actually I haven’t ate the entire day and was dead hungry. By helping them I can speed up the process.

“Let me do this!” I snatched over the fish in Mother Chen’s hands, and familiarly scratched off the fish scales.

Chen Yong looked at me shockingly and was confused: This big boss that can throw out tones of money actually knew how to take care of the fish? This is all too weird.

I knew what he was thinking, and smiled faintly then explained, “Normally I always cook myself.” What I said was the truth, I often cooked for myself in Yanjing during my previous life.

Chen Yong nodded and didn’t ask anymore, and begun to pick and wash the vegetables. On the other hand Mother Chen plugged in the rice cooker, and begun to cook.

“Liu Lei, my meimei seems to like you quite a lot!” After a while, Chen Yong said quietly to me when Mother Chen started cutting the vegetables.

“Is that so?” I asked.

“En, she would often mention you to us when there’s nothing to talk about. I’m certain that she has you in her heart already,” Chen Yong said.

I felt silent joy in my heart after haring that, it seems like with the detective Chen Yong in the Chen family, it would be hard for me to not get Chen Weier even if I didn’t want to.

“Da Yong! What are you randomly saying there! Did you forget about that!” Although Chen Yong’s voice was really soft, Mother Chen still clearly heard everything, and immediately scolded him.

“Oh!” Chen Yong nodded, and stopped talking.

That thing? What thing? Listening to Mother Chen, it seems like she didn't agree with Chen Weier liking me. Was there something else Chen Yong was hiding from me? But I already reserved Chen Weier! I really didn't get it.

Furthermore, when I reserved Chen Weier, I clearly told Chen Yong that I won't interfere with her freedom of love, if she really has someone she likes, then as long as they said something to me, I won't stop her, but now? What was going on? Was there something else hidden?

Within the Chen family's inner room, Father Chen was resting on the bed. Chen Weier curiously picked up the paper bag beside the soda. What was in it? I didn't see him hold anything when we left school, why did a bag randomly appear in his hands after we walked around?

Chen Weier carefully opened it and looked, then momentarily blanked. Isn't this that white set of clothes that she tried on in Fairyfair? Why did it appear here? Did he buy it? But why did he buy it? Oh yeah, he must have seen that it looked good on me and also bought a set for his girlfriend.

However could he have bought it for me? Another voice rang out within Chen Weier's heart.

Definitely not! Why would he buy clothes for me, he's not my boyfriend! Chen Weier thought logically.

How do you know he didn't buy it for you? This set of clothes suit you the best! Another voice sounded out again.

No, no, how can I think that! Put it back for him quickly! Don't let him discover it! Chen Weier's logical mind once again dominated her.

Open it and look if you don't believe me, and see if it's the one you just tried on! The other voice said once more.

En, let's see then, there's nothing wrong with taking a look. Chen Weier's inner self finally leaned towards that voice.

Chen Weier carefully took out the set of clothes, it was that size she just I just tried on! It can't be, did he really buy it for me? Chen Weier caressed the clothing material happily, this set of clothes is so expensive!

It cost 700 something kuai, I'm not his girlfriend, why did he buy it for me? Did he heard my mutterings back then? Thinking to that point, Chen Weier's face was so red that she wanted to crawl into the ground.

“Weier, come over and help get the utensils!” Mother Chen shouted in the kitchen.

Only then did Chen Weier awaken from her shame, and hurriedly stuff the clothes back like it originally was like, then ran into the kitchen.

Chapter 89 – A Girl's Thoughts

“What’s with the kid? Why is her face so red? Does she have a fever?” Mother Chen looked weirdly at her daughter.

“No-no, the house is too hot!” Chen Weier hurriedly explained. Then she thought, I have to calm myself down quickly, and hopefully he doesn’t notice anything!

“Really? I actually feel it’s a bit cold! Then I’ll get your older brother to add some firewood?” Mother Chen asked.

“No need, I’m fine! Don’t let dad catch a cold,” Chen Weier shook her hands and said. Actually she wasn’t hot at all.

With my help, a table of luxurious dinner was prepared. Even Mother Chen kept on praising my culinary skills, and urged Chen Yong to learn from me in the future.

Chen Yong grimaced at the side, and didn’t feel like he really should say anything. I suppose if I wasn’t their family’s savior, then he would have started getting mad at me already.

At the dinner table, although I was treated like a VIP, I ate in low spirits. Nobody really had anything to talk about, the conversations between Chen Weier and I or Chen Yong and I could not be said in front of Mother and Father Chen, so that’s why Mother Chen was the sole person speaking the entire dinner, and it mostly consisted of expressing her thanks towards me, and encouragement to study hard etc.

After dinner, I saw that it was getting late. I stood up and said my farewells to Mother Chen. Since Father Chen had to rest earlier, Mother Chen didn’t ask me to stay longer.

When I was going out, I gave a hint to Chen Yong, the brat understood quite quickly and immediately said, “Weier, there are a lot of small alleyways near our home, go and send Liu Lei off so he doesn’t get lost!”

“Oh, okay,” Chen Weier put on her down jacket and followed me out of the door.

The moon portrayed our shadows onto the small road, Chen Weier walked shoulder to shoulder with me on my left side. There were very little people on the road at night, so Chen Weier didn't avoid anything.

"The revision questions you picked for me last time were really effective, I got 10 marks more in the monthly test than I did last time," Chen Weier picked a topic and started speaking.

"10 marks more? How is the second place in your year supposed to live!" I exclaimed.

"Hehe, I just got twenty marks more than him, but he won't ever be able to catch up before graduation," Chen Weier said with a hint of pride and playfulness.

Just twenty something marks? Fourth high really was a place of hidden dragons and crouching tigers, the scores on the leaderboard of top students in each class were very close, yet Chen Weier actually pulled ahead by twenty something marks.

"A certain someone got 33 marks higher than the second place!" Chen Weier suddenly turned around and said mischievously to me.

"I... guessed it. How did you know?" I was reborn, and thus naturally belonged to the exceptions. Chen Weier seemed to be very interested in me though.

"Heh, why wouldn't I know, I also know the one in the second place is your girlfriend!" Chen Weier said.

"You can't be someone sent by the enemy organization to investigate me right?" I pretended to be puzzled and said.

"Go die, who has the time to investigate you!" Chen Weier said.

"Weier...!" I suddenly stopped my footsteps and called out to her.

"En? What is it?" Chen Weier saw that I stopped, and also turned around.

"For you," I handed the paper bag in my hand to Chen Weier.

“You know what it is?” I saw that Chen Weier’s happy expression seemed like she knew what was inside.

“I-I used the time you guys spent in the kitchen and took a peek,” Chen Weier said with a red face.

“Since you saw it, then why didn’t you say anything to me?” I suddenly remembered that weird expression Chen Weier had in the kitchen, she was managed to hold it in.

“I thought you bought it for your girlfriend,” Chen Weier explained.

“Then you never thought that I bought it for you?” I smiled naughtily at Chen Weier.

“I...” Chen Weier didn’t know what to say.

“Why are you so good to me?” Chen Weier lifted her head up, and said softly.

“I... You really want to know?” I asked.

“Never mind, neither of us say anything okay?” Chen Weier kept on shaking her head.

“Okay,” thus the two of us walked silently forward. Chen Weier hugged the clothes and walked in front, who knows what she was thinking.

“Liu Lei,” Chen Weier suddenly turned around and said to me. “Hug me okay?”

“What did you say?” I momentarily blanked after hearing it. Did she just ask me to hug her? There’s nothing wrong with my ears right?

Chen Weier smiled wryly and shook her head, “Nothing, I was just kidding.”

“Weier,” I walked quietly towards her, and pulled her into my embrace.

To my surprise, Chen Weier didn’t struggle, she just obediently laid in my arms. I could clearly feel Chen Weier’s quicken breathing.

“Weier, I...” I wouldn’t help but want to tell her what I thought in my heart.

“Don’t say it, Liu Lei! Please don’t say it. You promised me just now!” Chen Weier held me tightly and said.

“En,” I nodded, and silently enjoyed the warmth she brought me.

After a while, Chen Weier looked up, under the moonlight, her beautiful face was actually covered in tears.

“Liu Lei, you don’t like me, right?” Chen Weier asked.

“I...” I didn’t know what to say.

“Tell me quickly, say that you don’t like me!” Chen Weier said desperately.

“En,” I nodded.

Chen Weier smiled wryly, and pushed me away, then ran back towards her home.

What’s with her? Why did she suddenly turn weird? She’s telling me to tell her that I don’t like her even though she seems to really like me? What’s going on? I really don’t understand a girl’s thoughts. I looked at Chen Weier, who was running away, and walked to the crossroad alone to catch a taxi.

Chen Weier ran back home with her eyes red, and immediately went into her own compartment right after she got entered the door.

Mother Chen asked her what’s up, she just replied that she was too tired and wanted to rest earlier.

Chen Weier thought back to the hug just now, that kind of warmth, that comfort. Was this the feeling of being in love? However this feeling will never to belong to me. I was already reserved for someone else, and had no right to pursue my own happiness. Staying in my lover’s embrace, that was an impossible dream for me.

Chen Weier comforted herself, that brief moment just now was enough, at least there won’t be anymore regrets in this life.

Thinking these, Chen Weier's tears flowed once more. Chen Weier hurriedly said to herself in her heart, he already said that he doesn't like you, why are you thinking this! You should study hard to repay the boss that paid to get father treated.

Chen Weier opened her cabinet, and placed the set of clothes inside. Let it become a wonderful memory in my life.

A first love that was about to begin, before it even started, this is a present he gave me, although I really want to wear it, if I wear it, it means that I admit this relationship.

This was not permitted, I, no longer belonged to myself.

Chapter 90 – Kidnapping Incident

In the following few days, Chen Weier acted like she doesn't know me every time she saw me, and hurriedly walked past. I really wanted to pull her to a stop and ask her what's wrong, but there were always too many people nearby, so I couldn't find a chance.

Was I dreaming that night? Chen Weier never had any feelings towards me? That hug was an hallucination?

But even if it was a hallucination, Chen Weier's attitude towards me shouldn't be this uncaring, even if it was before she would still nod and greet me, what was it now? Understanding a woman's thought is truly like trying to find a needle in the ocean!

When I finally made the decision to ask Chen Weier what was going on, an incident occurred.

That noon, my mobile suddenly rang. What was calling me at this time? Aide from Zhao Yanyan, only Uncle Zhao and them know my number, even my parents don't know that I have a phone. However if there was nothing urgent, they wouldn't call me when I'm at school.

I quickly walked to the back of the classroom, where there isn't anyone, squatted on the floor, and picked up the phone.

"Hey, Liu Lei, I'm Chen Yong!" The other side of the phone said.

I twitched my eyebrows and said, "I'm at school, what's is it?"

"It's terrible! My meimei was captured by someone!" Chen Yong shouted into the phone.

"What? You said Chen Weier? What happened exactly?!" I shuddered, and jumped up, I nearly throw my mobile phone in anxiousness.

"Weier was captured during noon!" Chen Yong said anxiously.

"Who captured her, tell me all the details," I said to Chen Yong.

"Okay!" Chen Yong reorganized his emotions, then said slowly. "Chen Weier came to the market and helped out my mom's Mala Tang store, at that moment a van suddenly rushed over, we didn't pay any special attention to it at the time. But a few machos came out of the van, and grabbed Weier into the van without saying anything, then drove away quickly!"

"What were you doing then?" I asked in annoyance. How can the gege let his own meimei get captured right under his watch.

"It all happened too quickly, I couldn't even react. When I noticed something happened, it was already too late. The van was already several tens of meters away," Chen Yong said with remorse.

"I see! Did you note down the car plate number?" I thought about it a bit and asked.

"I did, I did, it's Song A519XX!" Chen Yong said.

"Okay, I'll immediately find out where the car is from. Oh yeah, did you call the police?" I asked.

"No, it just happened. My mom said to talk about it with you first!" Did Chen Yong's entire family treat me as their family's savior?

"Fine, wait at the Mala Tang stall for me, I'll be right there!" I said.

I hung up, and immediately called Jiang Yongfu to help me to find out who that car plate number that Chen Yong told me belonged to. Then I immediately rushed out of school, called a cab and went towards the market place.

In the meantime, I received Jiang Yongfu's call, he told me that this car plate number was fate, since the corresponding car was not a van, but a taxi, this was clearly stolen and used by someone else.

Jiang Yongfu asked if I needed any help, I temporarily refused. This is because I would faintly guess the master find behind it, the only person with a grudge with the Chen family was Yang Shuguang, and after Guo Qing taught Yang Kaiyuan a lesson, Yang Shuguang didn't bring the fifty thousand kuai over as promised, this clearly showed that Yang Shuguang had enough confidence to take revenge.

When I arrived at the market place, I talked to the stalls around to understand the situation, it was more or less the same as what Chen Yong had said. Mother Chen kept on crying, Chen Yong felt a bit more relieved after seeing me, because from his perspective, I had already helped solve his family crisis many times already, this time would be no different.

Seeing as I could obtain no more evidence, I left the market place. If it really was Yang Shuguang that kidnapped Chen Weier, then his target was Guo Qing and I, it was no use getting anxious right now, what I had to do was wait for Yang Shuguang to take the initiative and contact me.

It was lucky that Yang Shuguang's pervert son was still in hospital, or else I would really be worried about Chen Weier's innocence. It was like Guo Qing has said, whether or not Yang Kaiyuan could still rise up was still a problem.

"Who are you?" Chen Weier struggled.

"You have no need to know this!" The kidnappers replied.

"Then why did you kidnap me!" Chen Weier continued to ask.

"To be honest, we don't know either! We never question the higher ups' orders!" The kidnappers answered,

"Then can you tell me where you are bringing me!" Chen Weier didn't give up and asked.

"We have nothing to say!" The kidnapper's answer this time was more straightforward.

There was nothing Chen Weier could do, since she couldn't get any answers, she could only remain silent.

"Go in by yourself, we don't want to make a move against women. Don't think about running, you won't be able to run here," the kidnappers brought Chen Weier into a small house in the courtyard. After Chen Weier entered, the door locked with a "dang" sound.

"Butler Liu, I brought the person here!" One of the kidnappers took out a walkie talkie and said to it.

“Is that so? Good! Watch her, nobody touch her without my orders, understand?” Butler Liu said.

“Yes! This one understands,” the kidnapper replied clearly. The kidnappers were part of the Liu family’s private army, and understood that Butler Liu’s words were law, and must be executed without change. This was even more strict than the real military, if you make a mistake in the real military, the worst that could happen is getting beaten up, or fired, but it was different here, Butler Liu could kill you any time.

“Master, that girl has been captured, should we tell Yang Shuguang?” Butler Liu asked Master Liu, who was resting on the bed.

“En, go and go it. But remember, that girl is just a bait, I don’t want innocent people getting hurt! Us Liu family might be walking tall, but I don’t want others saying that we are bullying the commoners,” Mater Liu said slowly.

“I understand, I already told them that,” Butler Liu nodded and said.

After leaving the master’s room, Butler Liu dialed Yang Shuguang’s number, although he was a unwilling, since it had master’s support, it was better to do this job properly. Just treat it as giving face to the dead xiaojie, thinking about that xiaojie that passed away earlier, Butler Liu felt anguished and devastated.

Knowing that the thing was done smoothly, Yang Shuguang was really happy. After hanging up the phone, he smiled sinisterly, “Liu Lei, I will pay you back for the new and the old issues!”

He knew that as long as he went in person, Old Man Liu wouldn’t do nothing about it, he wouldn’t care about me, but Yang Kaiyuan was his grandson, he couldn’t not care.

Hehe, Liu Lei was opposing me, so what if he powerful backing? The Liu family’s power was no weaker than anyone else’s.

Chapter 91 – The Liu Family’s Prowess

Jiang Yongfu called me in the afternoon, and told me the owner of the taxi with the car plate Song A519XX has already reported it missing, then asked me if I ran into any trouble.

I thought about it for a moment, then still decided to tell him everything about the kidnapping incident, no matter what, Jiang Yongfu is a police, and his judgment in matters like this definitely surpasses my own. Thus I said, “Chief Jiang, I indeed ran into some trouble!”

“What trouble, tell me, let’s see if I have any ways to solve it!” Jiang Yongfu said. From his perspective, from the officials I knew, his position is the lowest, me finding him for help was thinking highly of him.

“Kidnapped!? Seriously? Why didn’t you tell me such a big deal, did you call the police?” As expected of a police, Jiang Yongfu couldn’t say three sentences that had nothing to do with his job, the first thing he thought of was asking if I called it in or not.

“Aren’t I calling right now,” I said.

“You’re still joking with me right now! Tell me quickly, what exactly happened!” Jiang Yongfu said anxiously.

“It’s like this...” I told everything that happened at noon to Jiang Yongfu, and mentioned the suspicion of Yang Shuguang being the mastermind behind it.

“En..., if really went like you said, Yang Shuguang’s suspicions is naturally higher, the only one with a grudge against the Chen family is him. However I don’t think Chen Weier is the one he wants to target, kidnapping Chen Weier is just to deal with you and your friend,” Jiang Yongfu thought deeply about it and said.

“That’s right! This is also what I’m worried about, but I haven’t received any calls from the kidnapper,” I couldn’t help but admire Jiang Yongfu's keen insight that only police possesses, he actually saw through the truth instantly.

"You don't have to worry about this. Yang Shuguang only wants to target you, so Chen Weier shouldn't be in any danger. What's more is that Yang Shuguang is an ex-defense team captain, and understands the law, so he knows how far he can go, there is no advantage for anyone if this thing escalated," Jiang Yongfu analyzes habitually. Then he continued, "But..."

"Just say it, if there's anything else," I could tell that Jiang Yongfu seemed to have some sort of thing that he was hiding.

"Have you heard of the name Liu Zhenhai?" Jiang Yongfu said after a brief silence.

"Liu Zhenhai? Are you talking about that warlord in our area before liberation?" I asked weirdly. I don't know why Jiang Yongfu would mention this name.

"Yes, the warlord that once dominated the area and based in the Songjiang area with infinite armies!" Jiang Yongfu said.

"It's liberated now, why are you mentioning this?" I still didn't understand what Jiang Yongfu meant, if I remember correctly, this Liu Zhenhai once fought the Japanese with the Eighth Route Army during war of resistance against Japan, since no matter how terrible the bandit they will not allow foreigners to invade.

"Although Liu Zhenhai disbanded his troops after liberation in name, and silently returned to the north east, in order to peacefully enjoy his remaining years. The truth proves that this move of Liu Zhenhai's was beyond intelligent, or else he wouldn't survive till now," Jiang Yongfu continued.

"But, saying that now..." I couldn't help but interrupt.

"Let me finish first," Jiang Yongfu stopped me from speaking. "Although this Liu Zhenhai is no longer a warlord in name, but not one of his original troops accompanied him back to the north east. In other words, his old troops would already count as a small legion!”

“Private army?” I uttered these words subconsciously, why didn’t I know that such organizations still existed in our country?

“You can say that! But most of his old subordinates have passed away, the people now are more or less the bodyguards their family trained. The government doesn’t rally interfere with the Liu family, since the Liu family are very low key, it’s very uncommon to hear that people from the Liu family breaking the law outside, and thus it gives a lot of face to the government. However after liberation, aside from keeping it’s elite troops, the rest of the people have been sent out by the Liu family to open businesses, a lot of the important economic veins in the country is controlled by their Liu family. To say it in an unsoundly manner, the Liu family is now the richest in our Songjiang!” Jiang Yongfu said everything in one go.

“Chief Jiang, I still don’t understand why you are saying all this,” after hearing Jiang Yongfu’s history lesson, I still felt really confused.

“What I want to say is, that Yang Shuguang is the second son-in-law of the Liu family!” Jiang Yongfu said.

“What!?” I exclaimed subconsciously. I didn’t think that Yang Shuguang would actually have such a large power behind his back. You couldn’t tell normal, but this Yang Shuguang was a young master? This I bring about too much trouble this time?

“However you don’t have to worry, the second xiaoye of the Liu family has already been dead of ten odd years! Yang Shuguang only counts as a distinct relative. He doesn’t have much place in the Liu family, otherwise I wouldn’t be able to transfer him to just stand outside,” Jiang Yongfu explained.

“You mean that Chen Weier getting kidnapped is due to the Liu family sticking a hand in?” I immediately understood Jiang Yongfu’s meaning.

“There is this possibility! Yang Shuguang is in hardship right now, with his social relationships, it’s already fortunate for him that those punks and delinquents aren’t causing trouble for him, nobody would help him get even. Further more as you just said, those kidnappers have clearly had professional training, it was all done in a very orderly fashion, step by step, they didn't have that anxiousness that other criminals have when they commit a crime. From the looks of this, the mastermind is already obvious!" Jiang Yongfu analyzed.

"If it really is like this, it's not really good!" I said hesitantly. I had originally thought that with Grandpa Zhao as my shield, I was invincible. However I didn't think such a hidden power would pop up.

"I would guess that the Liu family still doesn't know your background, Yang Shuguang definitely wouldn't say it intentionally, he might even hide it deliberately. I think that even if they captured you, they will not trouble you knowing your identity. Don't say about anything else, no matter how dumb the Liu family is they will not oppose the government for a distinct relative. Furthermore I heard that the Liu family is very displeased with Yang Shuguang, I think that helping Yang Shuguang this time is just to preserve their face," Jiang Yongfu really didn't become the Chief just through gifting others, he really had some ability in analyzing cases.

"I understand. Chief Jiang, do you have a detail file of the Liu family on hand?" As the saying goes know thyself, ever victorious. If I could find just a bit of the Liu family's weakness, then when we really negotiate I would have the advantage.

"A little, it's not very complete, come over to take it later. Also your driving license has arrived," Jiang Yongfu said.

"Okay, see you later," I hung up the phone, and fell into deep thoughts. The situation was getting more and more complicated.

Chapter 92 – Meeting Liu Zhenhai

I didn't think that hatred started between Yang Shuguang and I due to the Liu Kesheng at the start, then it got worse with his son Yang Kaiyuan, it looks like it really started between Yang Shuguang and I, he actually brought about so much trouble.

This is definitely a big grudge.

Although Jiang Yongfu had already told me a lot about the this and that of the Liu family, I was still shocked when I got the information. The Liu family's power was truly beyond my imagination, the Liu family had shares in at least 10% of the corporation that acted as pillars of the country! What made it more unbelievable was that this old man Liu Zhenhai still had his own private army which had a large supply of weapons. However, due to Liu Zhenhai once being the local king in the Songjiang area, meaning that he had a wide network of contacts, and also hid really well, it wasn't easy to find a lot of evidence even if the higher ups wanted to make a move on him, what's more is that a lot of famous people in various areas have also put in a word for Liu Zhenhai.

With my current abilities, I cannot piss off this kind of people, although I had Zhao Limin backing me, but this Liu family is seriously too crazy right? This made me think of a phrase — super big black powered group. I think that if Liu Zhenhai really wanted to kill me, he didn't even need to stay in jail for a day before an entire group of people coming out to act as his scapegoat. It looks like I could only do as Jiang Yongfu said, and ask for peace.

At the same time I also received Yang Shuguang's phone number, since he wasn't calling me, then I'll call him.

"Hey, is it Yang Shuguang? I'm Liu Lei!" I said coldly.

"Heh! I finally received your call, I thought you were scared!" Yang Shuguang laughed ominously.

“Yang Shuguang, it really was you! What do you want?” I said loudly.

“What do I want? You guys already beat my son till he’s a level 2 disabled, you still have face to ask me what do I want?” Yang Shuguang roared in anger.

“Stop bullshitting, how’s Chen Weier?” I said impatiently.

“Don’t worry! She’s fine right now, but I cannot guarantee it’ll be the same tomorrow!” Yang Shuguang said.

“Release her, tell me your conditions,” I didn’t drag it on with him anymore and went straight to the point.

“Of course I’ll release her, but not now. If I release her now, what do I have to threaten you with? Tomorrow morning, you and Guo Qing wait in front of Fourth High, there’ll be a van waiting for you there. Remember, only two people, also, don’t think about calling the police or anything like that, I worked in the field before, since I dare to do this, of course I’m not afraid!” After saying that Yang Shuguang hung up.

For Yang Shuguang to tell me to go, I have nothing to say about it, because it started because of me, but Guo Qing was draggd into it by me. This doesn’t really have anything to do with him, but now Yang Shuguang also treated him as a target f revenger.

Unable to do anything else, I went shamelessly to Guo Qing, and explained everything that happened today.

“Boss, isn’t it just to see Yang Shuguang? What’s there to worry about,” Guo Qing said uncaringly after hearing that.

“Guozi, no matter what, you were dragged into this by me...” I said really apologetically.

“Boss, you are mine, Guo Qing’s, bro, for my entire life. Don’t talk about it, isn’t your business my business?” Guo Qing said resolutely.

“Fine! Good bro! But be prepared, we won’t avoid getting beaten up,” I nodded and said admiringly. Guo Qing was really loyal, he was like this even in my previous life.

“Fuck isn’t it just getting beaten up once! What’s gonna happen, kill me if he’s so awesome,” Guo Qing said dismissively.

The morning the next day, Guo Qing and I arrived in front of Fourth High as promise, no long later, a white Jinbei van stopped in front of us.

“Liu Lei?” The car door was opened, and a man wearing a black suit and sunglasses asked us.

“That’s me,” I said.

“Get on,” the sunglasses said, then went back into the car.

Guo Qing and I got onto the van, and noticed that there were only the sunglasses and the driver on the car. Yang Shuguang probably knows that the hostage was still in his hands, we can’t really do anything right now, so only two people were enough on the car.

The driver didn’t drive us around a bit, the van arrived at the suburbs after a few turns, and stopped in a very impressive mansion, the driver showed a credential, and the car was let in.

“Get off!” The sunglasses opened the door to the van.

Guo Qing and I followed behind the sunglasses, and entered a two floored building. I saw that there were several bodyguard-like people not so far away, who were all wearing earphones, and on their backs were actually submachine guns! Was this the manor of the warlord Liu Zhenhai?

After we passed through the rugged corridors, we followed the sunglasses to the second floor, and stopped in front of a door.

“The people that want to see you is inside, go in by yourself,” the sunglasses used his right hand to make a “please” gesture and said.

Guo Qing and I fearlessly pushed open the door, and walked blatantly inside.

When we entered the room, to my surprise, we didn’t see Yang Shuguang, in the center of the room, a solemn old man was sitting on an armchair, behind him stood six able-bodied young men.

“You’re Liu Zhenhai?” I gazed coldly at the warlord, that once could do anything, in front of me, yet I felt no hint of fear.

“That’s right! Brat, you’re pretty smart! You can actually guess that I’m Liu Zhenhai!” Liu Zhenhai said with a flushed face.

“Where is Chen Weier?” The thing I was most worried about was Chen Weier’s safety, nothing else mattered.

“Tell Adjutant Liu to bring that chick here!” Liu Zhenhai’s method of addressing Butler Liu was still using the his position in the old society.

“Butler Liu, master said to bring that girl here,” a young man behind Liu Zhenhai said into the mike.

After approximately 5 minutes, a pockmarked face man pushed open the room door, behind him was a girl, she was the Chen Weier I missed so very much.

“Weier, are you alright!” I swiftly ran over.

“Liu Lei?!” When Chen Weier, who was originally expressionless, noticed that boy who has saved her multiple times, once again appear before her, she leaped onto him disregarding anything, all of a sudden, she couldn’t control her feelings anymore, her tears gushed out like a fountain. The oppression and chagrin from before were instantly released.

“Okay, Weier, it’s fine now! I’ll definitely save you!” I patted the back of Chen Weier’s head and comforted her.

“En,” Chen Weier nodded confidently. Actually from the moment she was captured yesterday, she had thought about that person who have saved her multiple times from danger, she believed that this wouldn’t be an exception, as expected, he finally came!

“Okay, talk about your conditions!” Seeing that Weier was fine, I felt relief. I turned and said to Liu Zhenhai.

Chapter 93 – Superpower Lighting Up

“Good! You kid is pretty loyal! But I won’t let you off easily! No matter what, Yang Kaiyuan is still my grandson, you guys beat him, so I can’t stand idle!” Liu Zhenhai said loudly.

“Heh! You’re going to protect a scum, is the Liu family this much of an oppressor?” I laughed coldly and said.

“I also understand Yang Kaiyuan’s actions, but it’s not up to you guys to teach them a lesson! Even if you say I’m an oppressor, but since the ancient times the victor becomes king, the losers become rebels, now our Liu family is the nobility of the region!” Liu Zhenhai said cockily.

“Since it’s like that, throw what you have at me, I’ll receive it!” Seeing that this Liu Zhenhai was so stubborn, I could only take a step at a time.

“Okay! I won’t let others say I, Liu Zhenhai, bullies others, behind me are six bodyguards, send one of you to pick anyone of them, if you win you take that chick and leave, if you lose that chick can leave, and you both stay!” Liu Zhenhai said.

“Okay! It’s a deal!” I accepted his request. Although I couldn’t promise that my fighting ability was first class, I still felt like I could beat the bodyguards behind him.

However when I saw that bodyguard leap into the stage, I knew that I was wrong. This person was clearly a master at martial arts. Even in my previous life, I wouldn’t have had been sure of my ability to beat him.

“Boss, I’ll go?” Guo Qing could also tell that person wasn’t average, and said worriedly.

“Let me instead!” I was clear about Guo Qing’s fighting abilities, he could handle himself easily against normal delinquents, but his limits would be shown the moment he face these professionals that have undergone training. If I didn’t guess it wrong, this person was definitely an elite out of Liu Zhenhai’s private army.

“Make a move!” I readied myself, took a deep breath, and let my body stay in a completely vigilant state.

That bodyguard didn’t say anything, he leaped up, and sent a flying kick my way with incredulous power. The moment he raised his leg, I would even feel the air current he brought over.

Just as I focused mentally to try and dodge this attack, a miracle happened! Suddenly, I noticed that bodyguard’s action suddenly became unusually slow, just like slow motion in a television show. That leg slowly raised up, and moved slowly in the air, and approached me.

I suddenly remembered that this situation happened once, it was when I was fighting with the subordinate of Lei Xiaolong called Uncle Bin, his movements were the like this in my eyes, extremely slow.

What was this about? Did my visual nerves develop even more or... I suddenly got a bit excited! Did I possess superpowers like in those YY web novels that I read in my previous life? However my old bro Yama didn’t tell me!

But time didn’t allow me to think too much about it, that bodyguard’s flying kick was already right in front of me. I saw a suitable position, and threw out a punch quickly, right on top that bodyguard’s knee-joint.

The knee was the most vulnerable place on a human’s leg, I was already merciful enough, and didn’t use my full strength. That bodyguard just fell onto the floor, covering his knee cap with a painful expression on his face. He struggled a few times on the floor, then kneeled. Clearly my punch just now shattered his knee.

I looked at the fallen person, and couldn’t help but feel a tiny bit of remorse. This person’s bodyguard life was probably over like this, even if the knee cap could heal, he wouldn’t be as agile as before.

“Yi!” Liu Zhenhai and Guo Qing exclaimed together.

“Kid, you’re actually faster than him!” Liu Zhenhai’s voice actually didn’t have a hint of sadness, in fact it had a bit of excitement. As if he saw some sort of unbelievable matter.

“Boss, how did you defeat him just now? I didn’t see it clearly!” Guo Qing said with a face full of admiration.

“I...” I didn’t know what to say, because I didn’t even know how I beat him just now myself. There was no technique to speak of, it was completely because his movements became slowly, so I could freely hit him.

“You go try with him!” Liu Zhenhai looked weirdly at me, and waved his hand at another bodyguard behind him.

“Damn geezer, why aren’t you keeping my promise? You said just one!” Seeing that Liu Zhenhai wanted to go back on his word, I said quickly. Beating that bodyguard just now was a complete accident. I couldn’t promise that I would be so lucky next time, even now I still didn’t understand why did the movements became so slow in my eyes.

“No, my word is final! What’s more is that you are three people, you only defeated one of my bodyguards, there are two more!” Liu Zhenhai said.

Fuck, this damn old man was going scoundrel on me right? He said one just now, why is it three now! Never mind, three then three, if that geezer doesn’t agree we can’t leave here, I made the decision and said, “Since you aren’t being understanding of your subordinates, then I won’t be merciful anymore, come if you’re not afraid of dying!”

I had just wanted to scare them, but after hearing that the bodyguard didn’t have any change in his expression, and stood there fearlessly. I only just remembered then, these people were all elites in Liu Zhenhai’s private army, soldiers aren’t scared of dying, my threat might have sounded like a joke to them.

“Come! Make you move” I said to the bodyguard.

That bodyguard didn’t act like the one I just beaten, and immediately attack. He first moved his body, and slowly inched towards me.

I also followed his pace and circled around the center, causing a situation where I retreat when he advances, and I advance when he retreats. He probably has seen what happened to the previous bodyguard, and didn't dare to cross moves with me lightly. A battle between masters will usually be decided in one move, so the one who makes the move first would show their mistake first. However, what was laughable was that I was not some kind of master compared to him, that win just now was completely random.

Him and I remained in that deadlock, I had no faith in making the move first, but he didn't dare to make his move. Both of us had our own thoughts, causing the atmosphere to be really weird.

Liu Zhenhai also treated me as a master, so he also understood that the logic of one who couldn't hold back would lose, and thus didn't hurry the bodyguard, and looked at us, who were cycling around with interest.

Finally, that bodyguard couldn't help back anymore, his body moved, and swiftly threw a punch towards me. I had thought the slow motion would occur again, but I was disappointed, due to the change happening so quickly, I didn't even react, and was hit solidly on my right cheek, and instantly fell onto the floor.

I got hit in the face! This made me feel shamed, but what's more was shock, this bodyguard was definitely not weak!

Chapter 94 – Superpower Lighting Up Part II

It was fortunate that bodyguard was scared that he would suffer losses, so that punch was only a probe, to see how my reaction was, and didn't use his full strength.

I only got my face swollen, although the appearance was quite scary, I didn't actually receive any actual damage, it probably will be better tomorrow once I apply some medicine on it.

What made me most confused was that the slow motion that I anticipated didn't occur, that bodyguard's punch was a complete blur.

I used my face to torch my swollen right cheek, and leaped up from the ground, and no longer dared to give anymore slight, it looks like I can only fight with my life on the line. I felt that every pore in my body contracted a lot, my eyes glared dead on that bodyguard, waiting for his next move.

Having just tasted something good, and managed to land a hit on me, that bodyguard also felt some regret, he should have used his full power. However after trading blows, he felt like my fighting ability was only so-so, and thus became more daring.

This time the bodyguard didn't confront me, instead he directly rushed towards me! However at that moment, miracle happened once more! The action of him dashing towards me once again occurred in slow motion! I could even clearly see both of his legs in midair as he ran!

I casually lifted my leg, and kicked towards that bodyguard's chest. Immediately, that person flew away like a kite that has a broken string, although in my eyes, the speed in which he flew out was unusually slow, but from other people's point of view, this bodyguard flew towards the ceiling like a rocket launcher, and smashed onto the chandelier, then fell heavily onto the ground. The moment before he fainted, the face of the bodyguard was still full of disbelief. This was the most unbelievable thing that he has seen in his entire life, with the distance between him and I, no matter how fast I kicked, I couldn't have kicked his chest, he was very confident in his speed, what's more was that I still needed a bit of time after seeing him dash towards me, ponder and make the command towards my leg for it to move. Unless I knew that he was going to rush over and raised my leg there to wait. Yet that was the truth, the feeling he had just now was that he crashed onto my leg on his own accord.

What was with my superpower, why is it here one moment, then gone another. It was like it wasn't under my control. It was at the moment when that bodyguard hit the floor that my vision senses returned to normal, everyone's movements returned to a normal speed.

"Kid, you can use hexes?" Liu Zhenhai also saw the weird event just now, anyone would think that I placed the leg there, and the bodyguard crashed into it himself after seeing it.

"Old man, no matter what you still are someone who was once a soldier, it's alright if you lose, how can you say I used hexes?" I said with dissatisfaction, although I also feel like this was like hexes, or even more miraculous than hexes, but how can I easily admit things like this.

"Hehe!" Liu Zhenhai laughed dryly for a bit. "Those two people are my elites!"

"Stop bullshitting! If there's more that think your life is too long then continue coming, if there isn't then shouldn't you keep your promise, and let us leave?" This wasn't a good place to stay, if this geezer suddenly felt like it and let these bodyguards come one by one at me, I couldn't promise that my superpower will occur every single time, if it really didn't work then I will really die here!

"Hurting two of my elites, you're just going to leave? Come, capture all of them!" Liu Zhenhai waved his hand and said.

As expected, Liu Zhenhai had no intention to let us leave! Fuck, this damn geezer, if I knew it I shouldn't have believed his words, and directly controlled him after entering the room, and force him to let us leave.

The moment Liu Zhenhai's words ended, the other bodyguards immediately surrounded us!

“Heh! Little kid, I don’t believe so many people can’t beat you to death!” Liu Zhenhai finally revealed his true intention, and said shamelessly.

Fuck, this fellow wants a mass brawl, it was already pure luck beating those two bodyguards just now, making me handle five or six people more, does he think I had three heads and six legs! My senses already tightened, and I blocked in front of Chen Weier.

Yi? What is going on? Everyone’s movements suddenly became slow again! Unless... I tried to relax, and the scenery returned back to normal! I once again focused, the slow motion occurred once more! I get it now, I exclaimed excitedly in my heart, the infinite joy filled my heart.

This is great! Don’t talk about just these six people, even if it’s a hundred people, I can still handle it easily! If someone shoots a missile at me right now, I think I can easily dodge it.

Of course, this was all thoughts that occurred in a single moment, I only wasted one or two seconds.

I thought, since you Liu Zhenhai wasn’t abiding by the rules, then don’t blame me for disregarding your face! I focused my senses, and activated my superpower, all I needed to do now was use my normal speed to walk in front of these six bodyguards, and make a move on each of their necks. When I finished this, and returned to the spot, then deactivated my superpower, in the eyes of other people, it was in less than two seconds.

In Liu Zhenhai’s eyes, I was like a ghost that floated past everyone, and before the bodyguards could even utter a sound, they fell onto the floor.

Liu Zhenhai stared wide-eyed at what happened in front of his eyes! Eight elites in the army was instantly defeated by me, and nobody could see clearly on what move I used, actually I didn’t even use any moves. It’s just that from my perspective their speed slowed, and thus they would feel that my speed was unusually fast.

I stood proudly at the center of the room, and used a cocky attitude to say, “Damn geezer! Liu Lei is very angry, the results are severe!”

This was the most awesome line I've heard in my previous life, it was unfortunate that it was not popularized yet. But this was also good, I could naturally use it as a quote from my cocky times.

Guo Qing and Chen Weier also looked at me in disbelief, this was the first time Guo Qing saw me use my power, I could clearly see the admiration in his eyes, it was full of little stars that were blinking. Actually I had only just learned to control my powers.

Just as I was getting full of myself, the door to the room burst open, three black clothed men holding AK47s rushed into. They pointed the guns at us and said loudly, "Put your hands up!"

Although I didn't know if those guns were real or fake, even if it's real, there might not even be bullets in them, but under these situation, I could only believe that they are real.

Due to Jiang Yongfu's data showing that this Geezer Liu was a huge warlord, it was not surprise for him to be able to obtain these weapons.

Chapter 95 – Superpower Lighting Up Part III

How could I forget that this geezer had this hand! Looking at his uncaring expression just now, he clearly had prepared beforehand.

What should I do now? Should I use my superpower to speedily snatch their guns, or just surrender here? If I get rid of these three people, there will definitely be more people with guns that come rushing here. That would mean that, although I have enough confidence to rush out, but what about Guo Qing and Chen Weier? Was I suppose to just leave them here?

Chen Weier also freaked out at that moment, and held my hands tightly, and continuously trembled. As for Guo Qing, he had a “dead pig isn’t scared of boiled water” look, and looked down upon the people with guns.

Perhaps because the atmosphere was rather tense, I couldn’t help but focus again.

“Yi?” Suddenly, Chen Weier exclaimed softly.

“What about it?” I asked.

“Why do I feel like the scene has slowed down so much before me? Are my eyes defying me?” Chen Weier murmured weirdly.

Scene became slow? Could it be... I quickly released the hand I was holding Chen Weier’s hands with, and asked her, “What about now?”

“Yi? It’s so weird! Why did it return to normal again?” Chen Weier shook her head and said.

Haha! So it’s like this! I immediately understood the reason. My fucking sun, my luck was actually this amazing after rebirth! A plan formed in my head...

“Guo Qing, hold my hand!” I used a serious tone that could not be doubted and said to Guo Qing.

Although Guo Qing was very confused, he still immediately reached his hand towards me due to the trust he always had in me.

My other hand held Chen Weier's, then I said softly to them, "Just follow my footsteps and rush out with me later! Don't ask about anything else for now."

Chen Weier and Guo Qing nodded together. I took a deep breath, and focused, then rushed towards the door in large strides.

My speed wasn't fast, Chen Weier and Guo Qing could easily follow me. I walked casually in front of the three fellows holding AK47s, and directly sent the gun of the person in the lead flying with a kick. Although Guo Qing didn't understand why these people weren't shooting even with us in front of them, but he didn't think too much in such a good opportunity and worked with me to take the other two people's assault rifles.

"Run with me!" I said, then I pulled Chen Weier and Guo Qing out of the door, and towards the exit of the little building. When we passed by the bodyguard at the door, the person was sent flying by me with a kick before he even reacted.

It was good that this damn geezer Liu Zhenhai was quite conceited, and didn't cover my eyes when he captured me, or else it would have been quite difficult finding the exit of this manor. I intentionally kept something back when we arrived, and very carefully memorized the path we took in my heart. At that moment, I pulled Chen Weier and Guo Qing pass through the little paths through the manor and ran directly out of the exit.

The entire way, we passed by people who's movements were unusually slow, these people had no reactions at all. Just now when I was fighting with the bodyguards, I already caused Liu Zhenhai's eyes to blur with my normal speed, and now I'm running. The people I passed by probably thought that a little breeze past by them.

We ran out of Liu Zhenhai's manor without any obstacles, and continued to run, looking at the cars that we were overtook, I finally knew what was called shocking the common senses. Guo Qing and hen

Weier were probably about to break down at this point, because from their exaggerated expressions, I could tell they already went completely dumb.

Finally, when I was sure that we had escaped the Liu family's pursuit, I slowed down and arrived at a small pavilion by the road.

After quite a while, Chen Weier came back to her senses from the shock, and asked while panting, "What was that? We actually overtook cars? Also why didn't those people shoot just now? Why did I feel like everything went really slow like slow motion?"

Chen Weier actually raised so many questions at once. To be truthful, even I couldn't explain clearly on why it happened.

"Weier, actually this is an unique esoterica passed down by my ancestors! Like the flying and walking on walls in ancient times!" I couldn't help but find a forced reason to perfunctorily answer this.

"Boss, don't say random stuff now, your ancestors have esotericas? Why didn't I know about this?" Who knows when, but Guo Qing already returned normal, it looks like this brat's adaptability was rather good. To tell the truth, I was quite worried that what happened just now would cause there to be two more schizophrenia patients in the hospital.

"Esoterica, esoterica, how would it be a secret if everyone knew about it!" I pretended to be displeased and said.

"Oh!" Guo Qing nodded as if he understood. "But why did I think it was like a superpower?"

"Superpower? Do you think you're watching "There's an Immortal Wife at Home"?" I didn't want others to know that I have special abilities, if more people that know it, I might even be sent into a research center to be experimented on! What's more, I wasn't even sure if it counted as a superpower, if you say it is useful, it really can't be used normally, who's bored enough to live in slow motion? But if you say it's useless, it becomes really useful in key situations, if it wasn't for it, the three of us might have just died there. Seeing that damn geezer was a sinister person, although he was just in appearance, and just said it was for the Liu family's face on the surface, I feel like this methods weren't any different from Yang Kaiyuan, he's seventy something and doesn't even keep his promises, I don't get how he manage to pass by, and managed to have such a huge family property. A scoundrel really achieves success!

Liu Zhenhai, if it wasn't because my superpower light up today, wouldn't I have fallen there! Aren't you just a warlord, just wait, when I can move the military, the first thing I'll do is to bomb your manor flat.

"Weier, are you alright! They didn't bully you right?" I asked caringly. I was all focused on running, and only had the time to spare now.

"I-I'm fine!" Chen Weier said quietly with a red face as she dipped her head.

"What's with you?" I looked at Chen Weier weirdly, she can't have been XXOO'd by those people right!

"I..." Chen Weier's head dipped even further, she said in a mosquito like voice, "You are squeezing my hand... It hurts."

I only noticed then that my hand was still tightly grabbing hold of Chen Weier's hand, no wonder this chick was so embarrassed.

"Isn't it just because I was worried..." I quickly released her hand.

"Hai... hai...! Guo Qing suddenly interrupted me. "It seems like Boss, you have already let go of my hands..."

Hearing Guo Qing's words, how could Chen Weier not understand that he had an underlying meaning behind it, her face got so red that even her neck was red. She turned around shyly.

Chapter 96 – Previous Life's Enemy

After a few days past, Liu Zhenhai still didn't take any follow-up actions. Only after I asked Zhao Junsheng did I know that actually Zhao Limin had already called the Liu family, and told them my identity.

Although the incident was sorted, it didn't mean that it was over just like that. With my brief understanding of Liu Zhenhai, that geezer was someone truly cared about his face, and definitely wouldn't let me off so easily, however this was still a society that cared about the law, I don't believe that he would dare to get a group of people to shoot me dead on the streets, if he does, no matter how amazing he is, I don't think Zhao Limin would let him go...

Therefore, Liu Zhenhai may very well be temporarily restraining himself, due to Grandpa Zhao's ability, he couldn't do anything to me right now, but it was unknown whether he would make a move on me in the future.

Since their kind of people, this kind of family head of a large family, really needed their face, having suffered such a silent loss, could he not get even? If he admit defeat, I wouldn't believe it myself.

However, there wasn't any need to worry too much, since Grandpa Zhao was still in his position, at the very least while Grandpa Zhao is in power, in other words while he's working in Songjiang, Liu Zhenhai wouldn't do anything to me.

But, nobody would be sure that he wouldn't do anything in the dark, so I should be more vigilant, so that I don't fall into his trap.

These few days, everything has turned peaceful, Chen Weier also returned to school, I didn't see her for several days, and I don't know after what happened last time, if she had any thoughts.

At lunch, Zhao Yanyan, Guo Qing and I ate lunch at Juyuan Snacks.

Although I was already a billionaire, I still laid low in school. Actually, eating in these small restaurants wasn't definitely worse than in larger ones.

Just after we ordered, a very disharmonic scene occurred.

"You all, stand up! Fuck, Yu-ge is here and you're still so fucking talking!" A voice rang out not that far away from me.

I raised my head and look, so the snack shop was really full at noon, and there isn't anymore space. A few delinquent-like students were forcefully trying to get a few glasses-wearing students that were clearly nerds sitting on a side table to leave.

"We came first, why are you making us leave! You should line up!" Nerd A said.

"Yaohe! You're starting to reason with me! Your mom, you're fucking looking for death right! Why should I? Because of this fist of mine!" Saying that, a delinquent raised his hand and slapped, and sent Nerd A's glasses flying.

"Why are you hitting people? I'll report you to the school!" Nerd A covered his cheek that was slapped red and said.

"Go! Go quickly, report to whoever you want!" The delinquent student in the lead said.

Nerd A and the rest of the nerds obediently stood up, and left the snack store.

The delinquent in the lead laughed with satisfaction and said cockily, "Oh yeah, I forgot to tell you, my name is Yu Wenrui! Scram as far away from me as possible if you see me in the future!"

Fuck! I was wondering why this fellow looked so familiar, it really was a small world! He is actually an enemy from my previous life, Yu Wenrui! However didn't this brat transfer over in the second year? The people behind him also came over with him, rumor says that Yu Wenrui's family has a relative that works in the underworld, back then Guo Qing became terrified for so many days after hitting him, we only found out afterwards that his relative that worked in the underworld got hit at the back of his head in a gang fight, and officially became a veggie.

This brat's transfer actually arrived earlier, was it one of the small effects of something I caused through my rebirth?

"Yu-ge, look at that girl!" A delinquent suddenly pointed to our direction and said to Yu Wenrui.

Yu Wenrui turned around, and set his gaze upon Zhao Yanyan, and immediately blanked, he just barely managed to hold his saliva in. He slapped his thighs and said, "Shit, she really is fucking hot!"

"This lady, let's get to know each other..." Yu Wenrui walked towards us as he said that.

Before I said anything, Guo Qing already stood up, and said coldly, "Yu Wenrui, do you fucking want to die?"

Yu Wenrui first momentarily blanked, he never would have thought that Guo Qing would be sitting there. Looking at his reaction, he clearly couldn't piss off Guo Qing, his expression was rather dark, but he wasn't willing to give up, he hesitated for a long while, then finally said severely, "Fine, Guozi, we'll wait and see!" After that, he waved his hands towards the other delinquents, and directly left without eating.

"You know him?" I asked Guo Qing weirdly. This person should have only just transferred to Fourth High!

"I do! His older brother belongs to the area of Ewha Alley, and is pretty tough there. He had a few conflicts with our market place, but nobody really went too far on each other, and it's been just a stalemate for a while. I didn't think this brat would fucking transfer to my territory, watch how I murder him," Guo Qing said.

So that's why! I was wondering why this guy wasn't as pretentious in his previous life as he was now, so his older brother is looking out for him! When we get to the second year, his older brother will already be beaten into a veggie.

"Do you need my help?" I said to Guo Qing, I do hate this Yu Wenrui deeply, this brat actually kick me in the crotch in my previous life, I nearly got kicked into an eunuch, although he hasn't done anything to me in this life yet, my hatred towards him was the same.

“Boss, I don't need you to make a move to deal with him, beating him is like playing games for me, the problem is that his older brother is quite sinister.

“What's his older brother called?” Suddenly I remembered that huge incident that occurred in my previous life, two gangs fought at the docks, causing six people to die at the scene and seventy severely injured, it seemed to be in that incident when Yu Wenrui's older brother got smacked dumb. The news reported it for a long time, I clearly remember that one of the groups was from Ewha Alley, the bosses of both sides are respectively Yu Wenfeng and Ding Baosan, from them, Yu Wenfeng probably is Yu Wenrui's older brother, and was harmed unfortunately in that fight, Ding Baosan was sentenced to eight years in prison due to grievous body harm.

“His older brother is called Yu Wenfeng!” Guo Qing said.

It really is him! “Then do you know Ding Baosan?” I immediately continued to ask.

“Ding Baosan? How do you know this name? This person is my lackey, you also saw in that day at the market, it's the one with the yellow hair,” Guo Qing said. “He is the original boss of the market area, and started to follow me at the start of the year. Everyone on the streets call him Monkey Three. Very few people know his real name.”

It really was as I expected, everything was as I thought, the people from Ewha Alley and the market place have already piled up a lot of grudges, but this grudge would only explode next year.

It looks like I have to help Guo Qing once again, or else the person arrested next year may just be him!

Chapter 97 – Finding Fault

The next morning, Zhao Yanyan received a bouquet of flowers and a love letter. I was already damn used to stuff like love letters, Zhao Yanyan would always receive several of them as the top of the school beauty leaderboard. However this was the first time I've seen someone dare to send flowers in school!

I opened the love letter that came with the flowers and looked, it was actually sent by that brat Yu Wenrui! My first reaction at that time was, this brat is done for, the second was that Liu Kesheng was going to appear once more.

Zhao Yanyan took the love letter from my hands, and immediately threw it into the bin without looking, then placed the flowers into the vase beside the blackboard in the classroom.

“Liu Lei, you've never given me flowers before!” After doing all that, Zhao Yanyan returned to her seat, and told me in a sad expression.

“Who said, last time at the entrance of the Cultural Part!” I reminded her.

“Wasn't that given to Xu Ruoyun!” Zhao Yanyan glanced sideways at me and said.

“Am I to blame though!” I said.

“Who made it so that you didn't say it clearly!” Zhao Yanyan said, “Oh yeah, did you offend Ruoyun?”

“Offend her? When did I offend her?” I asked weirdly.

“Then that chick has fallen for you!” Zhao Yanyan said.

“Fallen for me? That's even more impossible! I haven't even spoken more than a few sentences to her!” TO be truthful, I always feel a bit weird about this chick, and subconsciously avoid her.

“Then that's weird, she always likes to ask about you whenever she's with me,” Zhao Yanyan twitched her eyebrows.

“Is that so?” I thought in my head, this chick can’t be some kind of corporate spy right? I also remembered that time at the Cultural Park, when she asked me about the Shuguang Input method multiple times.

“Never mind, don’t care about her. Tell me, how’s it going with you and Chen Weier?” Zhao Yanyan raised her eyebrows and said to me while giggling.

My god! Why is she caring about this now?

“There’s nothing special, I haven’t seen her these few days,” I said. To be truthful, I was really starting to worry about her now that Zhao Yanyan mentioned her, I wonder if she recovered from the shock from before yet, should I go and take a look at her?

“I thought she would be like Xia Jing after you saved her and not let you go,” Zhao Yanyan mocked.

“...” I held it in. I’ll let Zhao Yanyan occasionally get jealous.

“Okay, okay, look at how much I scared you, I just want to help you come up with some ideas to see how you can get Chen Weier,” Zhao Yanyan returned to her giggling expression, just like a doll.

Once again, my god! I was speechless. “Are you thinking that me having more girlfriends is good for you?” I asked weirdly.

“Yeah, since the only real wife will be me, they all have to be concubines. When you have no time to spend with me, there will still be so many people to play with me, how great is that!” Zhao Yanyan said.

I faint, is she trying to be a queen!?

“Zhao Yanyan, someone’s looking for you at the door!” When I was talking to Zhao Yanyan, the classmate closest to the door in our class shouted.

“I’m going out for a moment,” Zhao Yanyan said to me.

I nodded, and didn’t mind it so much. Xu Ruoyun almost always come everyday to look for her.

“Zhao Yanyan, did you receive the flowers I sent?” Yu Wenrui made a smug.

“I threw it,” Zhao Yanyan said coldly.

“You’re lying to me, I can see that it’s in your class’s vase on by the window side!” Yu Wenrui shrugged, and said coolly.

“Is there a difference?” Zhao Yanyan said.

“Of course, this proves that you still have feelings towards me! Yanyan, I love you! Be my girlfriend!” Yu Wenrui said in a gentleman-like manner.

“Sorry, I already have a boyfriend! Also, I love him very much,” Zhao Yanyan said uncaringly. Hearing what Guo Qing and I said that day, Zhao Yanyan already had a terrible impression of this Yu Wenrui, standing there talking with him was already giving him enough face.

“Isn’t it just that brat called Liu Lei? I already investigated him, isn’t he just good at studying, he’s just a nerd!” It looks like Yu Wenrui already made a lot of preparation beforehand.

“I won’t allow you to insult him, he is the most excellent in my eyes,” Zhao Yanyan’s expression immediately darkened.

“Heh! Excellent? Does he think that spending time with Guo Qing everyday makes him amazing? I’m telling you, if I get anxious, I don’t give a shit about Guo Qing!” Yu Wenrui clearly got it wrong, and thought that I was only awesome because of Guo Qing. “I’m telling you, I’m just giving a bit of face to Guo Qing, and we normally don’t interfere with each other, don’t really think that I don’t dare to make a move on him!”

“This has nothing to do with me. If there’s nothing else then I’m leaving!” Zhao Yanyan left the line coldly, then turned back to the classroom.

Yu Wenrui who remained behind shouted, “Zhao Yanyan, consider it a bit more, my older brother is the boss of Ewha Alley!”

Fuck, Yu Wenrui swore in his heart. What’s so good about the little white face, I'll trash him first, let's see if you obey then.

"Who was looking for you?" I asked caringly after seeing Zhao Yanyan return to the classroom with a terrible expression.

"Yu Wenrei, he said he likes me, and said a bunch of bad stuff about you," Zhao Yanyan said.

"Let him be. I think this person won't be free for too long anymore," I said with regret. If this Yu Wenrui could stop for a bit, I might even let him go, but since he popped up now, I'm not prepared to let him stay anymore.

"Oh, don't fight with them for me, I'm scared of something happening to you," Zhao Yanyan nodded and said to me.

That's a joke, I've survived a rain of bullets, I would still be scared of him a delinquent? This person doesn't even need me to act, it was Guo Qing that took care of him in my previous life, I'll leave it to Guo Qing in this life as well.

Thinking about Guo Qing, I looked at the empty seat in front of me. This brat didn't come to school today again, he probably went out to mess around again.

However I never would have thought that Yu Wenrui would actually be unable to hold it in.

At noon, Zhao Yanyan and I just walked out of the classroom when Yu Wenrui led a few people to surround us.

"Excuse me, what business do you have?" I deliberately asked like an idiot. Didn't you say I'm a nerd, then I'll just actual like a nerd once.

"Haha!" Yu Wenrui laughed pretentiously. "Brat, if you're scared of getting beaten, then fuck off, you still have time!"

"Getting beaten? The teacher said that it's wrong to hit people in school!" I scratched my head and explained like an obedient kid. It was way too easy for me to kill off this kind of piece of shit, it would be better to slowly play him to death.

“Hahahaha!” Yu Wenrui’s group of people laughed wildly together.

“Fuck, he actually told me that it’s wrong for me to hit people in school! Wahahahaha! It’s too fucking funny!” One of the people behind Yu Wenrui said.

“What’s so funny about that, the police-shushu also said that gang fights are illegal!” I continued.

Chapter 98 – Little Light Bulb

“X, isn’t there a bit of issue with your intelligence brat!” Yu Wenrui said impatiently. “If you fucking continue to be such a pussy then I’ll tear your teeth out!”

“My intelligence is far higher than yours, I’m the first in my year, are you?” I retorted with a question.

“Fuck, you fucking want to die right!” Saying that Yu Wenrui came up to beat me.

“Ai~! What are you students doing?” Just as Yu Wenrui was about to hit me, Dean Han Bingfeng appeared behind us.

Yu Wenrui unwillingly retracted the fist he had held out, and forced out a smile, “Dean Han, we were just talking!”

“Talking? Does anyone talk like you? From what I see you want to get into a group fight right!” Han Bingfeng has seen these things far too many times, and could tell the students’ intention with one glimpse.

“How could we! We are all good students, and never fight,” Yu Wenrui said something completely different to what was in his heart.

“Yu Wenrui, how many days have you transferred over? The students are lining up to complain about you! I’m telling you, don’t think that just because there’s someone in your home you can do as you please in school, if you dare to make trouble for me, don’t blame me for not warning you, I won’t give face to anyone!” Han Bingfeng roared coldly.

“I understand, Dean Han,” Yu Wenrui nodded. He heard of this Dean Han before, he was someone of the underworld in the 70s, and was rather awesome in the society, he would be like a maniac whenever he fights, and was called Maniac Han. During the increased enforcement of the laws in 1983, his old man forcefully tied Han Bingfeng at home, and forced him to revise to take the university entrance exam. In the end, no one knows what was wrong with Han Bingfeng, he actually managed to get into a normal university, and was assigned to fourth high as the dean after graduation. The Fatty Wang that's really famous in the underworld right now is Han Bingfeng's original lackey, even now, Fatty Huang would carry lots of stuff to visit Han Bingfeng whenever a festival comes. That's why even though Yu Wenrui's family have some contacts, this Han Bingfeng wasn't someone he could piss off.

Han Bingfeng snorted, then turned around and left.

I shrugged my shoulders uncaringly, and said with a smile, "It looks like we can't fight right?"

"Fuck, I'll deal with you later!" Yu Wenrui left a sentence, then left with the others.

I chuckled, it was interesting messing around with a kid as a thirty-something years old man.

"What are you laughing for? So sinister," Zhao Yanyan leaned on me and asked weirdly.

"Nothing much, I just feel like Yu Wenrui is pretty fun," I laughed.

"Fun? How come I can't tell?" Zhao Yanyan asked weirdly.

"Hehe, his older brother is about to turn into an idiot, and he still have the time to act pretentious in front of me at school," I felt like if there's a need, I could make history occur earlier, since with Guo Qing's appearance, the ability of the gang at the market place was far stronger than in my previous life, it was only a matter of time before they get rid of those from the Ewha Alley.

"His older brother turned into an idiot? What are you talking about? Why don't I understand," Zhao Yanyan asked without understanding anything.

"Nothing much, leave him. Let's go and eat, look at how hungry I'm getting," I changed the topic, and didn't want to talk about this topic anymore, or else I would definitely leak something.

"Oh, okay," hearing that I was hungry, Zhao Yanyan immediately nodded.

“Yanyan-jie~!” Before Zhao Yanyan and I reached the stairs, a voice that disgusts me rang out from behind.

As expected, with a round of footsteps behind us, the small light bulb flew in front of us.

“Yanyan-jie, where are you guys going?” The little light bulb asked.

I kept sweating in my heart after hearing that, it doesn't look like we have to report to you about what we're going out to do right?

“Ya, it's Ruoyun. We're going to eat, how about going together?” Zhao Yanyan took up the little light bulb's hand and asked nicely.

“Oh, I do want to! But I fear that a certain someone wouldn't agree!” The little light bulb flipped a white eye at me and said.

I said in my heart, of course I don't agree, what are you always there for when I flirt with my wife. However I still said, “How could I, Ruoyun-meimei you're so cute, how could I not agree!”

“That's great! I haven't seen Yanyan-jie for so many days!” The little light bulb said shamelessly.

I was getting more and more frustrated, why was this person climbing up any rod that someone reaches out for them, she couldn't even understand courtesy speech. However there's no helping it, I've already said it, so I could only say while pretending to happy, “Let's go then, two beauties, I'll pay today!”

“Heh! Who's paying if you aren't, your input method sold for quite a lot right!” The little light bulb used her speech to trigger me.

I just don't understand, why does this chick always mention that input method out of nowhere? I really didn't understand, if she's not sick then I am, since no matter who it was, they wouldn't understand it.

“Yanyan-jie, I want to eat seafood!” The little light bulb stuck on to Zhao Yanyan and said like she's spoiled.

Fuck, the one stuck onto Zhao Yanyan should be me! And she wants to eat seafood? She probably wants to eat me till I'm poor!

"About this... There's no seafood palaces near our school, also we still have classes in the afternoon," heh, does she think I'm an idiot, you came over to be a light bulb and you want me to treat you to seafood? Dream on.

"I think you're just scared of spending money right! You scammed so much money with that input method, it's about time you let out some blood right? Yanyan-jie, I just don't get it, why did you fall for this kind of stingy person?" The little light bulb flipped a white eye at me and said.

Ugh, why does everything you say revolve around that input method? I'm stingy!? I thought, if I was generous then the frequency of you being a light bulb of increase.

"Okay, Liu Lei. Since Ruoyun wants to eat seafood, then let's go together. Since I kind of want to eat too!" Zhao Yanyan was scared of us too continuing the fight, and immediately put an end to the argument.

"Fine, seafood then seafood!" I said. It wasn't a huge problem to eat a meal of seafood, I have tons of money. What caused my dissatisfaction was that there was an extra light bulb beside us when Zhao Yanyan and I will eat. If this light bulb doesn't bother me in the future, it'll be fine even if I treat her to a hundred meals.

"I'll go to Dynasty..." The little light bulb started speaking again.

"You are treating me like a cash printer right!" I finally got mad, let's not talk about how far Dynasty was from Fourth High, just the minimum expense of ten thousand kuai there for a room was enough to make a normal working class family not dare to think about it in their entire life. Although I am rich, but this chick can truly bullshit.

"Look at your stingy look, I was just saying that we definitely can't afford Dynasty, just randomly find a stall!" The little light bulb said like she was wronged.

"..." So I was just messed around with by her.

Zhao Yanyan covered her mouth on the side and giggled, "You two can really argue, I rarely see Liu Lei being turned speechless by others. Ruoyun if you marry Liu Lei, he would be in pain.”

Hearing that, the little light bulb immediately blushed, turning into a red light bulb. She pulled Zhao Yanyan’s hand and shook, “Yanyan-jie, what are you saying!”

Chapter 99 – Sea Turtle Clique

I hesitated for a while, then finally decided to take a cab with them to Dynasty Seafood Palace. You can't mess with stuff like seafood, let's not talk about if the seafood in stalls are hygienic or not, if the ingredients are a little bit not fresh, it may cause diarrhea or even food poisoning. Furthermore the reason the seafood at Dynasty is expensive, one of the reason is because of its class, but most importantly its because the seafood there is all ferried over by air each morning, and definitely not from the night before. The leftovers at the end of each day would be sold to some small businesses.

"It can't be, we really are going to Dynasty for seafood? You seem like you're really rich!" The little light bulb said excitedly after seeing the "Dynasty Seafood Palace" sign.

"Are you actually going to eat or no! Where's all the bullshit coming from!" I glared at the little light bulb and said.

"Are you actually a man or not, you don't know humility at all!" The little light bulb said unhappily.

"About whether I'm a man or not, you can ask your Yanyan-jie," I said while smiling naughtily.

"What are you saying! Not being serious at all, " of course Zhao Yanyan could understand my meaning, her face immediately turned red, and her crab-pincher like hands pinched me harshly on my waist.

"Aiya!" I exclaimed out in pain.

"Yanyan-jie, what are you two talking about?" The little light bulb asked in confusion. I didn't think that this chick was so innocent that she had absolutely no reaction to my underlying meaning.

"Nothing much, don't listen to him bullshit, let's go in quickly," Zhao Yanyan said.

"Sir, how many?" When we entered, the hostess came over.

“Just one sir...” I said.

“Ah...?” The hostess said weirdly.

“But are also two more ladies,” I continued.

“Puchi...” The other waiters and waitress on the side all laughed together, but a manager like person coughed once, causing them to immediately stop laughing.

“Three people right? Is sitting in the hall alright?” The hostess giggled, then looked at me and said.

“Is there a room?” I glanced at the hall, although the atmosphere was fine, it was a bit loud.

“Sorry, the rooms are all full,” the hostess said apologetically.

“Then the hall is fine,” I thought, since there aren’t anymore rooms, what use is it to ask us if the hall is fine? Are there any other choices?”

“Okay, please follow me,” the hostess said that, then walked in the front and took us to a seat near the windows. The environment was okay, and the scenery was pretty good.

“Would you like to order now?” After the hostess left, a waitress came over and handed us the menu.

I nodded and pointed towards the little light bulb and said, “Give her the menu.”

The little light bulb didn’t act courteous, and immediately started flipping through the menu after receiving it. However the prices of dishes at Dynasty was originally terrifying, the little light bulb kept twitching her eyebrows as she flipped, and finally ordered several relatively cheap seafood.

“Boiled crab, salt-baked conch, spicy clams, anything else?” The waitress repeated the ordered dishes and asked.

“Is there any specialty here?” Seeing that all the dishes the little light bulb ordered were cheap, I wanted to order a few better dishes.

“Our shop’s specialty include first grade lobster, deep sea shark back, shallot fried...”

“Then a first grade lobster,” I immediately interrupted her. I treated Xu Zhongbang this first grade lobster when he came to Songjiang to visit my home in my previous life, the taste was spectacular, the lobster was about 1 to 1.5 kg. However the price wasn’t cheap, it cost me nearly a hundred thousand kuai for that meal.

“Okay sir,” the waitress recorded it then left.

“Liu Lei, thank god you didn’t get a room just now, you know? I saw that the minimum expenditure in the rooms is ten thousand yuan!” The little light bulb stuck her tongue out and said. “Shouldn’t you thank me?”

“Hehe, look at how much that first grade lobster is!” I pointed to the menu and said.

“How much! You’re so stingy, how expensive can it be!” The little light bulb picked up the menu, her eyes nearly fell out of her sockets as she exclaimed, “What! Nine... Nine thousand eight hundred? One zero, two zero... Is this menu wrong?”

“It isn’t! The lobster we ordered is half a meter long, they saw they just getting it from the sea side could let it sell for several thousand!” I explained to the little light bulb.

“Ah! Liu Lei, how rich are you exactly!” The little light bulb exclaimed and said.

Zhao Yanyan only smiled after hearing it, “What, Ruoyun-meimei, are you regretting not severely ripping him off for a meal!” Zhao Junsheng was already one of the top magnates before meeting me, Zhao Yanyan doesn’t lack any experience in this sort of situations, furthermore she also knows that I am really rich right now.

“En, I decided, I’ll continue to eat food with you guys tomorrow lunch. Yanyan-jie, you wouldn’t think I’m annoying right?” The little light bulb immediately showed an obedient expression.

However from my perspective, this expression was like that of the Devil. Don't agree, Yanyan! Please don't, I prayed in my heart.

"Sure! We'd be delighted," Zhao Yanyan patted the little light bulb's head and said.

I freaked in my heart, and nearly sat under the table. You're coming tomorrow? You've really started to treat yourself as a light bulb!

The spicy clam and boiled crab were brought to us very quickly, the salt-baked conch also arrived not long afterwards, it's just that the first grade lobster that I wanted was more difficult, and nodded to have the entire exoskeleton of the lobster peeled off, to take out the meat inside it.

The two chicks wiped their hands with wet towels, and started eating. I didn't think that Zhao Yanyan who's the daughter of a rich family would also look rather indecent as she rolled up her sleeves and enjoyed eating the crab.

"What are you looking at, you've never looked at me before," seeing that I wasn't eating and just starting dumbly at her, Zhao Yanyan said embarrassedly.

"I didn't think you would look so barbaric while eating..." I laughed.

"How am I, isn't it just because I'm with you! If I was eating at home, I would be much better behaved! Every time I eat this I don't get full," Zhao Yanyan complained.

"Hehe, actually you're pretty cute like this," I also picked up a crab and started eating like them.

As we were eating, two men walked towards us and directly stopped in front of our table.

"Xu Ruoyun, you're also here?" One of the men said.

I raised my head up to look at him, this person could be considered handsome, and looked like a university student, however there was an inexplicable pride radiating from his body. On the other hand the appearance of the person that came with him was rather humorous, his head was actually rather pointy, and it even had an edge, it looked like a huge genital. The funniest thing was that this person had a hunch back, so with his turtle head, he was completely a huge sea turtle.

“Li Boliang? Why are you here as well?” Yu Ruoyun raised her head, and said to the man that looked rather handsome.

“Hehe, this is my friend, I came to eat with him,” Li Boliang pointed to the sea turtle and said.

Chapter 100 – Li Boliang's Embarrassment

“Ruoyun, he’s a genius person at computing! He just came back from studying abroad in Fusang, he is already a Fusangese Chinese!”

Fuck this, the moment I heard the words Fusangese Chinese my heart felt annoyed, he’s not willing to be a good descendant of Yanhuang, and just had to get a islander nationality!

“Fusangese Chinese?” Yu Ruoyun repeated this rather intricate phrase.

“Hehe, basically the returnees we talk about!” Li Boliang did not notice Xu Ruoyun’s dissatisfaction at all, and continued.

“Puchi...!” I just had a sip of the tea, and it was all spit onto the floor, sea turtle clique? This brat does look fucking like a sea turtle!

“Huaxia people really are uncivilized! Actually spitting onto the floor. In our Fusang Empire, this type of action will be looked down upon, I really feel ashamed for my kin!” The sea turtle looked at me expressionlessly and mocked.

“This Brother Bastard that returned from the Island country seem very civilised!” Huaxia people are uncivilized? You are actually talking about others while forgetting your own ancestors? The world really is so big that all kinds of shameless people exist.

“You...! Why are you insulting people?” The sea turtle pointed to me and shouted.

“Insulting people? I didn’t insult people? Where are people? It seemed like this old bro was just telling me that you are part of the sea turtle clique right? Is there a difference between sea turtle and bastard?” I pointed at Li Boliang and asked idiotically.

“Gege...” Zhao Yanyan couldn’t hold it in anymore and started laughing while covering her mouth.

“Haha...!” Even Xu Ruoyun started laughing really hard after hearing that.

The sea turtle's face became extremely colorful like a purple eggplant, and starting taking deep breaths due to anger. Li Boliang could only act awkwardly on the side due to unsure of helping either side, and didn't know what to say.

"Is there a need to act like this, I was just making a joke," a was pretty much done with venting, what's more is that joining which country was his freedom. There should be a limit to making jokes, that Li Boliang seemed to be the little light bulb's friend, there was no need to push him too hard.

"Heh!" The sea turtle said, "Is this the way you Huaxia people treat guests?"

I kept sweating! This fellow actually said you Huaxia people, I finally understood what the new Han traitors are like, however this person really does look like an islander.

"Ruoyun, this is Mr. Gotou Mitsuo, he's preparing to invest a million Huaxia currency into our Computing Association, the simple plan right now is to turn the association into a software company," Li Boliang was worried about me arguing with that sea turtle again, and quickly told us the sea turtle's identity.

This fellow not only got a Fusangese name, but was going to act as a foreign investor. I immediately understood Li Boliang's intent once he spoke like that. Li Boliang wanted to warn me that this was a foreign investor for to our Songjiang, if you scare away this god of money, then it was opposing the people of Songjiang!

"Oh! So it's Mr. Gotou! I meant no offense just now, no offense, I hope that Mr. Gotou would forgive me." Invest a million? This number was no small fund even in Songjiang in 1995. Why would this kind of person who forgot about his ancestry invest back in the country? I suddenly wanted to see what this sea turtle was going to do, and thus pretended to say humble.

"Hehe, you Huaxia people just open their eyes at money, it's fine, it's fine, I wouldn't fuss over it with you guys," the sea turtle's pride was largely satisfied, and thus he coolly waved his hand.

"Ruoyun, he's just treating you to this?" Li Boliang lost a lot of face due to what I said just now, so once he saw the three courses of seafood on our table, he immediately showed an expression of disdain.

The three courses of seafood the little light bulb ordered are all food within a hundred yuan for commoners, the most expensive crab was only 38 yuan per 500g. However although these seafood were cheap, I found them really delicious.

"Li-laodi, didn't you say we are going to eat crabs that costs three hundred something per 500g?" The sea turtle also added something in a timely fashion.

"Ai! Ruoyun, come over and eat with us. Let's order a few more expensive dishes!" Li Boliang made a "please" gesture.

"No need, I'm already full," I could tell the little light bulb felt disgusted by the sea turtle as well.

"Oh, so it's like this! Waitress!" Li Boliang shouted, "Put their bill on me."

"Okay," the waitress walked over and nodded.

"No need for that, I can still pay this amount of money," fuck, you don't need to do this to pursue a girl right?

"I say, this little bro, how much could your input method sell? Five thousand kuai at max right! Bro, you really are saving up, ordering a hundred something kuai worth of stuff," Li Boliang looked down at me and said.

"I didn't sell it for five thousand okay, I say why does your computing association like to ask about my input method? If you think I'm poor, then you can treat. Even a feng of money is very important to me!" I said speechlessly. How did it come back onto the input method.

"Heh. Ruoyun, how about adding something?" Seeing that I agreed, Li Boliang was unusually happy.

“No need, we still have a dish that hasn’t come yet,” just as I said, Caocao was arrived.

“Sir, excuse me, first grade lobster. Please enjoy,” the waitress placed a super large plate on our table.

“This...” Li Boliang took a glimpse and was immediately shocked. This first grade lobster is the most famous dish at Dynasty Seafood Palace, it was impossible for him not to know the price of the dish.

“What is it? Li-xiong? Sit down and eat together? This is top class lobster, nine thousand eight hundred for one. Ze~ Ze~!” I picked up a piece and placed it in my mouth, and tasted it, then showed a really blissful expression and said. “Too delicious, this is the best thing on either, I wonder if the island country have this kind of lobster? Mr. Gotou, try some?”

“... Did you do it on purpose? Deliberately adding a dish after hearing that I could treat?” LI Boliang’s face immediately paled.

“We ordered this dish ages ago, I can testify,” to my surprise, the little light bulb actually got annoyed. “You were standing there the whole time, did any of us go off to order?”

“This...” this made Li Boliang completely speechless.

“Bro, if you don’t want to spend money then don’t stand here, even if your waist doesn’t hurt, we still have to eat lobster,” I waved my hand and said to LI Boliang.

“Mr. Gotou, can you lend me some money first?” Li Boliang turned around and whispered to the sea turtle.

“I didn’t bring any money when I came out, I only have Japanese Yen, you know that,” the sea turtle showed a helpless expression.

“Heh!” Li Boliang flung his sleeve, then pulled the sea turtle and left quickly.

“I’m sorry, Yanyan-jie. Li Boliang is normally pretty nice, I don’t know what happened this time, he actually started acting up,” the little light bulb said apologetically.

Chapter 101 – Teasing the Cashier Lady

---

“Ruoyun, if I didn’t guess it wrong, this Li Boliang must be your pursuer!” Zhao Yanyan smiled mysteriously and said.

“Yanyan-ji, how-how did you know!” The little light bulb opened her mouth wide in shock.

“Look at how much he’s willing to work for you, who wouldn’t be able to tell!” Zhao Yanyan giggled. “Quickly tell us, what is it about this Li Boliang?”

“What, Yanyan-jie. Don’t just say stuff, I don’t really have much relationship with him,” Xu Ruoyun pouted. “He is the chairman of the Songjiang city Computing Association, I am a member of the association.”

“But why do we feel like that Li Boliang’s relationship with you isn’t normal?” Zhao Yanyan raised her eyebrows, I immediately said.

“There’s no way, I... I...” Xu Ruoyun quickly shook her head.

“Hehe, don’t worry, Ruoyun-meimei, I understand, you must have someone else you like,” Zhao Yanyan continued to tease her.

“No, no, how could I have that... Ah!” Xu Ruoyun’s face became bright red.

“Okay now, you two. Quickly eat some lobsters, or else I’ll finish it all?” I pointed to the lobster that I had already finished a third of, and said. This lobster was truly delicious, I couldn’t help but eat a bit more.

Hearing me say that, Zhao Yanyan and Xu Ruoyun quickly took up their chopsticks, and started sweeping the lobsters.

After we were full, I stood up, and waved towards Li Boliang and them, Li Boliang quickly dipped his head. I kept laughing in my heart after seeing that, is this brat scared of me going over to get him to pay the bill?

I took out an Industrial Bank bankcard and handed it to the cashier.

“Sir, didn’t the mister at table 23 said he would pay your bill?” The cashier lady hook her hand and said.

“Look at how he’s so terrified that he doesn’t even dare to lift his head, do you think he will still pay for me?” I pointed towards Li Boliang’s direction and said.

“He——“ The cashier lady looked over, and couldn’t help but giggle. When she lift her head to look at Li Boliang, Li Boliang also looked over here, the moment their gaze met, Li Boliang immediately dipped his head and pretended that nothing was going on.

“Look, I took the initiative to pay the bill with you guys in order to prevent your hotel from making a loss, shouldn’t we get a discount?” I smiled and said. Actually whether or not we get a discount didn’t matter to me, the main thing was that I saw that this cashier lady looked quite pretty, and so I wanted to tease her.

“Oh, about this, sir, then I’ll help you ask the manager?” The girl smiled at me professionally.

“Okay,” I said.

“Hey, you can eat a ten thousand kuai lobster, why do you care about this money!” Xu Ruoyun pouted.

“Hehe, I think there’s eighty percent chance that he saw that the girl is good looking, so he wanted to say a few more words with her,” Zhao Yanyan glared at me with a smile that didn’t seem like a smile.

“I... Aren’t I just being diligent and thrifty!” I said awkwardly. Why did this Zhao Yanyan understand me so well, she could even tell this.

“Sir, we can give you ten percent off,” the cashier girl ran back, and said to me.

“Is twenty percent not okay?” I asked.

“Ten percent off is already a membership treatment,” the cashier girl explained.

“Then fifteen percent?” I continued to ask.

“That won’t do,” the cashier girl continued to explain.

“What’s your name?”

“Wu Yingying,” the cashier girl answered subconsciously.

“Hehe, okay, ten percent then ten percent!” I handed my card over and smiled evilly.

Wu Yingying blushed bright red, she actually told her name to a stranger by accident.

“I’m giving you the card?” I looked at Wu Yingying who didn’t know what to do.

“Oh,” Wu Yingying answered then received the bank card and said, “Our hotel’s POS machine can’t swipe it since we aren’t connected.”

I only just remembered that it was 1995, Unionpay didn’t appear yet, only the few banks that have a contract with the hotel would use their card here. I exchanged it for a Huaxia Bank bankcard and handed it over, I don’t know if I can use this, if I still couldn’t then I’ll be screwed, however I still didn’t understand, did people really bring several tens of thousands of cash to come here and eat?

“Huaxia bank is fine, please wait a moment,” Wu Yingying swiped the card across the POS machine, and returned the card to me, then said. “Please input the password.”

I finished inputting the password and signed on the receipt.

“Bye!” I waved my hands towards Wu Yingying and left Dynasty Seafood.

“Go back to school?” I said to the two little beauties.

“It’s nearly two, how are we going to go back!” Xu Ruoyun took a glance at her watch and said. “Yanyan-jie, how about we ditch class to go shopping?”

“Sure, I just wanted to buy something,” Zhao Yanyan said, then looked at me with an adorable expression.

I quickly turned my head away, and started humming. Last time when we went to the cultural park I nearly got tired to death, I can't accompany these two chicks to go out and wander again.

"Hubby——" Zhao Yanyan stuck onto me and started acting spoiled.

"Let's... get back to class," the fragrance from Zhao Yanyan's body passed over, and made me feel a bit suffocated.

"Heh, don't think I don't know about you flirting with that Wu Yingying. I didn't think you would attract so many women, I decided again, you aren't allowed to accept that Chen Weier or Xia Jing," Zhao Yanyan immediately darkened her expression and said to me.

"Hai... Hai! Occasionally skipping class once isn't a big deal," I immediately changed my mind.

"It seems like you don't skip rarely either!" Sunlight returned back onto Zhao Yanyan's face, the chick kissed me on my cheeks, and said slowly beside my ear, "The decision just now is cancelled."

The three of us got on a taxi that was waiting by the road. "To Department Dalou," Zhao Yanyan said to the driver.

I spend the afternoon walking around with Zhao Yanyan and co., although my legs were numb, nothing was wrong with Zhao Yanyan and the little light bulb. They all say men are scared of shopping with women because they are worried about the money in their pockets, I would rather Zhao Yanyan buy a bit more, but the chick just look and doesn't buy, and continued looking store by store.

"Just buy what caught your sight, it's not like we don't have money, Zhao-daxiaojie?" I said when I couldn't stand the suffering anymore.

"But nothing did!" Zhao Yanyan pouted and said.

"I think all of them look quite nice?!" I said.

"With your taste. Look at how you are dressed like a hobo," Zhao Yanyan mocked, how could she not know what I was thinking.

"Yes, only my taste would have you in my sights," I snickered. Zhao Yanyan dug a hole and jumped into it herself.

“You, are so annoying!” Zhao Yanyan said as she rained hammers on my body. Women had this advantage, when they can’t argue with someone they can solve the issue with violence.

Finally, Zhao Yanyan stealthily bought a bra when the little light bulb when to the bathroom, after paying for it, Zhao Yanyan whispered to me, “That place of mine actually gotten bigger again, the ones I wore before are a bit small.”

I got really happy after that, after this chick became a woman, her chest truly started enlarging.

“Is it all thanks to me often helping you massage?” I asked while laughing naughtily.

“Massage what?” It was at that moment that the little light bulb walked out of the bathroom and heard what I asked.

“Nothing much, nothing much. I just said I’m about to be tired to death, and really want someone to help me massage,” I chuckled and said.

Chapter 102 – End of Term Exams

---

The person just now was so interesting, Wu Yingying said while blushing. He could just leave without paying, but he actually took the initiative to come over and pay. However that person was terrible, he actually tricked this daxiaojie for her name. The most infuriating thing was how he came to dine with two beauties. Thinking to that point, Wu Yingying murmured in her heart, what does it matter to me that he came to eat with a few beauties! However whenever Wu Yingying thought of that evil smile, her heart couldn't help but skip a beat...

“Weier, give me a bowl of Mala Tang,” I handed two kuai to Chen Weier.

“Chen Weier smiled and waved her hand, then returned the money to me, and said, “No coriander, and you want mushroom, kohlrabi, bean curd and a bit of gluten right?”

“En, why do you remember it so clearly?” I asked weirdly.

Chen Weier blushed and immediately changed the topic, “Why do you have so much time today?”

“I missed you so I came,” I said.

Chen Weier's body shuddered, and dipped her head as she was afraid to look at me, then she said quietly, “You... promised that you don't like me.”

“I didn't say I like you, I just said I miss you,” I pretended to be an idiot and said.

“That-that's not okay either,” Chen Weier shook her head and said, “Aiya, you got made me lose concentration, now the Mala Tang all got overcooked!” Chen Weier quickly took out the small basket from the pot, but noticed that everything in it has already been dehydrated.

“I'll make another bowl for you,” Chen Weier frowned and said.

“No need, I’ll just eat it, how wasteful is it to throw it!” I snatched the basket from Chen Weier’s hand, poured it into a bowl, then added some seasoning on top of it.

“Yang Kaiyuan’s family didn’t cause anymore trouble for you right?” Chen Weier said worriedly.

“No, it probably will be peaceful for a while,” I said as I ate. However this type of overcooked Mala Tang was quite nice.

“Oh,” Chen Weier nodded, and was unsure of what to say anymore. She just looked dumbly at me.

What was going on with Chen Weier? I could be sure that I was in her heart, but yet she always kept a relationship that was close to yet distance from me, and still lied to herself by making me admit that I don’t like her, could she had some sort of trouble? There are quite a number of people right now, I must find a chance another day to make sense of this.

The end of term exams finally arrived. I often hoped for the holidays to arrive quicker in my previous life, yet wished the end of term exams would come later. Now that I think about it, it was rather contradictory, but people would often grow up in contradictions.

I did the test paper that was just like all the other ones, directly using the formulae for Math, Chemistry and Physics, I could get the Chinese and English questions right even with my eyes closed.

“This student, why are you sleeping during the test? It has only started for ten minutes, even if you can’t do anything, you still have to pretend a bit! What’s more, even if you can’t do the other questions, you can still guess a few of the multiple choice right?” I laid on the table and was just about to sleep when the deafening roar of the invigilator for the exam rang out beside my ear.

“I guessed all the ones I should,” I replied without lifting my head.

“What do you mean by guessing all the ones that you should? What about the others? You can’t not know any of the fill in the blanks right?

Even if you don't, you..." The invigilator got so angry that he nearly said "even if you don't, you can still copy a few".

"There isn't anymore I can guess, how about you help me look for it?" I got up, handed the test paper to the invigilator then laid back down to sleep.

"I'll help you find? Heh! I've never seen students like you before, I'm telling you, since you handed the paper to me, I'll treat it as you handing it in!" The invigilator saw that I actually continued to sleep, and shouted loudly in anger.

"Do as you want," I said. To be honest, I was so sleepy. When Zhao Yanyan told me that she had nobody home yesterday afterschool, I knew that the chick wanted it again, and thus I was pestered by this little lioness in heat the entire night, and only slept in the morning. I didn't think that Zhao Yanyan was actually full of energy when we came to school in the morning, yet I was already yawning all over the place. I just don't understand, why did Uncle Zhao always choose to leave the day before a test, isn't this just messing with me.

The invigilator was shocked beyond belief after taking a glimpse, the math paper was already completely full, even the extra question at the end was solved. Only looking at the student's name once again did he know that the person in front of him was the rumored Liu Lei, who either missed class or sleep through them yet could still achieve first in the year.

The attitude of the invigilator immediately changed and said softly to me, "Quickly put on your coat, don't catch a cold." The school was relying on this student to achieve a good grade, he might even be the future first place of the Matriculation exams, so he should be pissed off. This type of student would be popular where every he went, if he made him unhappy and thus caused him to move to the competitor Middle School of X University, then he (the invigilator) would have committed a grave crime.

"Oh," I replied and didn't think much of it. I've seen situations like this in my previous life, the teachers always care a lot more for students with good grads.

The results of the end of term exams were as I expected, full marks for Math, Physics and Chemistry, 98 marks for Chinese, I was already very pleased with my results. However I did surprisingly lose 3 marks in English. When Ye Xiaoxiao handed me the paper, she said apologetically to me that since the teacher marking the paper didn't recognize one of the words on my composition, I was deducted marks. I was extremely speechless at that moment, deducting marks just because you didn't know it? However Ye Xiaoxiao said when the paper was given to her, the results have been set, and could not be changed.

Never mind, I won't bother with it, even so I was still the first in the year, Zhao Yanyan was still firmly in second place, but she improved a lot from before, this time she was only 20 marks away from me.

Due to the experience last time, the moment I mentioned the parents-teachers consultation, my parents immediately argued over it, the thing that they once were unwilling to do now turned into something they fought over doing.

Finally my dad used the excuse that it was always him that went every single time, so it was easier to communicate to teachers, and won this opportunity.

"Boss, the school organized a winter camp, have you heard about it?" On the final day of the term, I finally saw Guo Qing when we were receiving our reports.

"What? Winter camp? Who said that?" I asked in confusion. Why haven't I heard about this winter camp in my previous life?

"The notice have been out, it's on the advertisement board!" Guo Qing said.

"Oh, I was wondering why there are so many people surrounding that place, where's the winter camp to?" I nodded my head, and said understandingly.

"To Xixing Mountain to ski!" Guo Qing said. "Apparently the scene is really beautiful there! The ski resort was newly built this year!”

“Ski?” This idea wasn’t bad, I was an amateur enthusiast of the university ski club, and also attended a few competitions, although it couldn’t be said that I was godly at it, but I could still do as I pleased. After I started working the chances to ski gradually decreased, sometimes I could only go once a year. I have never touched a ski after becoming CEO. Now that Guo Qing mentioned it, I immediately got interested.

Chapter 103 – The Shy Weier

“How do you participate? Are you going?” I immediately asked.

“AI! I do want to go, but they aren’t letting me go!” Guo Qing sighed.

“Not letting you go? Does attending this winter camp have some kind of requirements?” I asked weirdly.

“Yeah! The school organized this to encourage students to study hard, only the top ten students in each year can attend, and it’s completely free! Boss, you and Dasao can travel using public expenses!” Guo Qing said in envy.

I was wondering why I never heard about this in my previous life, I got the eight place if you counted up from the bottom in the year, this type of activities had nothing to do with me.

“Du... Du... Du!” In the early morning, I was awakened by the hurried rang of my phone. Having my phone turned on 24 hours is a habit left behind from my previous life as a CEO, no matter what time someone may call my phone back then, especially those fellows on the board, who’s country’s time was exactly opposite from here, thereby creating the situation where I would be fully energized whenever my phone rings.

“Hello, I’m Liu Lei...” I habitually picked up the phone and answered.

“En? What are you saying? Hubby, get up quickly! We said we would go to school together!” Zhao Yanyan said sweetly in the phone.

I only remembered then that today was the day of the school’s winter camp. I made a deal with Zhao Yanyan the previous day to meet her under my home at eight in the morning.

“Where are you?” I hurriedly crawled up from the bed, and started looking for my clothes.

“I’m downstairs from your home, I’m freezing here. Okay now, I’m going to hang up, my hand is cold. Hurry and come down!” Zhao Yanyan hung up.

I used the fastest possible speed to clean up myself in the bathroom and got dressed in less than ten minutes. I couldn't help but feeling happy that I developed this habit in university in my previous life.

When I got downstairs, I saw that Zhao Yanyan was standing not far away, breathing into her hands, and after seeing me come up, she happily leaped onto me, and said while twitching her eyebrows, "Why were you so slow, look at how red my hands are from the cold, help me warm it up." After saying that, she placed her hands into my coat.

"I was fast already, from the moment you hung up till I got down here, I used less than ten minutes," I explained.

"Impossible, I counted, it was at least half an hour!" Zhao Yanyan pouted.

"Okay, okay half an hour then half an hour!" I couldn't do anything when a girl was being illogical.

"That's more like it. Hurry, or we won't make it," Zhao Yanyan took out her hands from my coat and into the pockets of her down jacket, then ran to the side to the road to stop a cab.

There were many taxis in Songjiang at this time yet, the models were all very old Xiali or Lada, Jetta and Santana were not used as taxis yet. Although there were no starting price or meters at the time yet, and it cost five kuai no matter where you went in the city, but you couldn't help but had to admit that the taxi drivers did earn quite a bit of money in 1995.

"To Fourth High!" We finally stopped a taxi that slowly approached, so thus I said to the driver after getting on.

"Little bro, you should change a car, they're repairing the road around Fourth High, the road's a rather difficult one. Taking you there once would let me take two customers already," the driver said like he was troubled.

Actually my home wasn't far from Fourth High, if it was before, this definitely wouldn't be said. However recently they were building a bridge near there, so no taxi drivers were willing to take the job.

I looked at the time, it was already ten past eight, the school said to gather at half past eight. If I change a car then we definitely wouldn't make it, and there was no guarantee to get on in the first place.

"I'll give you double the fees, please hurry," I said to the driver.

"Oh? Sure! I promise I won't delay you!" Hearing that I would pay additional fees, the driver immediately smiled. Taking one job that equals two, who would be unwilling! If he rejected this, he couldn't be sure to even get two jobs. Anyone would be willing.

"Bro, sit still, I'm about to drive!" The driver stepped down on the pedal, and drove the car like a rocket, and we flew out instantly, I was rather suspicious if this fellow was an amateur F1 driver, he changed it to fourth gear when we just started.

"We're there!" I was just about to sleep when I heard the driver said by my ear.

I opened my eyes and looked around, we really were at the entrance to Fourth High. I took out 10 kua for the driver, and then looked at the watch, it was eight eighteen, the power of money was huge, the trip that would have took fifteen minutes only took this guy eight minutes.

A large bus was waiting on the playground, after Zhao Yanyan and I got on, we noticed the car was full, there were even a few people standing. But surprisingly, Chen Weier also came, and there was an empty seat beside her!

Zhao Yanyan giggly gave me a cue, and pointed to beside Chen Weier, before running to the back row to squish beside a few girls she was familiar with.

"Why aren't you sitting?" I pointed at the seat beside Chen Weier and asked one of the boys standing.

"Bro, you're in first year right?" That boy asked.

"Yeah, how'd you know?" I do look rather mature though.

“That’s right! You have no idea, Chen Weier is a famous cold beauty in our school, there are way too many people pursuing her. However there aren’t many that actually dare to approach her. Sitting with her is like kicking on an iron board! Apparently someone asked her how can they become her boyfriend? Guess what she said? She said that they must surpass her in academics! Isn’t that a joke? She’s never been second,” the boy twitched his mouth and said.

“Oh? Is that so?” Why couldn’t I tell? The feeling Chen Weier gave me was rather casual, but sometimes she was really hot, I couldn’t help but think of the hug that night.

“Excuse me, Miss Chen Weier, could you give me some face and allow me to sit next to you?” Just as we were speaking, a boy that just got on walked next to Chen Weier.

“It’s not about giving face or not, if you think you have the right to sit here then sit,” Chen Weier glared at the boy that just got on.

The flirting boy only awkwardly stood to the side, however it seems like he was already used to this sort of thing, he only seemed ashamed for a split second before returning to normal.

“Hey, another one that hit the wall! This guy is called Li Shaojie, he’s in the same class as Chen Weier, and is one of Chen Weier’s loyal fans. Apparently his family is really rich, I saw him come to school in a Mercedes one day,” the boy beside me talked endlessly.

“How do you know so much?” I found it really weird, this guy have the talent to be a paparazzi.

“Hehe, about that... actually I’m also one of Chen Weier’s admirers!” The boy on the side said.

Chapter 104 – Standing Up

“Oh,” I nodded and said. “Then since you aren’t sitting, I’m going. Since standing the entire journey is going to be exhausting.”

I had no time to waste with him, it was a hundred something kilometers from Xixing mountain, I had to find a place to sit down and rest quickly/

“...” The boy beside me looked at me with a face full of pity, as if he could already predict my expression when I hit a wall.

Thus, under everyone’s gaze, I arrived at the seat beside Chen Weier, “Can I sit here?”

“En?” Chen Weier raised her head to look at me, then immediately dipped her head again, she actually blushed.

“If you want to sit then sit... Why are you asking me...” Chen Weier played with the edge of her clothes, and said quietly, her voice sounding really sweet.

Everyone on the bus stared in our direction in astonishment, their gaze full of confusion and suspicious, and mostly envy. The cold beauty Chen Weier that usually ignored boys actually got shy in front of this boy!

I completely disregarded everyone’s reaction, and sat down beside Chen Weier.

“Why did you also join this winter camp?” I asked Chen Weier in curiosity.

“Can’t-Can’t I join?” Chen Weier didn’t know how to reply in that moment either, she didn’t want to go when she saw the notice of this winter camp, but for some reason, once she thought that Liu Lei might also go, she just went and sighed up. Even though Chen Weier comforted herself that he doesn’t like her, and she can’t like him, but she still came. Just at that moment when he talked to her, she actually got a bit smug in her heart.

“Of course the first place in third year, Miss Chen Weier, can join, who would dare to stop her!” I joked.

“Hmmpf! You are just mocking me, you’re so much better than me in academics,” Chen Weier snorted.

“How am I better, I always skip school, it’s already really nice that I haven’t been expelled,” I answered honestly.

“Heh, you’re doing it on purpose! You can get such good grades without going to class, is that a roundabout way of saying I’m too dumb?” Chen Weier glanced sideways at me.

“How could I compare a problematic student like myself to the all rounded Chen Weier!” I flattered.

“That’s more like it!” Chen Weier sighed while saying that.

“Hehe...” I was under the piercing gaze of everyone the entire journey as I chatted with Chen Weier. Afterwards I truly felt a bit sleepy, and just gradually fell asleep. Recently I always lack sleep, I don’t know if my parents did it on purpose, but I feel like there was a plot behind this.

Ever since my mom found out about me having a relationship surpassing that of friends with Zhao Yanyan, she often called Zhao Yanyan using all kind of excuses, put it in a better way, it was to discuss about womanly matters, and Zhao Yanyan gradually became a frequent visitor to my home.

There was even a time during a weekend, while I was still sleeping on the bed, a naked body suddenly slipped into my blanket, I was so scared that I immediately woke up, and noticed that the person in front of me was Zhao Yanyan, who was giggling and looking at me while being butt naked.

The things that followed was completely natural, after Zhao Yanyan and I finished getting intimate and put on our clothes to go and eat breakfast in the kitchen, I noticed my mom was staring at me with a gaze I could not understand, causing goosebumps to appear all over my body.

What made me faint the most was that my mom actually said something that nearly made me swallow my chopsticks, what she said was, Yanyan is still a young girl, can she take you for so long?

Zhao Yanyan and I nearly found a hole in the ground to crawl into. When the chick was having her orgasm, she actually shouted out, and it was definitely heard by my mom who was standing by the door with ulterior motives.

I could only awkwardly smile, I can't say that actually it was Zhao Yanyan who kept asking for it right.

These coincidences happened more and more often, my mom even specially prepared a key to our home for the chick, to let her enter freely, in other words, my mom has already started treating Zhao Yanyan as her future daughter-in-law, the mother and daughter-in-law relationship is extremely good.

Not only that, every time my mom and dad are going out, they would specifically call the chick, and tell her that they were going back that night, I feel like that is essentially just a hint, but I could do nothing about my mother's methods.

Just talk about these few days after the exams, my mom and dad always went out at night as if it was planned, causing me to always be sleep deprived. Hence I fell asleep on the car just now.

When I woke up, I noticed that I was leaning on something very soft, I opened my eyes to look and found out that my head was actually in Chen Weier's arms. Chen Weier was helplessly looking at me with her face bright red, it's as awkward as you can possibly imagine. The worst thing was that my saliva actually flowed out, causing the chest portion of her sweater to be completely wet.

I immediately sat up and smiled apologetically, "Sorry, I fell asleep."

"It's-It's okay," Chen Weier lowered her head and said quietly to me like she didn't dare to look at me.

"Why didn't you wake me up?" I wiped away the saliva on my mouth, and took out a pack of tissue from my pocket, took out a piece of tissue and prepared to wipe away the saliva I left behind on Chen Weier's chest.

"It's better if I do it," just as my hand came into contact with Chen Weier's soft chest, she immediately pushed my hand away like she was electrocuted. I only then realized how indecent my subconscious action was, although it was with the intention of helping, but I was already the typical pervert in the eyes of many boys. However I could use my life to swear to my old bro Yama that everything I did was natural instinct, there was no sense of perversity in them. The militia that were already really pissed off seeing me sleep in Chen Weier's arms finally found a chance to unleash their rage, all of them were cracking their knuckles and getting ready, they were just waiting for the moment that Chen Weier screams "pervert" so they can gang up on me, and beat me till I don't have a single place unharmed.

However the reality disappointed them, aside from having a shy expression, Chen Weier had no other reactions, furthermore after I handed over the tissue, and she wiped her clothes clean, she actually said softly to me, "I was afraid to wake you up, so I didn't dare to disturb your sleep."

Chen Weier's words completely broke the glasses of Weier's various pursues, so Chen Weier also have such a soft side, but what made them unable to tolerate was that Chen Weier's attitude towards this boy that was seemingly not special was extremely ambiguous!

However, how would they see where I was special? I will never tell anyone about my rebirth.

Chapter 105 – Sorry

The gazes of these people made me recall the moment when first year just started and I became Zhao Yanyan's desk mate, these people all thought that I was a toad that wanted to eat swan meat, but after Zhao Yanyan became my wife, that group of people couldn't help but accept reality. It was the same now, from the moment I sat down next to Chen Weier, they all wanted me be destroyed, they finally got a chance, yet the scene they imagined did not appear before them.

Just as I was getting full of myself, that Li Shaojie couldn't restrain the flames of anger in his heart and rushed over, pointed at me and said, "Brat, you actually dare to flirt with Chen Weier in public, are you treating us as non-existent?"

Chen Weier and I looked at this samarian that stood up with a face full of surprise.

Meanwhile, Li Shaojie was clenching his fists and starting at me , the rascal delinquent trash that flirted with Chen Weier, with a face full of anger, all the while clenching his teeth, if he had long hair, the scene of his hair sticking up in anger would definitely occur.

"I-I... was not... that... by him..." Before I said anything, Chen Weier already said while blushing. It was clear that she felt the term "tease" was not very polite, and changed it to "that".

"Weier, you don't need to be afraid! Did this bad guy threaten you? Don't worry, just tell us, there's so many of us here, are we supposed to be afraid of him?" LI Shaojie said passionately.

"That's right! We definitely can't not do anything about it!"

"Definitely cannot allow the pervert to succeed!"

"Yeah! We're not afraid of him..."

Humans are afraid of people taking the lead in fanning the flames, as long as one stood up, then there will immediately be a group of people that answers him. Beating a dog fallen into water was something nobody would give up.

“Let me speak, the person in front of me, are you the world police or the universal superman? Even if I am a rascal, you don’t need to stand up and point fingers right?” I said with disdain.

“Being a samarian is the duty of every civilian, don’t you agree!?” Li Shaojie turned around to the supporters and said.

“Yes! We all support you!” The people behind Li Shaojie answered.

“Now you’re all of one heart?” I said speechlessly. They are supposed to be all rivals in love, why are they now working so well together.

“Heh! How’s that? You scared? If you’re scared then stay far away from Chen Weier!” Li Shaojie said with a hateful gaze.

“Ai—— What’s with you students? Do you not want to participate in the winter camp anymore? If you don’t want to then say it, you can get off the car now!” The Han Bingfeng that was falling asleep on the copilot seat quickly came over to scold when he heard the unusual fire-powdery atmosphere.

“Dean Han!” Seeing the dean walk over, Li Shaojie didn’t dare to act cocky anymore, and immediately said politely.

“Heh! Are you all still good students? Are there good students like you? Getting full of yourself after getting the first ten? You think you can start fighting now you got into the top ten? Tell me what’s going on!” Han Bingfeng glared at Li Shaojie and said.

“Uhhh...” Li Shaojie didn’t know how to answer, was he supposed to tell the dean that he was jealous of this one before him?

“Okay now, don’t make up excuses for me, I have no effort to listen to it either. Conduct yourself well, or else get off the car immediately!” Han Bingfeng did not forget to glance sideways at me. What he meant was that I was also definitely at fault here, so I should pay attention too!

“I understand, Dean Han,” Li Shaojie kept on nodding. All the while he continued to mad in his heart, this pervert got lucky.

The entire journey, under the hateful gaze of Li Shaojie and co., I chatted with Chen Weier.

“Weier, let me tell you a joke!” I chuckled and said.

“I’m not listening!” Chen Weier said subconsciously, because it had a hint of lewdness when I told her a joke last time, the hick subconsciously refused after hearing that I was going to tell her a joke.

“It’ll definitely be a proper joke this time! I promise to old man Yama,” I swore.

“Puchi——“ Chen Weier couldn’t help but laugh after hearing that. “You’re so weird, other people all swear using all types of deities, this is the first time I heard that someone swear using Yama!”

“Hehe! You don’t understand, Yama is in charge of a person’s life or death, so using him to swear is using my own life to swear right?” I explained. Actually the reason I dared to swear using my old bro Yama was because I know he can’t do anything to me. If I dragged in any other deities, if they get annoyed, then it’s no joke.

“Oh, then say it,” seeing how real I made it sound, she also believed it.

“Once upon a time, there was a child, he sleeps and wakes up early, and studies well, and improves everyday...” Saying to that point, I intentionally paused.

“Then?” Hearing that, Chen Weier wanted to know the result quickly.

“Then died,” I said.

“Died? How did he die?” Chen Weier asked weirdly.

“Yeah, this joke is, once upon a time, there was a child, he sleeps and wake up early, studies hard, and improves everyday, then died,” I said seriously.

“He... He.... You call this a joke! Ha... Ha... There is no relationship between the two, it’s so funny,” Chen Weier finally understood the meaning of the joke, and laughed endlessly.

Cold jests weren't popular yet in this era, I subconsciously told her one that I saw on the Internet in my previous life. The funny point here was not on its actual meaning, but on the part "then died", this had nothing to do with the first half at all!

"Then do you still want to listen?" I beat the iron while it's hot and said. It was this easy to make a girl like you in this era, you could get the beauty's laughter with a few sentences. It's not like a few years later when the Internet is popularized, all of the little girls have been trained like thousand year ginseng, extremely bright.

"En, then say another one! But I already say I won't listen to those!" Wen Chen Weier said that, she blushed, and immediately dipped her head.

"Hehe, okay..." Therefore I told the jokes I heard in my previous life such as the mouse becoming an aviator for their children, and thus got married to the bat; and the frog marrying the turtle so their children could live longer etc. to Zhao Yanyan. Chen Weier covered her mouth, and kept on laughing, while complaining to me about where I heard so many weird jokes.

I know Li Shaojie was still clenching his teeth towards me not far away, and Weier's other pursuers were still angered. However what does that have to do with me?

The car gradually drove towards the Xixing Mountain Ski field, and stopped in front of hotel. It looks like the school was rather willing to spend money, each of the standard rooms in this class of hotel would cost at least three hundred, furthermore it was the peak season of the ski field.

"Everyone get off! Boys and girls get into separate pairs, two people per room!" Han Bingfeng ordered us after he got off.

Chapter 106 – Ski Board

I don't know if Zhao Yanyan did it intentionally, she immediately pulled Chen Weier who was by my side. Chen Weier freaked out immediately, her heart nearly jumped out from her throat. She was chatting happily with Liu Lei on the car just now, Zhao Yanyan couldn't have misunderstood something so came to make a punitive expedition right? When it comes to that, if she was asked if she likes Liu Lei, how should she answer? She did had a promise with Liu Lei that looked fine, but was just a lie to herself, would Zhao Yanyan notice anything?

“Weier-jiejie, let us stay in a room okay?” Zhao Yanyan pulled Chen Weier's arm and said calmly.

“Oh... About this... Okay!” Chen Weier originally wanted to refuse, however she thought that if she really refused, then isn't that being guilty?

“That's great, I always hear Liu Lei mention you, I can finally witness Weier-jiejie's beauty!” Zhao Yanyan smiled like she was not smiling as she checked Chen Weier out.

However this sentence turned into a huge mockery in Chen Weier's ears, she immediately remembered the hug that night, and felt like she was a mistress that was caught by their wife, and felt truly ashamed. She couldn't help but get annoyed in her heard: Liu Lei you idiot, how can you mention another girl in front of your own girlfriend!

“I... Yanyan-meimei, I've wronged you, I won't bother Liu Lei ever again!” Chen Weier clenched her teeth, and said determinedly to Zhao Yanyan.

“Weier-jiejie, what are you saying?” Zhao Yanyan asked in confusion.

“Yanyan-meimei, didn't you come to make a punitive expedition against me?” Chen Weier also said in confusion with a blushed face.

“Punitive expedition? Why would I do that!” Zhao Yanyan only understood now, so Chen Weier was scared that she misunderstood her relationship with Liu Lei. However since Chen Weier did this, it showed that Chen Weier did hold Liu Lei in her heart, that bad guy really got lucky!

“Oh...” Chen Weier understood now that she thought too much into it. It’s all her fault that she got impulsive and spilled everything out. That’s great, originally there was barely any relationship, now due to her own explanations it just became more and more suspicious.

Although Chen Weier was older than Zhao Yanyan, she still had a little girl’s mindset, how could she compare with Zhao Yanyan in terms of schemes. Zhao Yanyan didn’t continued to ask about anything either, and pretended that she didn’t know anything, she just held Chen Weier’s hand and intimately stood at the side. This did allow the nervous Chen Weier to let out a sigh of relief.

It was like the rest of the boys had planned this, all of them found their rooming partners. There was one that was sick, who didn’t come, hence leaving me by myself.

There was nothing Han Bingfeng could do about it even after knowing that, he shared a room with the school’s driver, and could only leave me alone in a room.

I know these people intentionally isolated me. That Li Shaojie seemed to have quite a bit of influence on these people, and thus creating a one-sided situation. However I do want to thank him, by giving me a standard room all to myself, this would be convenient for me to XXOO with Zhao Yanyan at night.

When I placed down my backpack, someone knocked on my door. I opened it and took, Zhao Yanyan was giggling while looking at me, beside her was Chen Weier.

“Dean Han told everyone to go downstairs to rent equipment together,” Zhao Yanyan said to me.

“Okay,” I closed the door as I went out, tied the key to my wrist, and went downstairs with them. The moment we got down, the weird combination of the three of us received the murderous gaze of the various boys. Normally I was rather low-key in school, and don't often come to school, so not many people know that Zhao Yanyan was my girlfriend. This group of people had just seen me chatting happily with Chen Weier, and now were walking very close to the first place of the school beauty leaderboard, how could they not get annoyed? Zhao Yanyan was essentially the embodiment of perfection in Fourth High, and was a goddess in the hearts of these people, compared to Chen Weier, Zhao Yanyan made people feel more surreal, and was someone that could only be watched from a distance. If it wasn't for my rebirth, Zhao Yanyan would hold a similar image in my heart as well.

Everyone was thinking about one question right now, which is that this pervert didn't just have enough after teasing Chen Weier, and now actually started flirting with Zhao Yanyan. If it wasn't due to Han Bingfeng waiting downstairs, these people would have definitely ran up and beat me till I'm swollen.

However Zhao Yanyan's next sentence immediately dowsed their tiny bit of hope. Zhao Yanyan wrapped herself around my arm, and said in an extremely feminine voice to me, "Hubby, the skis for rent aren't very good, let's buy a pair ourselves okay?"

The moment Zhao Yanyan used this tone to speak to me, I knew that she wanted something from me. I don't know whom did this chick learn it from, I had completely not notice. Only afterwards did I know the criminal mastermind behind it, when I found out I nearly died of an internal bleeding in my brain, because the one who taught Zhao Yanyan this move was my mother!

However with Zhao Yanyan's family background, the money to buy a pair of ski board was negligible, even though Zhao Junsheng was my subordinate, with his salary every year, it was still enough to let their entire family spend without restraint. The meaning of Zhao Yanyan wanting me to buy it for her was naturally different, buying something yourself and having the one you love most buy it for you had a big difference.

“Sure!” I joyfully answered. Zhao Yanyan’s suggestion was good, a pair of suitable ski equipment wasn’t just comfortable, but was also much safer. I experienced this deeply in my previous life, even if Zhao Yanyan didn’t ask me, I would have considered buying suitable ski equipment myself.

When everyone saw Zhao Yanyan and my actions, although they were jealous in their hearts, they still let out a sigh of relief, especially that Li Shaojie. This means that, I, as Zhao Yanyan’s boyfriend, didn’t have any relationship with Chen Weier. The reason I chatted and laughed with Chen Weier was only because Zhao Yanyan and Chen Weier are good friends. They had no idea that Zhao Yanyan only went to get to know Chen Weier because of me.

“I knew you were the best hubby!” Seeing that Zhao Yanyan agreed with her request, she happily kissed me on the cheek, and completely ignored the gaze of the perverts surrounding us.

On the journey, Zhao Yanyan and I chatted and laughed while we followed the other people to the ski equipment store. Chen Weier was pulled along by Zhao Yanyan, and since she was too embarrassed to say anything, she only awkwardly followed us.

Just when we were focusing on picking ski equipment, that Li Shaojie once again appeared beside us. “Weier, let me buy you a pair of ski boards!” Li Shaojie said.

“No need...” Chen Weier shook her head and refused.

“Owner, do you have some ski boards for girls?” Li Shaojie said proudly.

Chapter 107 – Fishman Brand Ski Board

“Pu——” This person was truly an illiterate! I nearly laughed out loud, would ski boards within the country in 1995 be separated into male and female use? It was all the same, and only had difference in models. Only after 1997 did I see a female ski boards designed specifically for girls, this type of ski boards were usually lighter, and the board themselves were softer, the position of the holder was slightly more forward, this type of design not only improved the stability, but also made it easier to turn. However I would guess that even the sports shop owners would have never heard of ski boards specifically for female use in this era.

“About this, ski boards are for both genders!” The owner said with a difficult expression, clearly the boy in front of him was a rich person, so he spoke rather tactfully.

Although he was already really tactful, Li Shaojie’s expression still worsened a lot, then looking at me who was trying hard not to laugh on the side, it was clear that I was laughing at his ignorance.

“Of course I know it’s for both genders, I just wanted you to help me find a pair suitable for girls to use!” Li Shaojie explained rather diffidently.

“Okay! I’ll help you get it,” how could the owner not have heard past Li Shaojie’s explanation, but with business right in front of him, only an idiot would poke a hole through it.

“See if this is okay, it’s a Chevrolet product, definitely high class! Look at the material of the board, it’s made of aluminium!” The owner patted the ski board and said.

Chevrolet? Do you think you’re selling a car? It was a typical product of inferior quality. I took a glance at it, and knew that it was definitely the worst of the worst, the board had no tenacity at all.

“Oh! Not bad, not bad!” Li Shaojie pretended like he really understood it, then waved his hand and said, “En, very tough, it doesn’t change shape at all!”

“Ha... Ha...” I finally couldn’t hold back my laughter, and started chuckling, the owner’s face had already turned red.

“This little bro! Ski board is about tenacity...” The boss reminded Li Shaojie quietly.

“Heh! I know, that’s why this is too fucking hard! Hurry and find a softer one for me, I want the softest one!” Li Shaojie said loudly.

“Ha... Ha...” I was laughing so hard that I couldn’t stand straight. The owner couldn’t do anything but explain to Li Shaojie with an awkward expression, “Ski boards are all about being just right, being too soft will make it unable to withstand anything!”

“Oh... I know! What I mean is comparatively soft!” Li Shaojie said with a red face.

“This pair of Chevrolet is an excellent ski board, look at this aluminum, it’s definitely improved! It’s original!” The moment the owner started talking about products, he started exaggerating again, especially since the buyer in front of him was a layman, if he didn’t rip him off severely then what was he supposed to do?

“I know, I know, I knew this was a good product once I saw it, how much is it?” LI Shaojie said shamelessly.

“Three thousand eight hundred! How’s that, the price is fair aye?” The owner smiled servilely. This ski cost three hundred and eighty, since the idiot in front of him wanted to buy it, then he should rip him off more.

“Ah, not expensive, not expensive at all! Such a wonderful ski board for only three thousand eight hundred, it’s worth it!” Li Shaojie didn’t think that a pair of ski board would be three thousand something kuai, he thought that this would be like ice skates and even the most expensive ones would only cost several hundred, or a thousand, this one pair was nearly four thousand, this was two months of pocket money for him! Thinking about how he only have five thousand something kuai in his bank card, he felt a bit speechless, however he can't retract what he bragged about doing, if he could buy for Chen Weier, yet not for himself, how much face would he lose! Yet if he doesn't buy it for Weier, he would have even less face. Li Shaojie clenched his teeth and said, "Weier, what do you think about this?"

"There's no need, Li Shaojie-tongxue, I will not accept anything you give!" Chen Weier used the phrase "Lishaojie-tongxue" to clarify their relationship, meaning that don't always call me Weier, I have nothing to do with you, and it is impossible for me to accept what you give me.

"About this... okay," Li Shaojie let out a long sigh of relief in his heart, although Chen Weier didn't give him any face at all and refused him, it was better than her accepting it and he being unable to afford it.

"Then do you still want it?" Seeing that Chen Weier didn't want it, the owner said disappointedly. Such a large amount of money was instantly gone.

"Yeah, find a pair for me!" Li Shaojie had wanted to buy a ski board for himself as well.

"Okay, I'll go immediately!" The owner's face was once again filled with a joyous smile as he happily turned around to find the ski board from the shelf.

"Owner, let me see that "Fishman" ski board on your shelf," I pointed at the ski board on the bottom of the shelf and said.

"Oh, this? This isn't that good," the owner unwillingly took it out from the bottom of the shelf for me to see.

"This doesn't look any special? It looks rather dumb, the owner had also said that this is bad!" Zhao Yanyan looked weirdly at the ski board in my hands and said to me.

"Hehe, he might have said that because he doesn't earn that much from it! Yanyan, look, this pair of ski board is also made mostly with aluminum, but it has a special kind of light wood added in the middle, hence ensuring a good elasticity and tenacity! Also on the sides of the ski board is all made of improved ABS material, improving the impact resistance and ductility,” I explained. I have seen Fishman ski board in my previous life, it was already a world class brand then, yet it has not become famous in 1995 yet, since the cost of it wasn’t cheap, and it didn’t look great, it could only have fallen to the very bottom of the shelf.

“How do you know so much?” Chen Weier interrupted weirdly on the side.

“Hehe, you...” Zhao Yanyan giggled, and whispered something beside Chen Weier’s ear. Chen Weier’s cheeks immediately blushed, and quickly shook her head, “How is that fine!”

“Yanyan, what did you say to her just now?” I asked weirdly.

“Nothing, hehe,” Zhao Yanyan raised her head again as she said that, her gaze moved towards Chen Weier, whose head immediately dipped again.

I really didn’t get it, what did the two girls say. I should find a chance to ask Zhao Yanyan by herself, this chick has no more secrets once she gets onto the bed.

“Owner, how much is this ski board?” I pointed to the Fishman ski board in my hand and said.

“This...” The boss already found out that I was a professional from the words I said just now, so it was impossible to earn a lot from me. Instead of saying a really high cost and scare me away, it was better to sell more at a cheaper price, and sell it as long as he made a profit. Even if he didn’t sell it, other shops would, I was clearly different from the idiot just now.

“I’ll give it to you for six hundred and eighty kuai!” The owner clenched his teeth and said a price like that. This ski board had cost six hundred kuai to buy it in, but it didn’t look as pretty as those crappy goods that cost three four hundred kuai, although the quality was better, most of the skiers here were amateurs, and didn’t understand this, he had hoped to make a good profit from these ski board, but it has nearly been three months, and he has only sold a pair, and it was sold to someone he

Chapter 108 – Cable Car

---

Six eighty? Are you kidding me! That inferior good Li Shaojie bought was three thousand eight hundred, and this ski board of better quality was only sold to me for six eighty?

“How much?” I asked once again with uncertainty, this was way too cheap.

“Six eighty! The price is already really fair, you are also in the industry, so I don’t need to say too much about the quality of this ski board,” that owner thought that I found it too expensive, and immediately explained.

“Oh!” I nodded, more or less understanding what he meant. Although the quality of the ski board was very good, but because of its color and looks, a lot of people asked about it. I really got a great deal, although I’m really rich, I can’t just carelessly spend money right?

“Then give us three pairs!” I said to the owner.

“Three pairs?” The owner was shocked to the point that his mouth was wide open. Although he didn’t make much off this ski board, being able to deal with the stocks quickly was still a very joyous thing.

“Liu Lei, why are you buying so many?” Although Chen Weier felt that one might have been for her when I said three pairs, she still couldn’t help but ask.

“Weier-jiejie, of course he bought one for each of the three of us!” Before I said anything, Zhao Yanyan explained with a smie.

“For me... me...!” Chen Weier subconsciously wanted to refused, but she couldn’t open her mouth. In fact, she had a hint of joy from the depths of her heart. However since she had already rejected Li Shaojie just now, accepting Liu Lei’s offer was clearly going to cause a misunderstanding. Therefore she still said, “Then never mind, I can’t casually take someone else’s thing...”

“Hehe, Weier-jiejie! It’s not the first time you accept something from him, that set of clothes from Fairyfair...” Zhao Yanyan said beside Chen Weier’s ear like she was doing a prank.

“Ah!” Chen Weier was so shocked that she nearly sat on the floor, and said frantically, “How-how did you know?”

“Wouldn’t you know just looking at what you’re wearing inside your down jacket!” Zhao Yanyan glared at Chen Weier’s chest and said.

“...” Chen Weier blushed, she randomly took this set of clothes out, and wore it inside. Did she wear it for that person? She wasn’t even sure herself.

Zhao Yanyan smiled and said, “When Liu Lei and I went shopping the other day, I also got interested in this set of clothes.”

The shop owner took out three pairs of ski boards, and handed it to us. Chen Weier also picked up a pair with a red face.

“Weier, you actually accepted the ski board he bought for you!” Li Shaojie exclaimed.

“Weier is our great friend, why can’t we buy it for her? As for you, Weier this, Weier that, does she have anything to do with you?” Zhao Yanyan argued.

“Heh! Weier, even if they are good friends of yours, you still need to think about the safety of your life! Buying a six hundred something kuai ski board is essentially kidding with your laugh! Look at my ski board, so very solid! Then look at the one he bought for you, so light, just like cardboard,” Li Shaojie said.

I laughed coldly in my heart, it isn’t even sure who would be in life threatening danger when we start skiing later. Just with your aluminum sheet, it’ll be weird if you don’t fall to your death! However I didn’t want to tell him, a dead retard is one less retard. Before I said anything, Li Shaojie pointed the spearhead towards me, “What’s with you? If you don’t have money then don’t get pretentious and buy stuff here! Buying stuff for girls, you should look at if you have the ability first! Six eighty for a pair! Even three pairs isn’t worth as much as one pair of mine, even if you want to commit suicide, don't drag Weier into it!"

"If you don't feel alright with it, then spend some money and buy it for Weier, I have nothing against it! But don't just crap in front of me," I have no idea about how to describe this fellow, he managed to get the top ten in the year even with this intelligence, the world really is big, is there some fucking problem with his brain!

Li Shaojie snorted, and stopped talking. I was rather confused, why didn't this brat continue to argue with me? If I knew that he ran out of money, I would have definitely pushed him until he can't stand anymore.

I took out a bankcard and handed it to the shop owner. I am a person that returned from the next century, I also retained my habit from my previous life when I go out, I always carry a few bankcards no matter where I went, and barely bring any cash.

"About this, we can't swipe cards here!" The shop owner looked at the bankcard in my hand with a troubled expression. He finally sold out three pairs of this backlog, if I didn't have cash, this transaction wouldn't succeed.

Zhao Yanyan knows that I have this habit, and didn't say anything, instead she took out her purse from her pocket, counted two thousand and handed it to the shop owner, "Three pairs for two thousand then."

The shop owner received the cash, how would he dare to say know, it was great that he could sell it out, it doesn't matter if he makes any profit or not.

Li Shaojie glared at me with disdain, what he meant was that I was someone who only knew how to eat soft rice, of course I couldn't let him be, so I angrily returned his glare. How is this type of upstart who carries a huge stack of cash not scared of getting robbed?

I then picked three pairs of ski goggles, ski shoes and wristbands, kneecaps etc. Of course all of them are products that were cheap but with good quality. Li Shaojie also pretentiously followed my lead to buy these stuff, it's just that the ones he bought were once again inferior products that he thought were high class goods.

The other people all rented ski equipment with Han Bingfeng's organization, I took a lot, the quality weren't bad. It was comparable to the Fishman brand.

We would only get to the ski field at the top of the mountain by cable car, each cable car could only sit two people, I don't know if Zhao Yanyan did it intentionally, she pushed Chen Weier and I into the same car, and then winked at me with a meaningful look.

The cable car gradually slid along the track towards the top of the mountain, underneath our feet were several hundred meters of air. Although the cable car was completely shut, Chen Weier still subconsciously leaned her body towards me, her hands tightly gripping the handle, as she was too worried to even move, in fear of falling down.

"Weier..." I said.

"En," Chen Weier answered worriedly, tiny droplets of sweat formed on her forehead.

"Do you have acrophobia?" I looked at Weier's trembling body and asked.

"En," Chen Weier answered quietly once again.

I put my large hands on top of Weier's hands, and gripped it lightly. The other arm grabbed Weier into my arms.

"Don't..." Chen Weier wanted to push me away, just as a word came out of her mouth, the cable car coincidentally trembled at the attachment point of the track. This caused Weier to immediately grip my hand tightly, and didn't dare to move, allowing me to continue hugging her.

We could see the full view of Xixing mountain on the cable car, the entire mountain was covered with whit, due to the low gradient of the slow, and the lack of vegetation, it was a natural paradise for skiing. I wanted to let Chen Weier see this beautiful scenery as well, but Chen Weier kept her eyes closed the entire time, and didn't dare to open them.

"We're here," I patted Chen Weier's back and said. At this time, the cable car already slid to the mountain top.

Chapter 109 – Finding Fault

Only then did Chen Weier slowly, causing her to noticed that she was still ambiguously hugged. “Ah!” Chen Weier subconsciously screamed, and quickly escaped from my embrace.

I was only scared just now, so I hid in his arms. Chen Weier comforted herself in her heart.

Zhao Yanyan’s cable car arrived to the mountain top right after us. The chick jumped down from the car while giggling, and arrived in front of me, she mischievously looked at me and the blushing Chen Weier, “Weier-jiejie, did this bad guy bully you?”

“N-No!” Chen Weier would freak out from Zhao Yanyan’s every single word, the winter camp haven’t even started, she was already scared twice, this is the third time. Zhao Yanyan seemed to grasp her thoughts perfection, if she really stood up and said that she (Chen Weier) shouldn’t seduce her boyfriend, perhaps she (Chen Weier) would feel better. What she was most afraid of was the current situation, Zhao Yanyan clearly knows about it all, yet not only did she push Liu Lei towards her, and also seemed to agree with her liking Liu Lei.

“Yanyan, stop joking around. Do you have gum? Weier is afraid of heights, and haven’t recovered,” I looked at Chen Weier and noticed that her face was still white.

Zhao Yanyan took out a pack of Doublemint gum, and handed it respectively to Chen Weier and I, then also took out a piece and placed it in her own mouth. Gum was a very popular thing in 1995, young people all treated it as a type of fashion, pushing the Dada Bubblegum that was once really popular out of its historical stage.

Due to the cold temperature, the mint flavored gum was rather cool when placed into the mouth, but Chen Weier seemed to enjoy it, her knitted eyebrows seemed to relax quite a bit, despite her face being rather pale, it still reddened a lot.

The winds of the snowy mountain blew against Chen Weier's hair, lifting it into the air like an ice fairy. All of the sudden, I couldn't help but be awestruck.

"Weier, you're so beautiful," I exclaimed, and softly helped her comb down her hair as I looked passionately at her beautiful face.

"Liu Lei..." Chen Weier shockingly gazed at me, and murmured.

"Hai—Hai—!" Zhao Yanyan coughed twice.

Chen Weier immediately subconsciously pushed me away, and stood on the side, then looked towards Zhao Yanyan while being unsure of what to do, with her face full of resentment.

"There are people behind, be a bit more careful you two. If you are going to get intimate, you have to find somewhere where there isn't anyone!" Zhao Yanyan pointed at the cable cars coming up and said.

"Hehe," I laughed dryly and scratched my head, then whispered beside Zhao Yanyan's ear, "Did you get jealous?"

"Heh! Stop pretending after you've been benefitted," Zhao Yanyan's crab hands pinched my waist once again as she glared at me. "If I was jealous I wouldn't have pushed you to onto the same car."

"Aiya!" I exclaimed in pain.

"Heh, Weier-jiejie, let us ignore this pervert! Come, let's go skiing!" With that, Zhao Yanyan pulled Chen Weier towards the entrance of the ski field without looking at me.

I shook my head and followed behind, a woman's heart was truly like a needle in the ocean. Not only did I not understand Weier's thoughts, now I was even starting to get confused on what Zhao Yanyan was doing.

I carried the luggage for the three of us, this ski board truly so fucking heavy, it was at least twenty to twenty five kilograms. With all the miscellaneous equipment as well, I was like an armored car, and moved forward slowly with large and small bags hanging from my body.

Suddenly, a figure dashed out from behind me, fuck, I nearly fell over. I raised my head to look, it was the retard Li Shaojie looking at me with a smirk. Li Shaojie waved his hand and said, “You’re a snail now aye, this is the result of being pretentious!” After saying that, he quickly walked forward.

He actually dared to mock me?! I’m a snail? I’ll let you see what is a supersonic snail today. I took a deep breath and focused, the scene before me changed, and gradually became unusually slow. Li Shaojie was stepping forward with a speed even more snail than a snail, one of his leg was still in midair.

I slowly walked in front of him, surpassing him by ten odd meters, then I let out a sigh and returned to normal. I turned my head back, and raised my middle finger towards the Li Shaojie behind me, then started walking forward without turning back again.

“Ah!” LI Shaojie looked at me with wide eyes. He felt something was not right just now, a black figure used a speed faster than lightning to speed in front from behind his back. After noticing that the person was me, he was really shocked, and kept on using his hands to rub his eyes.

“You are slower than a snail,” I left a sentence behind before I hurried towards Zhao Yanyan and co.. When I am using my superpower, the movements of everything else was extremely slow to me, in other words, my speed would become unusually quick for everything else. So I became a shadow in Li Shaojie’s eyes.

I finished changing into the ski suit, and put on the wristbands and knee guards. Zhao Yanyan was also like me, and wore the things like she knew what she was doing, from the familiarity she showed, she must have skied before. However this was very normal, Zhao Junsheng was an entrepreneur before he followed me, Skiing was a trendy sport among rich people in 1995.

Yet Chen Weier struggled for a long time and still couldn’t put it on, but she was too embarrassed to say anything, and thus only looked helplessly towards Zhao Yanyan. However Zhao Yanyan turned her head around like she didn’t see anything.

Ai! I sighed. This chick was deliberately creating a chance for me again.

I walked over, picked up the outfit from Chen Weier's hands. I carefully put it on her. Chen Weier stood there, unmoving, and allowed me to do as I please. Her cheeks that were red due to the weather became even more red.

After I finished helping Weier, I noticed that when everyone arrived, Han Bingfeng begun to teach people how to wear the ski equipment. Seeing that we had finished wearing it all, Li Shaojie didn't want to lose to us and put it all on as well, however what made me confused was that this retard actually wore the knee and arm guards inside the ski suit, causing him to look so chubby like a huge panda. Only after hearing Han Bingfeng's explanation, did he realize he made a huge fool of himself.

I put on the ski board, and stretched out, then I skied around in the snow for a little bit. It felt pretty good, although I haven't been able to show the level I could do during university in my previous life, I did ski alright. I haven't touched this sport for nearly tens years, it's already great that I haven't fallen over.

Zhao Yanyan also stabilized her ski boards, and was talking to Chen Weier.

"What happened?" I asked.

"Weier doesn't know how to ski! Come over and help!" Zhao Yanyan shouted towards me.

She doesn't know how to ski?! Haha, that's great for me. An image surfaced in my mind – a couple romantically holding hands in the snow... Hehe, the free coach is here!

Chapter 110 – Li Shaojie's Revenge

“Weier, I’ll teach you?” I reached out my hand, and said to Weier who was sitting on a pile of snow.

“Fuck off! Even if she needs teaching, it’s not for you!” I didn’t even need to turn my head to know that this voice belonged to the annoying LI Shaojie.

This guy randomly ran over. That’s right, this guy actually ran over wearing the ski boards and ran over like flip flop flip flop. He was just like a huge duck. If I didn’t know this guy is truly a retard, I might even have thought that he invented a new skiing method.

“You retard, stay away from Chen Weier, or else I’ll beat you to death,” Li Shaojie ran in front of us panting, and after seeing that there’s no one around, he regained his pretentious mouth and shouted at me while pointing.

“Say, Li Shaojie-tongxue, I put over with you over and over because you are in the same class at Chen Weier, but you can’t be so endless right?” I couldn’t be bothered with this piece of trash before, this type of person was simply too weak for me, I could deal with him with several moves.

“Heh, with your shit look, I don’t know what fucking luck you had managing to get Zhao Yanyan. But I’m warning you, you better stay away from Chen Weier, now take your bird and fuck off, Chen Weier isn’t someone a poor shit like you can reach!” Li Shaojie deliberately touched the ski google that he spent 500 kuai to buy and said.

Saying bad stuff about me was fine, he actually dragged Zhao Yanyan into it, from his meaning it seems like he was saying Zhao Yanyan had no taste so she got with me? Isn’t that looking to die?

“Li Shaojie, you will pay for what you have said today,” I said calmly.

“Fuck! You dare to threaten me? Fuck this, I haven’t been scared! I’m telling you, immediately apologize to me, then everything’s fine, it’s all good, or else I can kill you don't you believe me?" Li Shaojie shouted.

"Haha——" I laughed instead of getting angry, this was the most interesting joke I've heard. Do you think you are the underworld? I'm poor? Only an upstart like you would flaunt about how rich you are everywhere.

"What are you laughing about! I'll make you cry later," LI Shaojie glanced around, all the other students were far away, Li Bingfeng was also teaching other to ski, no one was paying attention towards this side. Li Shaojie was relieved now, if I don't teach you brat who doesn't know how high the sky is and how thick the ground is, you won't know how great I Li Shaojie is right? I am a sanda master, looking at the person in front of me who was so frail, isn't it going to be like a game to beat him up?

"You asked for it, don't blame me for being merciless!" Li Shaojie cracked his knuckles and took off the ski boards, moved around a bit. He was an idiot in this regard, and the ski boards would get in the way when fighting.

"Wait——" Seeing that he was getting ready to fight, I felt like there was something that should be made clear before we fight.

"What? Scared! If you're scared then fuck off, if you leave now I won't do anything to you!" Seeing that I said stop, Li Shaojie thought I was scared, and said proudly there.

"Hehe, Li-tongxue, before we trade moves, I feel like something has to be made clear first," I cleared my throat and said.

"What do you want to say? Last words? Haha!" Li Shaojie didn't care at all.

"I can accompany you in fighting, but whoever loses has to stay away from Chen Weier! Also the loser can't take revenge afterwards," I felt like I had to clarify it first, I didn't want the second Liu Kesheng to appear. Although I wasn't scared from him taking revenge on me afterwards, but the less of this sort of troublesome thing the better.

“Okay! That’s a promise! However it seems like you said it just for yourself right?” Li Shaojie laughed.

“Are you ready?” I don’t know why, but these words popped out from my mouth again.

“I’m ready...” Li Shaojie replied subconsciously, however the moment those words left his mouth, he felt something amiss, like he was made a fool. As expected, Chen Weier and Zhao Yanyan already started laughing.

“Fuck! You asked for it! Today I will beat you until your mother doesn’t recognize you!” Li Shaojie waved his fist with anger and shame, then dashed towards me.

I didn’t even need to use my superpower to know where his weakness was with at this speed. With Li Shaojie’s ability, he was a third rated sanda person at max.

Li Shaojie’s threw a punch towards my abdomen, and then closely followed it with his right leg that wanted to attack my lower body. This brat is really black hearted, using a killer move immediately, and wanted me to become impotent. However wanting to hurt me with this level of ability, that’s simply too naïve! No matter what, I was a teenage sanda champion in my previous life, don’t talk about Li Shaojie, even if his shifu was here I could easily deal with him!

I casually lifted my left foot, just as Li Shaojie was got in front of me, and quickly kicked, blocking his knee. Then I used my hand to grab the fist he threw out, and used a bit of strength, Li Shaojie immediately flew up, and fell onto the snow.

I barely even used ten percent of my strength, and I haven’t even started counterattacking, and only put up the necessary defense I needed to do. Even so, Li Shaojie still stumbled. Luckily the ground was covered in soft snow, or else if he fell onto a cement floor, that would be enough for Li-tongxue to suffer, at the very least his pelvis bone would have cracked.

Li Shaojie didn’t take too long before quickly crawling up from the ground, he didn’t even wipe away the snow on him, and just directly jumped up, and wanted to attack me once again.

“Stop!” I immediately shouted. “Say Li-tongxue, isn’t it enough for today? It looks like you aren’t capable of being my opponent, why do you have to make a fool of yourself?”

“Heh, don’t get so full of yourself! Just now it was too slippery, I got careless, but this time you won’t be so lucky, I will not easily let you go today!”

Chen Weier and Zhao Yanyan were very clear about my abilities, so they stood behind me without a tiny bit of fright, actually they were even looking at Li Shaojie and I with interest, from the look of excitement and heat in Chen Weier’s eyes, she seems to wish I can quickly beat this Li Shaojie up!

Li Shaojie adjusted his posture, and got ready again, but this time he didn’t randomly attack, he just gazed at me, in search of a chance to make a move. It looks like this Li Shaojie wasn’t a complete idiot, he at least understood the techniques needed to contest with someone.

Chapter 111 – You Two Go and Die

However all of this was pointless moves in my eyes, even if he just continued to gaze on, I could still rush over and easily deal with him, but I had the thought of acting like a cat playing with a mouse, the difference between us was far too great, so great that I couldn't even get in the mood to make a move on him.

Li Shaojie finally couldn't stand it anymore, and madly dashed towards me. This time he did get a bit smarter, and didn't attack me in close range, he leaped him at a distance of three or four meters away from me, and sent a kick towards me.

Since he took the initiative to attack, I was no longer merciful, who made it so that he has such a bad memory? He was clearly a loser by my hands, yet still wanted to struggle against me. The moment I made a move, I firmly caught Li Shaojie's foot, and used a bit of strength to throw him landing, causing him to land five or six meters away at the edge of the ski field.

There wasn't much snow there, so it must have been quite a bit for that Li Shaojie to suffer.

"Li Shaojie, you lost," I pointed to Li Shaojie, who was far away, and said without emotions.

Li Shaojie struggled a bit, as if wanting to say something, but his body immediately felt pain, causing his expression to twist, and so he only stared at me with a poisonous gaze.

I ignored him, turned around and said to Zhao Yanyan and co., "Let's go to ski."

Zhao Yanyan asked while worriedly pointing at Li Shaojie, "Is he alright?"

"He's fine, he won't die. Didn't you see that he can still move," I said casually. Dealing with Li Shaojie didn't cause me much, I just taught him a lesson. I won't do stuff like killing people, if I really caused some sort of shit, even Zhao Yanyan's grandpa wouldn't stand on my side.

Although Chen Weier was worried, her face was bright red, could it be that this chick likes to watch me fight? I remember she was also like that at Liu Zhenhai's place, she got so excited from my fight with the bodyguards.

I pulled Zhao Yanyan and Weier, then found a rather isolated slope that wasn't very steep. The snow was also rather thick. This is the edge of the ski field, although there were any boundaries, but a bit further was the cliff with no one there. The place we were at was rather safe, it was unlike the center of the ski field, where the snow has already turned hard.

"Weier, be a bit more careful, and try to move slowly on this slope, I'll hold you," I reached out my hand and said to Weier. Actually the number one thing that people avoided during skiing was pulling someone, if one of them was a newbie that doesn't know how to ski, then when he falls, so would the other person.

"I..." Weier was still terrified, and didn't move a single step forward. People with a fear of heights normally wouldn't be good at balancing, Weier was the same, and kept on trembling.

"How about this, Weier, I'll demonstrate it for you!" Seeing Weier stand in the slow as if she was suffering, I helplessly shook my head, and said to Zhao Yanyan. "Yanyan, hold Weier, don't let her fall."

"Weier, look, like this, keep the ski boards parallel, first take a step at a time and move forward slowly, the Li Shaojie just now might now know how to ski, but he did well!" I demonstrated to Chen Weier with a smile.

Hearing I mention Li Shaojie, Weier immediately recalled that idiotic walking posture, and started laughing. The atmosphere also relaxed quite a bit. Under Zhao Yanyan and my help, Chen Weier started to be able to move forward slowly, at the end, she no longer needed our help.

I then taught Weier several simple moves, Chen Weier was not dumb, its just that her balance was a little poor. After several trials, she already familiarized herself with the movements. After that was plow gliding and plow turning, these were all basic movements in skiing, I demonstrated them one by one for Chen Weier.

About an hour something later, Chen Weier no longer needed Zhao Yanyan and my help and started gliding on the slope by herself.

“Let’s fine a slightly steeper slope to practice,” Zhao Yanyan suggested. We were just there to coach Weier anyway, this kind of gentle slope had no challenge for a master like Zhao Yanyan.

“Let’s not go?” I said worriedly looking at Chen Weier.

“It’s alright, I also want to try,” Chen Weier already abandoned her fright then, and was fully enjoying the fun skiing brought .

I checked out the surroundings. The slope was at the edge of the ski field, the cliff wasn’t far away. If we don’t intentionally move over there, we wouldn’t be in much danger.

Zhao Yanyan finally relaxed her shoulders, and started skiing. She smiled to me, then skied down first.

“Want to try?” I said to Weier.

Chen Weier looked down, and was overcome with a sense of dizziness. She clenched her teeth and said softly to me, “Liu Lei, can you hold me?”

“Okay!” I happily held Weier’s hand, this was the result I wanted.

With my support, Weier started slowly gliding down the mountain.

“Fuck your mom, you two bitches, a dog couples, go and die!” Suddenly Li Shaojie’s hateful voice ran out behind us, right after that, I felt a powerful force that was pushed towards Chen Weier and I!

I immediately lost my balance, but was still able to remain a hint of calmness, I quickly stuck the ski stick in the ground to maintain my balance, but Chen Weier wasn’t as calm as me, her body immediately fell.

“Screw you mom, I don’t believe you won’t die!”

I tried with all my might to hold Weier when I felt a heavy kick behind me, I instantly fell, and fell down the slope with Chen Weier, and rolled towards the slope...

Since the force Chen Weier and I had to withstand wasn't equal, Chen Weier fell down first, and thus we actually slid down towards Chen Weier's side! That side was the cliff of Xixing Mountain, the cliff was only several tens of meters away! Chen Weier and I were still rolling down unstoppably!

If I let go of Chen Weier's hand, then I could potentially change the direction I was sliding down, but I didn't do that. I couldn't live alone and leave Chen Weier! Seeing the cliff approach closer and closer, a thought flashed across my mind: Was Chen Weier and I really going to fall to our deaths here today?

Heh, I closed my eyes! I don't believe it, would my old bro Yama would really let me die this easily?

Chapter 112 – In The Nick Of Time

However, in an instant I felt the lack of all resistances around my body, which had turned into the sound of the wind, I lost consciousness...

When I came to my senses, I noticed my entire body was beyond sore, I couldn't feel my limbs at all. I couldn't even use my hands. Could it be... that I lost my limbs?

I instinctively opened my eyes, good, my arm was still firmly growing from my body. Chen Weier was laying on top of me at the moment, causing my limbs to have remained in the same position for a long time, leading to an inadequate supply of blood their, thus it felt numb.

Where was I? Were the two of us dead? However I immediately refuted this idea. I had died once already, and know what the underworld is like, this clearly wasn't it. That means that we were still alive.

When I recalled what happened, the first thing I felt was regret, at such a dangerous moment, I actually forgot about my superpower, if I used it just now, Chen Weier and I definitely wouldn't have fallen off the cliff.

However regret is useless, the most urgent issue right now is to hurry up and discover where I am. I turned my head around to the side and looked, then was immediately shocked! I was actually right beside the cliff! At that moment I was still lying on the tree branch of a huge tree with Chen Weier! Behind us was a cliff of several hundred meters.

I was wondering why didn't I die, so I got hung on a tree! Or else even if I am sworn brothers with Yama, it wouldn't have been easy to escape death.

I couldn't helped but be covered in cold sweat! This Li Shaojie was really merciless, if Chen Weier and I really fell to our deaths, he would definitely have committed murder!

Weier didn't respond. I continued calling several more times, but there was still no reply. Could Weier have died? A terrible thought surfaced in my mind.

Impossible! Weier fell on me, if anyone should be dead it's me, Weier definitely fainted! Thinking to that point, I immediately calmed down, and turned my head to look at Weier's face, but Weier had with her face towards the sky, it was possible to see her face from my position.

I reached my hand, and placed before Weier's chest, on her bulging breasts. However I swear I definitely wasn't acting indecent, I just wanted to test for Weier's heartbeat. I admit the time I took was slightly longer, but I was definitely serious! Thank god, Weier's heart rate was normal, she might have fainted from fright.

The current situation was definitely very dangerous, I could feel the branches shaking and hear "zhizhi" sounds when ever the wind blew. I couldn't be sure that this tree could continue to withstand it all and not snap!

I calmed my inner self and looked surveyed the surroundings. This tree was grown from a boulder on the cliff, and that boulder became a small platform!

My whole body was stiff from being blown by the cold wind, that place would be a rather good shelter if I could get on that platform! If I just continued to stay on the branch, even if it doesn't snap, we would freeze to our deaths sooner or later.

Thinking about that, I shook Chen Weier's body a few times, "Weier, wake up! Or else we would freeze to our death!"

It might have because of my larger actions and worked up voice this time, Chen Weier actually reacted!

"Liu Leo... Is it you?" Chen Weier asked weakly.

"It's me, Weier, we got flung off the cliff!" I said.

"Did we die? Where is this? The underworld?" Chen Weier asked meekly.

“We didn’t die! We got hung on a branch! Weier are you okay? Can you move? We have to quickly think of a way to leave this tree!” The moment Chen Weier moved, I heard the sound of the branches creaking underneath me.

“Ah... Sorry,” Chen Weier also noticed she was on top of me right now. “Are you alright?”

“I’m fine, but Weier, there is something I have to say to you!” I said seriously.

“What is it?!” Weier was scared by me.

“You should lose weight!” I laughed terribly.

“You’re terrible~! Look at what time it is, you still have the heart to crack jokes!” Weier pouted then wanted to turn around and hit me.

The branches beneath me started resisting, scaring Weier so much that she stopped off her movements, and then she looked at me with a pale face, her legs also turned around to press down upon me, the posture was extremely ambiguous, it was like the normal position with the girl on top and the guy on the bottom! However Chen Weier didn’t dare to casually move, she just continued riding on top of me ambiguously. Furthermore, her stomach was also pressing down on my lower body.

Having been stimulated, I immediately had a reaction... Don’t say something like having these thoughts even in danger, this was a normal biological reaction!

Chen Weier also felt my reaction, how could an eighteen years old girl not understand! Her pale cheeks immediately had a hint of redness. What’s worse was that I couldn’t even move under these circumstances.

“Sorry...” I said apologetically.

“...” Chen Weier shook her head helplessly, her entire face revealed how shy she was, but also how she was unable to do anything.

With this extra scene, I only felt like my entire body was boiling, the original stiffness completely disappeared! Looking at Chen Weier’s bright red cheeks, I feel like she also felt like that right now! My lower body was furiously poking at her stomach, if she didn't react like that, then I should start suspecting if she was actually a woman.

"Still cold?" I asked with a smile.

"..." Weier still didn't say anything, but she shook her head.

"Try to move a bit right now, and see if we can switch a position! I will think of a way to climb up from the tree, or else we would both fall later when the tree snaps!" I said.

"En..." Weier nodded, and started slowing up my body, unfortunately, her stomach actually slid up and down from that area!

Waves of pleasure assault me, an absurd thought actually popped up in my head, and that's how amazing it would be to XX on his branch! However that was just a thought for a split second before I waved it away, doing that was definitely looking to die!

I quickly calmed my heart, and my lower body gradually softened.

Chen Weier also felt my change, and smiled at me with a red face, then carefully slid to my side, I finally could move my body!

I first sat up, untied the ski boards at my feet, then threw them away, I wasted 600 something kuai to buy these stuff. However I couldn't care too much right now, nothing is more important than living. I then helped Chen Weier untie it, and threw them down.

After doing all that, I carefully grabbed hold of the branch beside me, then slowly inched downwards, it was fortunate that I went rock climbing before in my previous life, so it could be said that I climbed up the tree with ease.

I finally followed the tree trunk and climbed down, and stepped onto the rock! The feeling of safety was so good, although I was someone that had died once, but the feeling of being alive was great!

Chapter 113 – Are We Going To Die?

I waved towards Chen Weier and called, “Weier, come down here as well!”

“I-I’m scared!” Chen Weier hugged the tree trunk and said while trembling, “I-I feel so scared after you went down, I-I won’t fall down right?”

“Of course you won’t, hold tight, and slowly crawl towards me, it’ll be fine if you’re careful,” I comforted her and said.

Hearing my words, Chen Weier carefully moved a bit, then immediately stopped, she said to me in a crying tone, “Liu Lei... I’m scared! I don’t dare to move!”

Ai~! I sigh, there’s no helping it, I could only say, “Weier, don’t move, wait for me to go over!”

I took off the redundant arm guards and knee guards, then crawled on the branch of the huge tree once again. With the experience just now, I managed to climb up much easier.

“Weier, give me your hands!” I said to Chen Weier, and reached a hand over.

Chen Weier carefully reached her hand over, and pulled me firmly. I carefully walked backwards, a step at a time, while Chen Weier also moved slowly with my pace.

I was very careful, and tried to flatten my body, in fear of this tree snapping under our combined weight. Although I was already really slow, the entire tree branch still creaked under Weier and my pressure, and wobbled up and down.

At the very moment when one of my foot was about to reach the boulder, I heard a crack, and the entire tree branch snapped. Chen Weier and I fell down with the branch.

The two of us dangled by the cliff falling the snapping of the branch, luckily, the branch didn't completely snap, there were still some fibres that were connected with the bark, although it wouldn't snap in the short term, but it definitely wasn't far off from snapping.

I difficulty pulled the branch with my right hand, and Chen Weier with my left as I dangled in mid air.

I tried, but I couldn't muster up any strength with one hand, not to mention I still had to pull Chen Weier.

“Weier, can you hug me? I can't use any strength with one hand!” I said to Chen Weier.

“Liu Lei, release me, don't care about me! Neither of us can get up if you do this!” Chen Weier also noticed the severity of the situation, and calmed down quite a lot.

“No, how can I leave you!” Originally I wanted to get Chen Weier to hug me, but from the looks of it, I really can't let go, god knows if this chick would jump down once I let go.

“Liu Lei, leave me, if you die, Yanyan-meimei will be really sad!” Chen Weier complained.

“No! I definitely cannot just leave you!” I said with assurance, without giving her any space of negeotiation.

“But...” Chen Weier frowned.

“Weier, hold onto me tightly with both hands, if you release yourself, I can very responsibly tell you that I will jump down with you!” I ordered resolutely.

“Ai...!” Chen Weier sighed, and slowly moved one hand to my waist, held tight, then very slowly released my hand. Finally both of her hands were tightly holding onto my waist.

I let out a sigh of relief, “Weier, hold tight, I'm going to start climbing now.”

“En. Be careful,” Chen Weier said quietly. “Why didn’t you just leave me...”

“Because, I will not permit the ones I love to leave me!” In the brink of death, I couldn’t think too much, and declared truthfully.

I could clearly feel like that Chen Weier’s body suddenly trembled, and the hands held me even tighter. I took a deep breath, and started using all my strength to climb up. Two meters... One meter, I was about to reach the edge of the snapped branch! I joyfully sped up my actions, but an accident occurred, I didn’t think that at the nick of the moment, the branch snapped not even twenty centimeters in front of my eyes. With a crack, alongside the infinite snow on the branch, Chen Weier and my body hastily fell.

I helplessly released my hands, and wrapped it around Chen Weier’s hand around my waist. The next moment, perhaps I would once again met my old bro Yama!

I only felt Chen Weier and I accelerate downwards, due to its weight, that branch accelerated slower than Chen Weier and I, I could clearly see it spinning on top of my head.

All of a second, my mind was incomparably clear, the fear in my heart was swept away. Death was so real to me, and so close! However I couldn’t be more clear about the result, and that’s another meeting with my old bro Yama, I wonder what he would think when he sees me again.

“Liu Lei, I love you!” Chen Weier suddenly shouted loudly. “I love you!”

Chen Weier smiled, her tears sky in the air and became shiny droplets of water that flew in the air. The moment before her death, she finally spoke out that feeling that has long been buried in her heart, she had nothing more to hide from death, and no more regrets. Dying with her loved one, is that not one sort of happiness?

“Weier, we definitely won’t die!” At that moment, I felt that intense feeling from Chen Weier, which ignited hope within my heart once more. Fuck, even something so lucky as getting reborn happened to me, how could I so easily roll over?

Chen Weier didn't answer me, and just held me tightly. I also closed my eyes, and enjoyed the warmth of the moment.

A hundred meters, fifty meters, the ground was already extremely clear, Chen Weier and I still maintained the extremely fast falling speed. There was no hope, after we hit the ground, Weier and I would definitely die.

"Weier, if there is an underworld, would you marry me?" In the last moment of my life, I said to Chen Weier.

"En... I will," Chen Weier also knew that we were about to die. However she didn't know that we would be brought to the underworld after we die. Although we would need to be wandering spirits for a very long time, but with old bro Yama looking over me, I was royalty in the underworld, being an awesome ghost wasn't bad, not to mention that I have Weier accompanying me.

With a "pa" sound, Chen Weier fell onto the ground first, then it was me. Just when I closed my eyes to peacefully welcome death, the freezing cold pierced through my body!

I sneezed, and my entire person cleared up a lot. So we didn't die, what was underneath our feet wasn't land, but water. The land we saw was actually a very thin layer of ice on the water!

Due to the impact, Weier and I quickly fell into the water, the lake water was freezing cold, and the current was swift. Weier's face was completely red due to choking on water.

However I managed to hold my breath at the critical moment, although the lake water was cold, I had the experience of winter swimming in my previous life, so it wasn't anything special, I relaxed a bit, and got used to it.

Chapter 114 – Living After Death

I held Weier tightly, and furiously swam towards the lake surface, however right on top of my head was no longer the place we fell down from, but a thick layer of ice! That ice hold had long disappeared.

So the lake had already pushed us somewhere. Luckily I took a deep breath before falling into the lake, or else I would be like Weier. I withstood the numbness that freezing lake water brought to my body, and held Chen Weier tightly, allowing the current to push us forward. I had one belief at the time, and that's as long as the lake had current, it was running water, as long as it was running water, then we can definitely find the exit.

But gradually, as the time passed by, the lack of oxygen caused my consciousness to blur...

When I woke up again, I noticed everything was pitch dark in front of my eyes, Chen Weier was still tightly embraced by me. Although my lower body was still soaked in icy water, my upper body was exposed in air. My first reaction was that, we're saved!

My eyes gradually got accustomed to the darkness in front of my eyes, I found out that we were in someplace like a cave, and yet the innermost of the cave was a body of water, which I was in. Clearly, this cave and the river at the body of Xixing Mountain is linked!

I dragged Weier out of the water, and leaned her against a boulder, then continued to pat her back. Chen Weier coughed up all of the dirty water in the stomach with a "wa" sound, then started coughing a lot. Luckily she didn't choke on anything like sand, or else she would have to go to the hospital.

After a while, when Chen Weier stopped coughing, I held her in my arms. I checked and saw that Weier started breathing again. Then after a while, Chen Weier's body moved.

“Weier, how are you doing?” I asked anxiously.

“I... Liu Lei, are you Liu Lei?” Chen Weier asked in a very worked up tone after hearing my voice.

“I am, Weier, how are you feeling?” I patted Chen Weier’s back to get to her calm down.

“Liu Lei, where are we? Why is it pitch dark? Is-Is this the underworld?” Chen Weier exclaimed in shock.

I suddenly felt playful and wanted to make fun of Weier, so I pretended to be serious and said, “Yes, Weier, we’re already died! We didn’t use up our life, and so we count as accidental deaths, therefore we can’t get reincarnated yet, just now Yama has already sent us to the edge of the underworld, we have to spend fifty years here before getting reincarnated!”

“Oh!” To my surprise, Chen Weier didn’t show any extreme emotions, there was actually a hint of snicker in her tone. “So the underworld really is real!”

“I’m not. What’s there to be afraid of by your side? What’s more... What’s more I have already promised to marry you after dying, you can’t be going back on your word not right?” Chen WEier leaned close to me and said obediently.

Only then did I remember, right before we “died”, I once proposed to Weier, and Weier also agreed. Now that I lied to Chen Weier and said that we have died, this chick would naturally think that we are in the underworld.

“How could that be, Weier, I can’t like you enough!” I happily hugged Chen Weier. I didn’t think that this life and death situation caused the barrier between Chen Weier and I to shatter, and allowed us to open our hearts to each other.

“Hubby, I’m a bit cold,” Chen Weier slowly said to me.

I didn't think that Chen Weier actually called me hubby! Haha, old bro Yama, you are taking care of me too much, this life and death situation was organized well!

However, now that Chen Weier mentioned it, I felt the freezing cold all over my body, although the temperature of the cave was clearly higher than elsewhere, but wearing a completely soaked ski suit definitely was not something comfortable.

"Let's walk forward, and see if we can find the exit," I pointed to the area in front where there was a tiny bit of light.

"Exit? What's the point of finding the exit?" Chen Weier asked weirdly.

"Of course it's to see if we can get saved, unless we really stay in this damn place for a life time! My good wife!" I held Chen Weier up from my body.

"Saved? Aren't we dead?" Chen Weier opened her eyes wide in confusion and asked.

"I was just tricking you, I, your hubby, is so fortunate, how could I die? Am I right, my dear wife!" I said with a smile.

"Don't call me wife," Chen Weier suddenly said coldly.

However in the darkness, I could still see a hint of sadness in her eyes, "Weier, what is it?" I walked over, and walked to embrace her. However she pushed me away.

"Don't touch me. Since we aren't dead, then we have no relationship," Chen Weier forcefully said coldly, then choked.

Until the faint light, tears already covered Chen Weier's face.

"Weier, what happened to do?" I exclaimed in shock, and lightly caressed Weier's cheeks, wanting to wipe away the tears on her face.

Chen Weier didn't struggle anymore, she just stood there, without moving. Her tears just kept on flowing.

I wanted to convince Weier, but I wasn't sure of how to say it. I didn't think my little joke would cause such a hug reaction from Weier... Did Weier really have to die before showing her true feelings to me?

“Weier! Even if we haven’t died, but what’s the difference? We don’t even know what kind of person this is, we don’t know if we could get out either, even if we don’t die, we’ll starve to death sooner or later here!” I shouted loudly, then forcefully held Weier in my embrace regardless of if Weier resisted.

Chen Weier quietly allowed me to hold her, without resisting, she just dipped her head, her face occasional tensed. I don’t know if this was what Weier wanted in her heart, and could not see Weier’s expression.

“You’re right, perhaps... Perhaps we’ll really die here,” after a while, Weier lifted her head from my embrace, and said quietly beside my year.

“Weier, then you agree to be my wife?” I said happily. I could tell, Weier already thought it through.

“En, if we really can’t get out, then we... we...” Saying that, Weier already buried her head in my chest, and became so quiet that I could hear her even in this silent cave.

“Weier, what are you saying?” I couldn’t hear what Weier was saying to me no matter how hard I tried.

“Nothing, it doesn’t matter if you didn’t hear it,” Chen Weier said shyly. “However I just said that it’s under the condition that we can’t get out, let’s go and find the exit.”

Chapter 115 – A Lone Island

“Okay,” I nodded, however I still thought in my head, I need to find a way to hide it even if we really find the exit later.

I held Chen Weier’s hand and walked slowly over to the other side of the cave where there was light. The cave was really dark, but the ground underneath us was really flat, and it didn’t use much energy for us to walk.

“What is that!” Weier suddenly stopped in her tracks, hid behind me, and pointed to the area in front where blue light was being released. “Ghost...!”

Ai, she’s such a girl! She had thought she had already turned into a ghost just now, yet now she’s beginning to be scared of ghosts. However I wasn’t scared at all in my heart, what’s there to be afraid of, I’m Yama’s sworn little brother, isn’t any ghost that starts getting pretentious in front of me asking for death?

I looked over in the direction Chen Weier was pointing towards, as expected, there was something glowing with blue light not far away. Haha, I can’t have bumped into some sort of diamond or other worldly treasure right?

“Weier, stand here and don’t move, I’ll go take a look first,” I said to Chen Weier who was behind me. I quickly walked in front of the blue light, squatted down, and took a closer examination, then got shocked. The illuminating thing was actually a skull! On the side of the skull was a pile of white bones. I angrily sent the skull flying with a kick and swore, fuck this, I thought I got some treasure, I didn’t expect it to be so demotivating.

“What was that?” Chen Weier asked weirdly after seeing I made the thing disappear with a kick.

“Oh... It’s a pile of animal bones,” I thought about it, it was better to not tell Chen Weier that they were human bones, to prevent this chick from getting frightened.

“Then why was there blue light?” Chen Weier asked in confusion.

“That blue light is actually phosphorus flames, there are a lot of phosphorus in animal bones. After the animal dies, the corpse will decay, then chemical reactions will occur. Phosphorus will turn from phosphorus acid to phosphorus gas. Phosphorus gas is in gas state, and has a very low boiling point, it will ignite under normal temperatures upon contact with air. After phosphorus gas is created and ignited, blue light will appear, which is the normal will-o'-the-wisp that we normally see!” It couldn't be helped, so I explained scientific knowledge that I have seen on the internet in my previous life.

“So it's like this! Liu Lei, how do you know so much? Sometimes when I'm with you, I feel like I'm your meimei, sometimes I'm not even as matured as Yanyan-meimei,” Chen Weier murmured.

Hearing Yanyan's name, my heart suddenly sank. She must have heard the news about Weier and I falling down the cliff right? She must be really worried now right? This is the girl I love most my entire life, and finally became my lover after I got reborn, thinking to that point, I had no mind to think about the ploy to trick Weier into staying in this cave.

I took out my mobile phone from my ski suit, and turned it on. It really could turn on, I felt a sense of joy. The quality of this block was great, it could still be used even after being soaked in water for so long.

It looks like the components wouldn't immediately oxidize after the phone is placed in water during winter. It could still be used for some time after the water dried!

I waited for a long while, and still didn't notice the signal symbol appear on the mobile phone screen. Fuck, there isn't a signal in this cave! Simulation net just doesn't do it, thinking about how China Mobile's GSM already have internet coverate even on the seas, allowing people to read novels with their phones even on boats, now... I still have to wait several years.

I helplessly shut down the mobile phone, and placed it back into my pocket. I'll see if there's signal if we really find the exit later.

I pulled Chen Weier and went over the pile of human bones, and Chen Weier didn't look at them closely. However even if she did, she probably wouldn't notice anything in the darkness, the most obvious skull has already been kicked away by me like a ball.

The more we walked forward, the lower the temperature felt to me, I could even feel slight breezes. It seems like it's very likely that there's an exit in front! As expected, after we walked another several hundred meters, and took a turn, brightness appeared before our eyes, we would clearly see that not far in front of us was an exit, and the sun outside of the exit was shining brightly.

Chen Weier and I looked at each other, then smiled, we were a bit surprised, but felt a bit helpless. Surprise because we might be saved, helpless because it was as Chen Weier said, perhaps we can't be together if we walk out of this cave. Although I was very confused about why Chen Weier was only willing to reveal her feelings to me in death, the one I thought about right now was still Zhao Yanyan.

I quickly ran over to the cave entrance, but the scene before my eyes wasn't very optimistic! In front of our eyes was still a scene of ice. In other words, we might be on an island in the river.

Chen Weier also saw the scene in front, and sighed, then said slowly to me, "Liu Lei, what is it? Why do I feel like you aren't very happy?"

I smiled wryly, then shook my head and said, "How could I be unhappy? Now that we can't leave here, you will be my wife, I can't be even more happy!"

Chen Weier frowned after hearing that, "You're lying!" She thought about it for a moment, then suddenly said, "I know, are you missing Yanyan-meimi?"

Seeing that I couldn't hide it, I could only nod. I took out the mobile phone from my pocket, it was still not in service range. I sighed, then placed the mobile phone on the side, it looks like this thing isn't of much use.

“Let’s get to the other side of the island, to see if there’s any way out,” Chen weier suggested after seeing my troubled expression.

“Okay,” I stood up, and walked towards the other side of the island with Chen Weier.

This island itself wasn’t big, after we walked around the cave just now, the other side of the cave was shown in front of our eyes. This is a lone island. Perhaps we really can’t return! I couldn’t help but recall the white skeleton in the cave, was that person the same as us? I couldn’t help but shudder, starvation and the cold were not joyous matters.

“Let’s go back to the cave, having our whole body soaked isn’t good!” I said to Chen Weier.

“Okay,” Chen Weier obedient followed behind me, like a little wife. This couldn’t make help but make me wonder if this chick is starting to fulfill her promise? Thinking to that, my mood brightened. A human life should be enjoyed, since it has come, then let it be.

I held Chen Weier’s hand and quickly walked towards the cave entrance.

“Weier, let’s collect some things like branches etc., the most important thing right now is to dry our clothes, or else we’ll catch a cold sooner or later,” I pointed at the leaves and branches on the ground.

With Weier’s cooperation, we quickly collected a large pile of branches in the cave. However how were we supposed to start a fire? This was really an issue. Oh yeah, I’ve read it in history books before that people in ancient times started fire with sticks, why don’t I have a go?

Chapter 116 – Lighting A Fire With A Phone

I found a similarly dry and hard wooden stick, and started drilling on a branch. I would still stand it when we started, but after a while, even though my hand was starting to burn, the two still didn't have a hint of flames at all.

“Let me try!” From the start, Chen Weier sat interestedly on the side, and watched me drill the stick like an ancient person. Seeing that I was tired, she asked to help.

I handed the stick to Chen Weier, raised my hand and looked, two large blisters have appeared on my hand. Who said you can start fire by drilling wood, isn't that just tricking people? I wonder whether those people that write textbooks have tried it themselves or not.

Chen Weier didn't even do as well as me, she started frowning very quickly.

“Never mind, starting a fire by drilling is most likely a lie,” I snatched over the stick still in Chen Weier's hands, threw it on the side, then said furiously.

What other methods are there to start a fire? Magnifying glass, don't have. Fire powder, don't have. Electricity... oh yeah, electricity can be used to start a fire! I exclaimed excitedly and ran out of the cave, found my mobile phone still on the floor, picked it up, took out the battery, then ran back to the cave.

It looks like this mobile phone isn't completely useless!

I took off the metal portion of the holder on the skill shoes, and bent it into an arc. Then I placed the mobile phone battery in the middle of a pile of sticks, and carefully placed the arc-shaped metal on the positive and negative end of the battery.

“Weier, run,” I pulled Weier, and ran towards the opposite side.

After a while, the smoke started rising from the battery, and with a “pa” sound, light flashed everywhere. The battery was on fire! The surrounding branches also started burning.

“Hurray!” I said happily. Then I ran over and used a stick to flip the branches, causing the flames to burn more furiously.

“Liu Lei, I really admire you now, you even managed to think of this method,” Chen Weier looked at that mobile phone battery with regret.

“Still calling me Liu Lei?” I smiled naughtily towards the beauty beside me.

“Hubby...” Under the illumination of the flames, Chen Weier’s cheeks was infinitely beautiful.

I ran outside the cave again to gather a pile of spare branches, luckily this sort of thing was everywhere on the lone island in winter. This was crucial, or else we’ll be fucked if the fire gets extinguished, there is only one battery for the mobile phone.

After doing all this, I took off my ski suit, and placed it near the fire, then said to Chen Weier, “Weier, take off your clothes too.”

Chen Weier also took off her ski suit, handed it to me and said, “But the clothes inside are also wet?”

“En, take off the clothes inside later after the jackets are dried, then we’ll hide inside the jackets,” I received the clothes Chen Weier handed me, and placed it beside the fire as well.

“Achoo!” Chen Weier suddenly sneezed.

“Weier, come sit over here, closer to the fire,” I immediately said. It would be terrible if she catches a cold. Even with my excellent body conditions, I am freezing, not to mention Chen Weier.

Due to me continuously adding wood to the fire, the fire was burning well, within a short while, our jackets have been dried. I first placed one of them on the ground not far away from the fire, then placed the other one on the top, and started to strip. When I strip till just my underwear, Chen Weier suddenly exclaimed, ‘What-what are you doing?’

“Of course I’m getting into the coat after stripping!” I pointed to the jacket that has been placed onto the floor like a blanket and said.

“Then... Then what about me?” Chen Weier gazed at the blanket blankly.

“Take off your clothes and come in together,” I said. Although I was very natural with my words, my heart was rather dirty.

“I...” Chen Weier blushed and couldn’t say anything.

“Strip quickly, let’s get into this jacket when its still warm. Or else what are we going to do when you catch a cold?” I hurried her, then started stripping my underwear.

“Then-Then don’t look at me,” Chen Weier clenched her teeth, and said after making her decision. At this moment, Chen Weier’s feelings were very conflicted, but once she recalled that she has promised to be his wife, it’s no big deal hugging him after stripping.

“Okay, then I’ll get in first, hurry,” saying that, I took off my underwear, and climbed into the “blanket”. It was rather warm inside, and it felt great.

Chen Weier took off her clothes beside the fireplace, with her back towards me. When she stripped till her underwear, I felt that she clearly hesitated, but still stripped it in the end.

The moment Chen Weier took off her vest, her snow white skin dazzled me a little. Weier’s skin was actually more white than Yanyan’s, but it wasn’t that kind of sickly pale, rather, it was a glistening type of white, as if it was soaked in milk.

“Close your eyes,” Weier suddenly said to me.

I knew that Weier was about to enter, although I really wanted to take a look at the beauty in front of Weier’s chest, I still “en” and closed my eyes. Since Weier could do this, that means that she isn’t far from being my woman. I have no need to be impatient right now.

The moment I closed my eyes, I felt an icy body climb in. I turned around, and hugged Weier into my embrace. Weier's cold body writhed in my embrace, but I don't know if it was due to her being cold or being worked up, Chen Weier's breathing hastened.

"Weier..." I called quietly

"En..." The beauty in my embrace answered blurrily.

Chen Weier's skin was very smooth, I found it really hard to imagine that a girl that had to man a stall on the streets in all types of weather could have such nice skin.

"Ah..." Weier moaned, but she didn't stop my movements. This made me become more daring, I turned around and completely pulled Weier into my arms.

"En... No..." Weier panted, and said blurrily.

I swallowed a mouthful of saliva, and gazed at Weier's fiery red lips that had just opened, and kissed down without hesitation.

"Mmm...: At the start, Chen Weier was still resisting, and kept on shaking her head, but how could I spit out something that I have already placed into my mouth! Gradually Weier's resist became quiet moans, the last line of defense of her mouth gradually opened for me, I immediately stuck my tongue in through Weier's teeth.

Although Weier was new to this, it was a different sort of feeling. Weier's movements made me even more excited, just like the impatience when a big bad wolf wants to eat a cute bunny...

Chapter 117 – Lend me Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand

“Ouch...” Chen Weier shouted, then quickly sat up. The intense pain caused Chen Weier to awake from the lust.

“Weier, what is it?” I looked worriedly at the beauty with a face of confusion.

“Liu Lei, can you promise me one thing?” Chen Weier suddenly said seriously.

“What thing?” Don’t say one thing right now, even if it’s a hundred things, even if you ask me to pick the sun from the sky, I would be willing to do it.

“If... I’m saying if we can get out of here alive, can you lend me two hundred and fifty thousand?” Chen Weier hesitated a bit, then slowly said it out. From the period of contact they had, she knew that the person in front of her was very rich, but she did not know exactly how rich, two hundred and fifty thousand was not a small number.

“Sure,” I agreed without thinking, I was couldn’t wait anymore, if I wait, I will die. What’s more, isn’t it just two hundred and fifty thousand! No matter what Chen Weier wants the money for, it was only a number to me.

“Liu Lei, I’m serious! Can you really lend me two hundred and fifty thousand? It’s two hundred and fifty thousand!” Chen Weier thought that I didn’t think about it and just casually answered after seeing my reaction was so fast. Therefore, she intentionally emphasized the phrase two hundred and fifty thousand.

“Don’t walk about two hundred and fifty thousand, even five hundred thousand is fine,” I nodded, and reached out my hand to push Weier down again.

“You can’t lie to me!” Weier smiled, flipped around, straddled across me and said, "Liu Lei... I love you!"

The cave was freezing, but Chen Weier and my body were burning hot. We held each other, both panting, while gazing at each other.

Chen Weier smiled, then silently laid on my chest, tears flowed from her eyes and splashed across my chest.

"Weier, why," after a while, I asked Weier after seeing that her mood has calmed down.

"Because-Because I love you! It's true, Liu Lei, I love you so much!" Chen Weier said while crying tears of happiness. "I finally became your wife."

"Weier, what exactly happened?" Was the Chen Weier in front of my eyes still the Chen Weier I know?

"Perhaps-Perhaps we can't live for that much longer, I want to give myself to you before I die, only then will I have no more regrets in this world!" Chen Weier said passionately.

"However... Doesn't it hurt?" This was the most important question.

"How does it not hurt, you meanie... It hurts so much!" Chen Weier pounded her first on my body. "Hubby, why don't a feel a tiny bit of the pleasure from doing... doing that sort of stuff!"

"Idiot girl, a woman's first time will always hurt, not to mention how crazy you were!" Chen Weier actually started acting spoiled with me, this means that Chen Weier has already placed down the burden in her heart.

"How-How would I know... You didn't tell me," Chen Weier complained with a frown.

"I wanted to tell you, but you told me not to speak!" I said as if I was wronged.

"..." Chen Weier blushed shyly and got afraid to look at me.

"Weier..." I lightly called.

“En,” Chen Weier answered quietly.

“When did you start liking me?” I held Weier in my arms and caressed her smooth skin.

“I don’t know, probably that time you randomly stood up to scold my gege! I started to feel like you were really interesting,” Chen Weier pressed her palm against mine, and said shyly.

“Oh? Then why did you still tell me to promise that I don’t like you?” I suddenly thought of the strange request Chen Weier had before.

“Don’t you want to ask me why I want to borrow two hundred and fifty thousand from you?” Chen Weier asked slowly.

“Two hundred and fifty thousand? Oh, right, you seem to have said to that wanted two hundred and fifty thousand,” getting reminded by her, I suddenly recalled that this chick asked me to borrow two hundred and fifty thousand when I was in heat.

“Ah! You can’t have answered me perfunctorily right... Crap, crap, let’s spend an entire life in this cave!” Chen Weier said anxiously.

“Relax, you are my wife now, this little bit of money doesn’t matter, as long as we can get out, I’ll immediately get the money for you,” I explained.

“Really?” Chen Weier said happily, then she suddenly turned serious. “Liu Lei, would you think that I sold myself to your for two hundred and fifty thousand?”

“How could I!” I denied subconsciously.

“No, listen to me! Actually I...” Chen Weier sighed in my arms. “Remember the hug I gave you that night?”

“Of course I remember!” I asked weirdly. Could it be that the fellow Chen Yong told Weier that I spent money to reserve her virginity?

“I said to you that I don’t like you and didn’t allow you to like me was because... because I don’t belong to myself anymore!” Chen Weier said with a bit of hesitation. “Because, in order to get my father treated, I already sold myself to someone else!”

I only understood it then, so it was this reason that the thin layer between Chen Weier and I wasn't poked through! Chen Yong, this bastard, did he not tell Weier my extra condition of “if she meets someone she truly likes then the agreement can be cancelled”? XX that XX, isn't that ruining my business!

“There's a boss, he used two hundred and fifty thousand and reserved my... my that, can you understand?” Chen Weier blushed and didn't say the embarrassing word “virginity” out in the end.

“I can understand,” I said. Bullshit, that boss is my, would I not know what I reserved?

“So-So I think that if we can really get out alive, I want to return this two hundred and fifty thousand to him!” Chen Weier continued.

“——“ Hearing Weier's words, I really didn't know how to answer, why do I feel so awkward about this situation, taking out two hundred and fifty thousand to return it to myself, it gave me a feeling of undermining myself.

“Liu Lei, what is it, do you feel that I —— two hundred and fifty thousand is too expensive ——” Seeing that I wasn't speaking, Chen Weier thought I felt a bit of heart ache for this two hundred and fifty thousand.

“How could I. That person was willing to spend two hundred and fifty thousand, how can your husband, I, do any worse!” I promised.

“However, I just don't know if that boss would cancel the agreement with my older brother,” Chen Weier said worriedly.

“No problem, since the two of us have cooked raw rice into cooked rice, what can he do if he was unwilling, worst come to worst, just throw him some money, let's just give him five hundred thousand!” I said shamelessly. I didn't need to worry about this either, because that boss was me, how could I cause trouble for myself? Unless I have a multiple personality disorder.

Of course I can't tell that to Weier right now.

Chapter 118 – I'll Be Honest

---

“Five hundred thousand?! Liu Lei, what does your family actually do! From your tone it's like you don't care at all! Also, where did you get so much money, how can your parents allow you to spend recklessly?” Chen Weier said in surprise.

“I... These are my New Year's money!” I randomly made up an excuse. I couldn't casually speak about my money making methods right now.

“New Year's money! God, Liu Lei, if I knew you were so rich what need was there for me to... to sell myself to that big boss!” Chen Weier sighed.

“But if I just took several hundred thousand and said I wanted to gift it to you, could you accept it?” This was what I cared about, or else I wouldn't transfer the money through Chen Weier's older brother.

“Ai...! Why am I so dumb,” Chen Weier said regretfully. “We have to apologize to that big boss when we get out.”

“Weier, there's no need, “ Seeing Chen Weier's painful expression, I couldn't help but speak. “You don't need to return that two hundred and fifty thousand to that big boss!”

“No need to return? Why?” Chen Weier opened her eyes wide and looked at me weirdly.

“Yes, no need to return!” I said solemnly. “Because, he already got what he reserved!”

“Got it? What happened?” Chen Weier said with a face full of disbelief.

“Because —— I am that big boss!” I said it word by word.

“What!? Liu Lei, what did you say?” Chen Weier raised her head up and exclaimed.

“That's right, I am the person that reserved your virginity, you already returned your body to it's original owner!” I said calmly.

“You... You...” All of a sudden, Chen Weier got so worked up that she couldn't say anything, and only looked at me in surprise.

"Weier, it's like this..." I told Chen Weier all about how I heard about Father Chen needing to do a surgery immediately, then found Chen Yong and then made that agreement with him, after that I told her the additional clause of "if she meets someone she really like the agreement can be cancelled".

Chen Weier had a face of confusion while hearing that, finally, she said quietly, "Why didn't you tell me earlier, this way we-we would already be together."

"I didn't want to get you with contemptable methods, this was also the reason I gave Chen Yong that additional condition. I hope my women all love me out of their hearts, and are not bound by other conditions!" I caressed Chen Weier's hair and said.

"However, my older brother didn't tell me that additional condition!" Chen Weier said like she was wronged.

"Then blame your brother, not completing what he was supposed to do!" This fucker Chen Yong, I'll deal with him when I get out, unable to make gain successes but more than enough to cause failures, he just keeps on causing trouble for me.

"Heh, you terrible person! This is karma, if you didn't tell my older brother than you wanted to reserve me, you might have gotten me already!" Chen Weier pouted.

"If I gave your older brother several hundred thousand without any conditions, ignoring whether if he believed it or not, even if I really gave him, would he dare to accept it?" I said.

"You're being irrational! You have ulterior motives from the beginning! You actually wanted to reserve... reserve my that," Chen Weier suddenly opened her mouth and bit my on my shoulders.

"Aiya... it hurts," I screamed.

"How does this hurt, my pain just now was pain," Chen Weier glared at me and said.

“Then do you want to hurt once again?” Underneath Chen Weier’s subtle tease, my lust built up, and there was a reaction down there again.

“I don’t want it, never again, I won’t do it anymore! There’s no pleasure at all,” Chen Weier pouted.

“Heh, it’s not your decision to make whether we do it or not, I already reserved you!” With that, I flipped around and pinned Chen Weier under my body.

“It’ll hurt!” Chen Weier kept on using her fists to resist my assault, and yelled. “Help...”

I don’t know why, I suddenly got unusually excepted, when we kissed just now. Chen Weier’s “Help” made my blood boil, could it be that I’m a kinky person?

“Hehe, beauty, even if you scream your throat out, no one will come and save you!” With that, I continued.

“En... Lighter,” Chen Weier suddenly said.

Ai, just as I found out the joy of role play, it was interrupted by Chen Weier’s soft words...

Chen Weier rested on my shoulders with the unique sexiness of a girl that turned into a woman, and subconsciously massaged my body with her hands.

“So.. So doing this sort of stuff, feels pretty good!” Chen Weier whispered in my ear.

“Wait till your body completely recovers, it’ll feel better,” I said lecherously.

“Hmmp! Oh yeah, hubby, tell me, who feels better for you between Yanyan-meimei and me?” Chen Weier suddenly blinked and asked naughtily.

“About this...” How was I supposed to answer!

“Heh! You just said that you like me just now, now you’re already going back on your words!” Chen Weier turned around, and ignored me.

“Hubby, are you angry?” Seeing that I didn’t say anything at all for along while, she turned back around and said worriedly. “I was just kidding with you, I don’t want to fight over anything with Yanyan-meimei, I was just kidding, I don’t know why I asked such a random question myself!”

“Weier, I know this might not be fair to you, having to share my love with other girls, but you and Yanyan’s positions in my heart on the same, there is no more or less. As for the feeling of having sex, the most important thing is with who, and not just for the enjoyment,” I embraced Chen Weier, and said full-heartedly.

“I know... However... However how am I supposed to face Yanyan-meimei in the future, I already went to steal her boyfriend!” Chen Weier sighed.

“You don’t have to worry about this. If Yanyan didn’t want me to accept you, she wouldn’t have always intentionally created opportunities for us. She would have thought of the fact that us too being always together would cause a problem sooner or later,” I said.

“Oh,” Chen Weier nodded. “But why do I feel so weird.”

“There’s nothing to worry about, after getting in contact with Yanyan more, you’ll notice that she’s easy to get along with,” I continued.

“Oh yeah, hubby, do you think I’ll get pregnant?” Chen Weier suddenly asked.

“About this... when did you have your period last?” This was definitely an issue, Zhao Yanyan took the emergency pills after doing it for the first time, but where was I supposed to find pregnancy pills in the middle of nowhere!

“En, it just finished the day before yesterday, why?” Chen Weier said shyly.

“The day before yesterday, it should be a safe day,” I thought about it and said.

“Oh,” Chen Weier nodded as if she understood, I think she doesn’t have much knowledge in this areas. Sex Education was completely from extra-curricular books or magazines.

Chapter 119 – Lost Blue

“Weier, let’s put on our clothes and find something to eat,” I suggested. We haven’t eaten for most of the day, and having done physical labor for such a long time just now, I was already starving.

Chen Weier and my clothes beside the fire had already dried, and it was very warm wearing it. Chen Weier wasn’t shy like she was earlier either, it’s just that her movements were a little not fluent. This was the aftereffects of just becoming a woman.

Xixing Mountain Ski field.

Zhao Junsheng and Jiang Yongfu hurried over after receiving the news of Liu Lei falling down the cliff.

“Yanyan, what exactly happened, don’t hurry, say it slowly,” Zhao Junsheng was also really anxious right now.

Li Shaojie was already brought onto the police car by Jiang Yongfu, and a few police that came to investigate were recording down the interrogation transcript.

“Dad, hurry up to send people to save Liu Lei!” Zhao Yanyan choked. “Him and Chen Weier were pushed down by that Li Shaojie!”

“Yanyan, your Uncle Jiang has already notified the fire brigade to go down and search, we might have news in a while,” Zhao Junsheng comforted.

“Li Shaojie, you have now wounded with intent, you must honestly answer every single one of our questions,” Police A said.

“I already said it... I didn’t want to murder... I didn’t do it on purpose... I just wanted to push him so he would do a somersault to teach him a lesson... I didn’t think that they would just fall down the cliff,” Li Shaojie said shakily, he didn’t think that it would cause such a severe consequence.

“I don’t care if you did it on purpose or not, it has already happened, you should now honestly tell us about the situation just now!” Police B said.

I didn’t know at the time that Songjiang city had already gotten a huge number of people to search for me, the fire brigade as well as detectives full of experience, as well as employees of Shuguang Electronics all gathered around Xixing Mountain.

“Weier, take us the handful of melon seeds Yanyan gave you when we came out of the hotel,” I said to Chen Weier.

“Melon seeds, oh, let me see, it seems to be all wet!” Weier took out a handful of melon seeds and gave them to me. “All of them have been baked dry,” Weier said. “But what do you want this for? You can’t be planning to eat it as a meal right?”

“Hehe, of course not, these melon seeds aren’t enough for a little bite. We will use it to catch birds,” I received the melon seeds, and started peeling them.

“Catching birds?!” Chen Weier repeated, although she didn’t quite understand, but she still started to help me peel the melon seeds.

After a while, we peeled a small pile of melon seeds. I returned to the cave, and took out the ski hat that I took off just now. Then I found a string head from my scarf, and directly broke it back down into yarn. I found a small branch and held the hat up, and sprinkled some melon seeds to the bottom of the hat.

“So... You want to use these melon seeds as bait!” Seeing everything I have done, Chen Weier said like she understood everything.

“En, although these melon seeds aren’t the best bait for sparrow, but there is nothing here, and it is covered in snow everywhere, the sparrow that can’t find food must be starving that they don’t care anymore!” Saying that, I pulled Weier and hid behind a large boulder. Ever since Weier’s virginity was taken by me, she no longer had any reservations for intimate actions with me, rather she was like a newly wed wife, and cutely followed by my side.

After about half an hour, we didn't see a single sparrow fly by.

"Does your method actually work, why don't I see even a single sparrow?" It was the first time Chen Weier helped out in catching birds, and since she was very tense, after a while, droplets of sweat has started dripping down from her forehead.

"Don't hurry so much, sparrow are always in flocks during the winter, either you have none, or an entire flock," I explained. Although I haven't caught birds in my previous life, but you really think I haven't seen it before? There was no shortage of this type of bird catching method on television.

As expected, after a short while, a flock of sparrow flew over from the sky. One of them noticed the melon seeds on the ground, it swirled around for a while, before landing near the melon seeds.

I quickly pulled the string, the ski hat immediately caught the sparrow. Originally I thought it would scare the other sparrows away, but once I took out the captured bird, set up the hat once again, another sparrow got tricked again. Sparrows in the countryside are really dumb, I remember the sparrows in the city are extremely intelligent. Repeating this, I managed to catch twenty to thirty sparrows.

After doing that, I packed up the melon seeds from the ground. This was treasure, in the following days, Chen Weier and I had to rely on these bait to live. Due to the relatively quick speed of my actions, a lot of sparrow were caught before getting to eat any. Therefore not that many melon seeds were used.

I arrived near the cave, and found a place where the ground were relatively soft, then I used the branches to start digging. I needed to get some yellow soil out, I have seen that the chicken cooked with yellow soil was called Hua-chicken, today I'm going to make Hua-sparrow. Of course only I was needed for this type of physical labour, due to the earlier madness, Chen Weier's movements were still rather inconvenient.

I didn't care about whether the mah-jong were alive or dead, and directly covered it in yellow soil, then threw them into the fire. After a while, the sound of soil cracking could be heard from the fire.

Chen Weier stared at me with interest, and said passionately, “Hubby, if we really can’t return, then let us spend a lifetime on this island!”

Spend a lifetime, this wasn’t a bad idea, however there was nothing to eat, to wear and no houses on this island, I’m just afraid that we’ll die before making through this winter.

“I’m sorry, hubby. Weier knows that she’s wrong, Weier shouldn’t be this selfish! Hubby if you don’t return, Yanyan-meimei would definitely be really sad,” Seeing that I wasn’t speaking, Chen Weier thought that I was unhappy, and quickly admitted her mistake.

I gazed at Weier’s cheeks that have already turned red due to the fire, and said with caringly, “Weier, you are right! If we really can’t return, then let us spend a simple lifetime on this island!” Although I know this was impossible, but I was still affected by Weier’s words! In my previous life, when I stood at the peak of the business word, not only once did the urge to live a secluded life come up. If it wasn’t for Zhao Yanyan, I might have already...

Ai! I sighed, Yanyan, perhaps I will never meet you once again while I’m still alive!

As the yellow soil balls in the fire slowly turned hard, and cracked, a fresh smell came out, I couldn’t tell if it was the smell of soil or meat, or perhaps both.

My saliva was already dripping at the time, I impatiently took the two soil balls out with branches, then threw it into the snow on the side. There was a hole immediately melted in the snow. Seeing that the temperature lowered enough, I took out the soil balls, cracked it on the ground, and cleaned off the yellow soil with my hands. The bird feathers were pulled off along with the yellow soil.

Chapter 120 – Picnic Life

I handed the baked bird to Chen Weier, “Eat first, remember to throw away the intestines!” I reminded, who knows what these sparrow ate while they were alive, it’s not joke if we get poisoned.

“It looks quite scary, can this really be eaten?” Chen Weier carefully received the baked bird and asked.

“This is true wildlife! Normally you wouldn’t get to eat this even if you wanted to!” I was already tempted by the tempting smell, and quickly broke the other soil boil, and impatiently stuffed it in my mouth.

I don’t know if it was due to me being too hungry, it was essentially the most delicious thing in the world! Although no seasoning was put on it, but there was the natural freshness from soil. In a few bites, the bird was reduced to a pile of bones.

Seeing how much I enjoyed eating it, Chen Weier also took a small bite, then continuously praised how delicious it was. Just like that, the many sparrows we caught were devoured by the two of us.

People say that sexual arousal occurs when you’re full, this was definitely not wrong. After I finished the last sparrow, I felt like my entire body was full of energy. It was nearly dusk then, Wieer sat by the fireplace, and she was incomparably sexy.

“Weier...” My lower body started to raise his head.

“What are you going to do... Big pervert!” Weier saw my lecherous and lascivious gaze, and shouted alertly.

“Since you know I’m a big pervert, then you should know what perverts do!” With that I leaped over.

“Ah, help...” Chen Weier shouted to resist.

However, hehe, resisting would only make me more excited! I noticed that gangster. I actually had an unusual desire to conquer Chen Weier’s call for help.

The entirety of Xixing Mountain was already a mess. Han Bingfeng gazed at the Li Shaojie, who dare to act but didn't dare to admit that he did it, with a face full of rage, the rage in his heart was already at its max, if it wasn't for the police nearby, he really wanted to give him a huge beating. He bought the students out and had an accident, this was way too big of a responsibility, it wasn't that important whether him, a dean, gets punished, the large problem was the crime of affecting the school's reputation! And the culprit of it all was the Li Shaojie, who dared to do whatever he wants due to his family being a little rich.

Although the police had already sent out a large number of personnel to search near Xixing Mountain, but the other side of Xixing Mountain was a river, people could not get down. Unless they have helicopters! If they wanted to use helicopters to search for people, they couldn't help but seek aid from the military.

After thinking about it for a long while, Zhao Junsheng still dialed his father, Zhao Limin's, phone number, and told him about how Liu Lei fell down the cliff. That resulted in a round of scolding from Zhao Limin, especially about why he (Zhao Junsheng) call him earlier, ignoring that Liu Lei is his (Zhao Limin's) grandson-in-law, even if Shuguang Corporation loses this technological genius, how much damage loss would it bring to the national economy and technological development! Zhao Limin still wanted to see the corporation of his own country cover every corner of the world with his own eyes.

Zhao Limin immediately called the military area of Songjiang, and got 30 special ops to come over, using helicopters to conduct a large scale search on the ice!

Li Shaojie was dumbfounded at this point, he didn't think that such a deal would be made to search for the disappeared Liu Lei, even helicopters have been used, it would be seen how important this person's identity was.

It wasn't too surprising though, Shuguang Corporation was already one of the top private business in the nation, at the start of this year, the investment into the electronics factory that Shuguang had just bought begun, the first policy they made was the priority for employment given to workers that have been laid off, it was able to solve a large portion of the unemployment issue in Songjiang city. Even without Zhao Limin's relationship, the government would still full heartedly defend the behind-the-scenes owner of such a star business.

However Li Shaojie didn't know all this, he already called his father, who knows if his father can save him again. Although Li Shaojie was a bit pretentious normally, he still knows that murder is a capital offense! What's more is that the one he murdered seemed to be someone important that had a huge background! Li Shaojie just felt regret right now, it was just an impulsive action, he didn't think that it would cause so much trouble for him!

"This comrade, how could I address you?" A middle-aged man said to a police beside the police car with a briefcase under his arms. This middle-aged man was Li Shaojie's father, Li Dahai, and behind him was Lawyer Zhang from his own company. He was in a meeting just now when he suddenly received his son's call, and said that he got into trouble on Xixing Mountain, and was held by the police, he didn't say clearly about what trouble it was either. Li Dahai immediately got Lawyer Zhang and raced to Xixing Mountain, his son really didn't cause little amounts of trouble for him, he (Li Shaojie) often fought outside, and it was normal for him to get caught by the police. However due to Li Shaojie's grades being great, Li Dahai kept an eye closed, and just settled the troubles accordingly, not once was it a big deal. Li Dahai thought his son fought with someone again, and didn't treat it as a big deal.

"Who are you?" That police asked.

"I am Li Shaojie's father, I want came to bail my son out, this is the Lawyer Zhang from our company..." Li Dahai said.

Before Li Dahai finished, he was interrupted by that police, who said with a cold face, "No need to go on, you can't bail him out!"

“Can’t? This comrade, you should take responsibility for what you have said! According to Number 51 of our nation’s criminal law, I have the right to bail my litigant!” Lawyer Zhang said threateningly.

“Heh! Li Shaojie is now the suspect of an important case, we have solid evidence, what’s left is the judgement of the court!” The police said.

“Important case? What crime can Li Shaojie commit?” Li Dahai said in confusion. “Did you make a mistake?!”

“Wounding with intent, or it may become murder if it gets more serious, the results aren’t here yet, please return,” said the police.

“Wounding? Murder!?” Only then did Li Dahai realise the severity of the case, when he came over he just thought that his son fought with someone again, he didn’t think that his son would murder!

Li Dahai anxiously dialed police chief Jiang Yongfu’s phone number, “Hey, Jiang-dage, I’m Li Dahai!”

“Li Dahai? Oh, Director Li, hi!” Jiang Yongfu said.

“Jiang-dage, I have something to trouble you with...” Li Dahai hesitated, his relationship with Jiang Yongfu was so-so, they only met a few times. However he didn’t have a choice anymore, he would try anything that had a possibility right now, no matter how much he had to spend, he had to keep Li Shaojie safe.

“Say it, if I can do it, I would definitely do anything I can,” Jiang Yongfu had a pretty good impression of Li Dahai.
